

Triple Bottom Line (TBL) Assessment Summary

The Triple Bottom Line Assessment is required to be published in accordance with Part 4, section 23 (1)(b) of the Freedom of Information Act 2016

19/784 Chief Minister's Statement on accessibility of government information

Summary of impacts:

- The Chief Minister's statement on accessibility of government information requires ACT Government agencies to make progressive improvements in the accessibility of government information. These actions have the potential to improve citizens' engagement with government and support productivity and innovation through increased use and reuse of government information and data.

Level of impact	Positive	Negative	Neutral
-----------------	----------	----------	---------

Social
Level of impact	Impact	Summary
Positive	Human rights	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Human Rights Act 2004 enshrines the right to take part in public life. Improved access to government information, as mandated by the Chief Minister's Statement can assist individuals to participate in government processes and affairs and to better understand how government policies and actions affect them.

Economic
Level of impact	Impact	Summary
Positive	Productivity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The proposal has some small potential to support productivity and innovation by mandating improved access to government information, allowing business and the community to better understand how government policies and actions affect them.
Positive	Innovation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The proposal has some small potential to support the broader use and reuse of government data.

Environmental	Nil impact
----------------------	------------