Dear

I refer to your application under section 14 of the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (FOI Act), received by the Land Development Agency (LDA) on 16 February 2012, in which you requested the following documents relating to Section 32 Belconnen:

"Can you please provide a copy of the file from the LDA that shows the process of how the block shape of 20 and 21 was changed to abandon having road access to block 21. We are looking for the record of and the reasoning behind the change. It will likely be in a file relating to the creation of block 20."

I am an officer authorised to make a decision in respect of a request for information, under section 22 of the FOI Act.

Decision

LDA has identified a number of documents in its possession that meet the scope of your request, as identified in the schedule attached to this letter.

I am releasing all of the relevant documents held by LDA to you, although I have decided to exempt some material from release.

43 Documents relating to business affairs

- (1) (b) A document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this act would disclose – any other information having a commercial value that would be, or could reasonably be expected to be, destroyed or diminished if the information were disclosed;

The exempt material relates to business affairs of a third party.

41 Documents affecting personal privacy

(1) A document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information relating to the personal affairs of any person (including a deceased person)

The exempt material contains information relating to the personal affairs of a third party.

Please note that some information has been excluded because it was out of the scope of the request.

Review rights

My decision is appealable under the Act. This means that if you are dissatisfied with this outcome you have a right to seek a review under section 59 of the Act. This right of review extends to a review of the adequacy of the search for documents undertaken by the Directorate. If you wish to seek a review you should write to:

The Chief Executive Officer
Land Development Agency
C/- Freedom of Information Officer
GPO Box 158
CANBERRA ACT 2601

You have 28 days from the date of this letter to seek a review of the outcome or such other period as the Chief Executive Officer permits.

Under section 54 of the Act, if you are concerned about the processing of your request or related administrative matters, you may complain to the Ombudsman, who may conduct an independent investigation into your complaint. There is no fee for this, and the contact details are as follows:

The Ombudsman
GPO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601

Online FOI Policy

Please be aware that under the ACT Government's Online FOI Publication Policy, information released to you under this Freedom of Information Application may be released on the internet.

Personal information or business affairs information will not be made available under this policy. If you think the content of your request would contain such information, please inform Tracey Henry on 6207 3764 immediately.

A copy of the policy, with details about what information may be published on the internet, is available online at:
