

REF: FOI: 12-24

Dear

I refer to your application under the ACT Freedom of Information Act 1989 (the Act), received by the Directorate on 14 March 2012, in which you requested access to the following information:

“Email, records, memos, reports and other communication relating to moveable MRI Scanner within the Neurosurgical Intra-Operative Magnetic Resonance Imaging Suite at the Canberra Hospital.

Relating to:

- Occupational health and safety issues regarding the moveable MRI scanner and its use
- Usage of the MRI scanner and availability for use
- Accreditation and training of staff relating to the MRI scanner

Between the dates of September 2010 and March 2012 inclusive.

As Executive Director, Division of Surgery and Oral Health, ACT Government Health Directorate, I am an officer authorised to make a decision in respect of a request for information, under section 22 of the Act.

After conducting a search of all relevant ACT Government Health Directorate records, the Directorate has identified 167 documents in its possession that meet the scope of your request, as identified in the schedule at Attachment B.

I have decided that 109 documents are to be partially released, 43 are to be released in full and 15 are to be exempt from release, in accordance with exemption provisions under the Act, as outlined in the Statement of Reasons at Attachment A.

My decision is appealable under the Act. This means that if you are dissatisfied with this outcome you have a right to seek a review under section 59 of the Act. This right of review extends to a review of the adequacy of the search for documents undertaken by the Directorate. If you wish to seek a review you should write to:

The Principal Officer

c/- FOI Coordinator
Executive Coordination
Health Directorate
GPO Box 825
CANBERRA ACT 2601

You have 28 days from the date of this letter to seek a review of the outcome or such other period as the Director-General permits.

Under section 54 of the Act, if you are concerned about the processing of your request or related administrative matters, you may complain to the Ombudsman, who may conduct an independent investigation into your complaint. There is no fee for this, and the contact details are as follows:

The Ombudsman

Sections of relevant legislation that have been considered by the Decision Maker in determining the status of each document:

Freedom of Information Act 1989 (FOI Act)

Section 21 of the FOI Act – Deletion of exempt matter

(1) Where—

- (a) a decision is made not to grant a request for access to a document on the ground that it is an exempt document; and
- (b) it is possible for the agency or Minister to make a copy of the document with such deletions that the copy would not be an exempt document and would not, because of the deletions, be misleading; and
- (c) it is reasonably practicable for the agency or Minister, having regard to the nature and extent of the work involved in deciding on and making those deletions and the resources available for that work, to make such a copy;

the agency or Minister shall, unless it is apparent from the request or as a result of consultation by the agency or Minister with the applicant, that the applicant would not wish to have access to such a copy, make, and grant access to, such a copy.

(2) Where access is granted to a copy of a document in accordance with subsection (1)—

- (a) the applicant shall be informed—
 - (i) that it is such a copy; and
 - (ii) of the provision of this Act by virtue of which any matter deleted is exempt matter; and
- (b) section 25 does not apply to the decision that the applicant is not entitled to access to the whole of the document unless the applicant requests the agency or Minister to give to the applicant a notice in writing in accordance with that section.

Section 36 of the Act – Internal working documents

- (1) Subject to this section, a document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this Act—
 - (a) would disclose matter in the nature of, or relating to, opinion, advice or recommendation obtained, prepared or recorded, or consultation or deliberation that has taken place, in the course of, or for the purposes of, the deliberative processes involved in the functions of an agency or Minister or of the Territory; and
 - (b) would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) In the case of a document of the kind referred to in section 8 (1), the matter referred to in subsection (1) (a) of this section does not include matter that is used or to be used for the purpose of the making of decisions or recommendations referred to in section 8 (1).
- (3) This section does not apply to a document only because of purely factual material contained in the document.
- (4) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) reports (including reports concerning the results of studies, surveys or tests) of scientific or technical experts, whether employed within an agency or not, including reports expressing the opinions of such experts on scientific or technical matters; or
 - (b) reports of a prescribed body or organisation established within an agency; or
 - (c) the record of, or a formal statement of the reasons for, a final decision given in the exercise of a power or of an adjudicative function.
- (5) Where a decision is made under part 3 that an applicant is not entitled to access to a document because of this section, the notice under section 25 shall state the ground of public interest on which the decision is based.

Section 41 of the FOI Act - Documents affecting personal privacy

- (1) A document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about any person (including a deceased person).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), subsection (1) does not apply to a request by a person for access to a document only because of the inclusion in the document of matter relating to that person.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) a request is made to an agency or Minister for access to a document of the agency, or an official document of the Minister, that contains information of a medical or psychiatric nature concerning the person making the request; and
 - (b) it appears to the principal officer of the agency, or to the Minister, as the case may be, that the disclosure of the information to that person might be prejudicial to the physical or mental health or wellbeing of that person;

the principal officer or Minister may direct that access to the document, so far as it contains that information, that would otherwise be given to that person is not to be given to that person but is to be given instead to a doctor to be nominated by that person.

Section 43 of the FOI Act – Documents relating to business affairs

- (1) A document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this Act would disclose –
 - (a) trade secrets; or
 - (b) any other information having a commercial value that would be, or could reasonably be expected to be, destroyed or diminished if the information were disclosed; or
 - (c) information (other than trade secrets or information to which paragraph (b) applies) concerning a person in respect of his or her business or professional affairs or concerning the business, commercial or financial affairs of an organisation or undertaking, being information –
 - (i) the disclosure of which would, or could reasonably be expected to, unreasonably affect that person adversely in respect of his or her lawful business or professional affairs or that organisation or undertaking in respect of its lawful business, commercial or financial affairs; or
 - (ii) the disclosure of which under this Act could reasonably be expected to prejudice the future supply of information to the Territory or an agency for the purpose of the administration of a law or the administration of matters administered by an agency.

Subsection (1) does not apply to a request by a person for access to a document –

- (a) only because of the inclusion in the document of information concerning that person in respect of his or her business or professional affairs; or
 - (b) only because of the inclusion in the document of information concerning the business, commercial or financial affairs of an undertaking where the person making the request is the proprietor of the undertaking or a person acting on behalf of the proprietor; or
 - (c) only because of the inclusion in the document of information concerning the business, commercial or financial affairs of an organisation where the person making the request is the organisation or person acting on behalf of the organisation.
- (2) A reference in this section to an undertaking includes a reference to an undertaking that is carried on by, or by an authority of, the Territory, the Commonwealth, a State or by a local government authority.

Section 45 of the Act – Documents containing material obtained in confidence

- (1) A document is an exempt document if its disclosure under this Act would constitute a breach of confidence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to any document to the disclosure of which section 36 (1) (a) applies or would, but for section 36 (2), (3) or (4), apply, being a document prepared by—
 - (a) a Minister; or
 - (b) a member of the staff of a Minister or an officer of an agency in the course of his or her duties; or
 - (c) a prescribed authority in the exercise of its functions;
for purposes relating to the affairs of an agency or the official affairs of a Minister unless the disclosure would constitute a breach of confidence owed to a person or body other than—
 - (d) a person in the capacity of Minister, member of the staff of a Minister or officer of an agency; or
 - (e) an agency or the Territory.
