Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

I refer to your application dated 1 December 2016, in which you sought access, under the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (the FOI Act), to the following:

Documents providing data, analysis and modelling (including SIDRA) on traffic numbers, volumes, flow, and vehicle speeds for streets, intersections and street mid blocks in Yarralumla for 2006 and for the period January 2011 to July 2016.

This request was accepted as a partial transfer from the Transport Canberra and City Services Directorate.

I am the officer authorised under section 22 of the Act to make a decision in relation to your requests.

Although the Act facilitates the objective of public access to documentation, the release of information is subject to a number of exceptions. In this instance, I am claiming partial exemption for some of the information you have requested, in accordance with the following section of the FOI Act:

Section 41 Documents affecting personal privacy

Section 41 provides that:

(1) A document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about any person.

The documents falling within the scope of your request contain limited personal information, including the name and email address of a third party engaged by the Directorate. I have redacted such personal information from these documents on the grounds of personal privacy. These redactions do not affect the substance of the documents.

I have also assessed your request for information under the ACT Government's Online Freedom of Information Publication Policy and have determined that the documents relevant to your request, including this decision letter, will be published online. For more information about the ACT Government's Online Freedom of Information Publication Policy, visit the link below.

You have a right to seek a review of this decision under section 59 of the Act. You have 28 days from the date of this letter, or such other period as the Director-General permits, to seek a review. This right of review extends to a review of the adequacy of the search for documents undertaken by the Directorate. If you wish to seek a review you should write to:

The Director-General
ACT Justice and Community Safety Directorate
C/- Freedom of Information Officer
GPO Box 158
CANBERRA ACT 2601

You also have the right to contact the Ombudsman regarding the processing of your request. If you wish to discuss this matter with the Ombudsman you should write to:

The Ombudsman
GPO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601

Should you have any queries in relation to your request please feel free to contact the Freedom of Information Coordinator, Ms Lauren Callow on (02) 6207 2167.

Yours sincerely

Ms Karen Greenland
