Economic Development

Ref: 11

Dear

I refer to your application under section 14 of the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (FOI Act), received by the Economic Development Directorate on 19 October 2011 which you then refined the scope of on 22 November 2011 in which you requested access to the following documents:

- “What has been happening in the last 3 years with regards to tradeoffs between conservation and suburban development land, particularly in the last 12 months? Including concept plans and changes to the urban conservation boundaries and the work that has been done in EDD”.

I am an officer authorised to make a decision in respect of a request for information, under section 22 of the FOI Act.

Decision

The Directorate has identified a number of documents in its possession that meet the scope of your request, as identified in the schedule attached to this letter. I am releasing relevant documents held by the directorate to you.

Review rights

My decision is appealable under the Act. This means that if you are dissatisfied with this outcome you have a right to seek a review under section 59 of the Act. This right of review extends to a review of the adequacy of the search for documents undertaken by the Directorate. If you wish to seek a review you should write to:

The Director-General
Economic Development Directorate
C/- Freedom of Information Officer
GPO Box 158
CANBERRA ACT 2601

You have 28 days from the date of this letter to seek a review of the outcome or such other period as the Director-General permits.

Under section 54 of the Act, if you are concerned about the processing of your request or related administrative matters, you may complain to the Ombudsman, who may conduct an independent investigation into your complaint. There is no fee for this, and the contact details are as follows:

The Ombudsman
GPO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601
