

Agreement

The City of Canberra in Australia and The City Nara in Japan

based on their proclamation of a sister city relationship, and wishing to establish and promote goodwill and friendly relations between both cities and countries by way of an interchange of arts and culture and an exchange of citizens, for the purpose of successful implementation of the sister city relationship, have agreed herewith concerning the following areas of activity:

1. mutual exchanges of delegations from various sectors of the community;
2. mutual receptions of visiting delegations;
3. mutual exchange of arts, culture and sport;
4. mutual co-operation in industry exchange and promotion of tourism;
5. exchange of information concerning history, culture, education and research;
6. any other activities for the purpose of promoting goodwill and friendship between the two cities and our respective countries.

It is in confirmation of the above that the Chief Minister of the Australian Capital Territory and the Mayor of Nara City
hereby affix their signatures to this agreement in Canberra on this 31 day of March 1994
