ANNEX A – CLASSIFICATIONS AND RATES OF PAY

ANNEX B – ALLOWANCES
Section A  Scope of Agreement

A1  Title

A1.1 This Agreement, made under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009, will be known as the ACT Legislative Assembly Members’ Staff Enterprise Agreement 2018-2021.

A2  Main Purpose

A2.1 The main purpose of this Agreement is to provide for terms and conditions that reflect the particular operational and business requirements of the Legislative Assembly.

A3  Application and Coverage

A3.1 This Agreement applies to and covers:

A3.1.1 the Chief Minister of the ACT on behalf of the Australian Capital Territory;

A3.1.2 persons engaged under the Legislative Assembly (Members’ Staff) Act 1989 at any time when the Agreement is in operation in one of the classifications in Annex A, except persons engaged as Executive Chief of Staff; and A3.1.3 Members of the ACT Legislative Assembly.

A3.2 Subject to the Fair Work Commission (FWC) noting in its decision to approve this Agreement that it covers these unions, this Agreement covers:

A3.2.1 Community and Public Sector Union (CPSU)

A3.2.2 Media, Entertainment and Arts Alliance (MEAA)

A3.2.3 United Services Union (USU)

A4  Commencement and Duration

A4.1 This Agreement will commence operation seven days after it is approved by the FWC.

A4.2 The nominal expiry date of this Agreement is 31 October 2021.

A4.3 The Chief Minister and unions covered by this Agreement agree to commence bargaining for a new replacement Agreement no later than eight months prior to the nominal expiry date of this Agreement.

A4.4 Copies of this Agreement will be made available, in paper or electronic form, to all employees covered by the Agreement.

A5  Operation of the Agreement

A5.1 This Agreement is comprehensive and provides the terms and conditions of employment of employees covered by this Agreement, other than terms and conditions applying under applicable legislation.

A5.2 Applicable legislation includes:

A5.2.1 Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (FW Act);

A5.2.2 Legislative Assembly (Members’ Staff) Act 1989 (ACT) (LAMS Act);

A5.2.3 Chief Minister’s Determinations and Directions made under A5.2.2;

A5.2.4 Public Sector Management Act 1994 (ACT) (PSM Act);

A5.2.5 Public Sector Management Standards (PSM Standards);

A5.2.9  Territory Records Act 2002 (ACT) (TR Act);
A5.2.10 Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act, 1988 (Cth) (SRC Act); and A5.2.12  Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.
A5.2.13  Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993.
A5.2.15  Public Health Act 1997.
A5.2.16  Human Rights Act 2004.
A5.2.17  Children and Young People Act 2008.

A5.3  This Agreement constitutes a closed agreement in settlement of all claims for its duration. Therefore, during the life of this Agreement, there will be no further claims that affect the provisions of this Agreement, except where these claims are consistent with the terms of this Agreement. This clause does not limit the rights to vary an agreement under the FW Act.

A5.4  This Agreement will be read and interpreted in conjunction with the NES. Where there is inconsistency between this Agreement and the NES, and the NES provides greater benefit, the NES provision will apply to the extent of the inconsistency.

A5.5  This Agreement prevails over ACT legislation, including the PSM Act and the PSM Standards and relevant policy statements and guidelines to the extent of any inconsistency.

A6 Authority of the Chief Minister

A6.1  Nothing in this Agreement limits the power of the Chief Minister or the relevant Member to authorise a person to act for and on the Chief Minister’s or the relevant Member’s behalf.

A7 Flexibility Term

A7.1  The Member and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain provisions of this Agreement to meet the particular needs of the Member’s office and of the individual employee (an individual flexibility arrangement).

A7.2  The provisions of this Agreement that the Member and an individual employee may agree to vary through an individual flexibility arrangement are:

A7.2.1 vacation childcare subsidy (subclause E9.1);
A7.2.2 family care costs (subclause E10.1); and A7.2.3 Specialist Duty Payment (subclause C8.3).

A7.3  The Member must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

A7.3.1 are about matters that would be permitted if the arrangement were an enterprise agreement;
A7.3.2 does not include a term that would be an unlawful term if the arrangement were an enterprise agreement; and
A7.3.3 will result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would have been if no individual flexibility arrangement were agreed to.
A7.4  The Member must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

A7.4.1 identifies the subclause in A7.2 of this Agreement that the Member and the employee have agreed to vary;

A7.4.2 sets out details of how the arrangement will vary the effect of the clause;

A7.4.3 includes details of how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and

A7.4.4 states the day the arrangement commences.

A7.5  An individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause must be genuinely agreed to by the Member and the individual employee.

A7.6  Except as provided in paragraph A7.7.2, an individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause must not include a provision that requires the individual flexibility arrangement to be approved, or consented to, by another person.

A7.7  The Member must ensure that an individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause must be in writing and signed:

A7.7.1 in all cases - by the employee and the Member; and

A7.7.2 if the employee is under eighteen – by a parent or guardian of the employee.

A7.8  The Member must give the employee a copy of an individual flexibility arrangement made under this clause within fourteen days after it is agreed to.

A7.9  The Member or the employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

A7.9.1 by giving written notice of no more than twenty eight days to the other party to the arrangement; or

A7.9.2 if the Member and the employee agree in writing – at any time.

A7.10 The right to make an individual flexibility arrangement under this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, the right of the Member and an individual employee to make an agreement under any other provision of this Agreement.

A8  Work Organisation

A8.1  An employee agrees to carry out all lawful and reasonable directions of the Member according to the requirements of the work and the employee’s skill, experience and competence, in accordance with this Agreement, and without deskill the employee.

A8.2  An employee will not, unless this is done in the course of the employee’s duties or as required by law or by the Member or the Assembly, use or disclose to any person any confidential information about the Members’ of the Assembly’s business that becomes known to the employee during the employee’s employment.

A8.3  The employer will not reveal to any person any medical, financial or personal details of the employee that the employer may have obtained, except with the permission of the employee or where the employer is under a legal obligation to do so.

A8.4  Subject to subclauses A8.5 to A8.8 and limited to new employees of the Assembly whose employment with the Assembly commences on or after the commencement of this Agreement (new employee), the relevant corporate area will provide details of the new employee’s employment to the relevant Union(s) (irrespective of whether the employee has elected to become a member of the Union).
A8.5 The details of the new employee’s employment which the relevant corporate area may provide to a relevant Union is limited to the new employee’s first name and surname, the ACT Government contact information for the new employee (email address and contact phone number), and the position and work area in which the new employee is engaged. The relevant corporate area will not provide the information to the Union(s) until at least twenty-one (21) days after the new employee has commenced employment.

A8.6 Subclause A8.4 does not apply if the Member has received written notification from the new employee, either prior to their commencement of employment, or within fourteen (14) days after their commencement, that he or she does not consent to the information specified in subclause A8.5 being shared with the relevant Union(s).

A8.7 Each of the Unions referred to in subclause A3.2 who wish to receive the information referred to in subclause A8.5 must advise the ACTPS of the classifications covered by this Agreement which, in accordance with its rules, the Union is entitled to represent. Upon receipt of that advice from the Unions, the ACTPS will compile a schedule and provide it to the Unions (Union Representation Schedule).

A8.8 The relevant corporate area will only provide new employee information to the relevant Union(s) under subclause A8.4 in accordance with the Union Representation Schedule and will do so on a monthly basis.

A9 Ensuring Fairness

A9.1 The Territory recognises and encourages the contribution that people with diverse backgrounds, experiences and skills can make to the workplace. The Territory aims to ensure that this diversity is able to contribute to effective decision making and delivery of client service.

A9.2 The Territory will work with employees to prevent and eliminate discrimination on the basis of sex, sexuality, gender identity, relationship status, status as a parent or carer, pregnancy, breastfeeding, race, religious or political conviction, disability, industrial activity, age, profession, trade, occupation or calling, association, or a spent conviction, in accordance with the Discrimination Act 1991.

A10 Promoting a Healthy and Safe Working Environment

A10.1 The Territory is committed to promoting, achieving and maintaining the highest levels of health and safety for all employees.

A10.2 The Territory will take all reasonable steps and precautions to provide a healthy, safe and secure workplace for the employee. The Territory and all employees will act in a manner that is consistent with the Work Health and Safety Act 2011.

A10.3 Further, given the clear evidence of the benefits and cost effectiveness of workplace health initiatives for both employers and employees, the Work Safety Committee will develop health and wellbeing policies and programs that promote healthy lifestyles and help maintain a high standard of physical and mental health, along with supporting individual workplace safety and general wellbeing. Such policies and programs may include:

A10.3.1 organisational/environmental policies and programs;

A10.3.2 awareness, training and education programs that promote healthy lifestyles, assist employees to identify and reduce risk factors; and

A10.3.3 traditional and non-traditional physical activity programs.
A11  Developing Our People

A11.1 This Agreement supports a performance culture that promotes ethical workplace conduct and rewards employees for their contribution towards the achievement of objectives.

A11.2 It is acknowledged that performance management is important to employee development and to ensuring the relationship between Members’, team and individual responsibilities are aligned to individual, team and organisational objectives.

A11.3 Any performance management schemes will not include performance pay and will not be used for disciplinary purposes.

A12  Courses and Seminars

A12.1 Responsibility for identifying and attending relevant courses and seminars rests with employees, subject to the prior approval of the employing Member. Overall funding for training will be subject to the available budget.

A12.2 Training may be available to employees in areas including, but not limited to, communications, office management, constituent management, and electorate business.

A12.3 Computer systems training is available to all employees as necessary including, but not limited to, word processing, spreadsheets, information management, database management, graphics and internet based training.

A12.4 Professional development may be available, with the agreement of the employing Member, and may include attendance at work-related professional development courses, seminars, workshops or conferences within Australia.

A12.5 Studies assistance may be available for study at educational institutions in courses that are considered to be relevant to the employee’s employment, in accordance with guidelines issued by the relevant corporate area.

A13  Termination of Agreement

A13.1 The Territory and the union(s) covered by this Agreement agree that the maintenance of, and adherence to, agreed terms and conditions of employment is a key component of good workplace relations and a dispute free workplace. They therefore agree that they will not exercise their right to terminate this Agreement under the FW Act.
Section B  Working in the ACT Legislative Assembly

B1 Types of Employment

B1.1  A person will be engaged under the LAMS Act in one of the following categories:

B1.1.1 fixed term temporary employment on a full-time or regular part-time basis, engaged for a specified period of time or for a specified task, or as a trainee or cadet; or

B1.1.2 casual temporary employment on an irregular and non-systematic basis.

B1.2 Persons engaged on a part-time basis will receive, on a proportionate basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of full time employees unless specifically stated elsewhere in this Agreement.

B2 Probation

B2.1 Where a person is employed on probation under the LAMS Act, the period of probation will ordinarily be no more than six months.

B2.1.1 The probation period can only be longer than six months if it is in accordance with approved Training Scheme employment arrangements or where the period of probation has been extended following an assessment of performance.

B2.2 The Member will, at the time an offer of employment on probation, inform the person in writing of the period of probation that will apply.

B2.3 A decision of the Member to terminate the employment of an employee on probation is excluded from the Internal Review Procedures (Section I) of this Agreement.

B2.3.1 To avoid doubt, an employee on probation is able to seek a review of the employee’s probation under the Internal Review Procedures, (Section I), except in relation to a decision to terminate the employee’s employment.

B3 Hours of Work

B3.1 In this clause employee refers to an employee, other than a casual employee.

Ordinary Hours of Work

B3.2 The ordinary daily hours are seven hours and twenty one minutes for a full time employee. The ordinary weekly hours are thirty-six hours and forty-five minutes for a full time employee.

B3.3 A part-time employee will work less than the ordinary weekly hours of work for a full-time employee.

B3.4 A Member will, after consultation with the employee, fix the commencing and finishing times of an employee’s ordinary daily hours having regard to the employee’s work and life responsibilities.

B3.5 As far as practicable, ordinary daily hours must be worked within the span of hours limits of 7:00 am to 7:00 pm Monday to Friday.

B3.6 At the request of an employee, and with the agreement of the Member, the employee may work outside the span of hours stipulated at subclause B3.5. This provision is designed to add flexibility in exceptional circumstances and is not to be used to replace normal overtime provisions.

B3.6.1 Where an employee requests to work outside the span of hours in accordance with subclause B3.6, these hours will be considered normal hours of duty and will not attract overtime payments or time off in lieu provisions on an hour for hour basis, unless otherwise agreed between the employee and the Member prior to the work being performed.
Meal Break

B3.7 Unless there are exceptional and unforeseen circumstances, an employee will not be required to work for more than five hours without a meal break of at least thirty minutes’ duration. Meal breaks will not count as time worked unless specifically provided for in this Agreement.

B3.8 The term ‘meal break’ does not require the employee to partake of a meal during the break period.

B3.9 An employee who works up to six hours in a day may, with the agreement of the Member, work up to six hours without a meal break to accommodate the employee’s personal circumstances and work/life balance.

Rest Relief after Extra Duty

B3.10 Unless a Member directs an employee to report for duty earlier, the employee must have a continuous period of eight hours, plus reasonable travel time, off duty between ceasing extra duty following normal duty one day, and commencing normal daily hours of work the following day.

B3.11 An employee is entitled to be absent from duty, without loss of pay, until the employee has been off duty for a continuous period of eight hours plus reasonable travel time.

B3.12 Where a Member directs an employee to return to duty without having had eight consecutive hours off duty, plus reasonable travelling time, the employee must:

B3.12.1 be paid at double the ordinary hourly rate of pay until the employee is released from duty for that period; and

B3.12.2 the employee will then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had eight consecutive hours off duty plus reasonable travelling time, without loss of pay for any ordinary working time occurring during that absence.

B4 Time Off In Lieu (TOIL)

B4.1 TOIL will provide the framework for an employee’s, other than a casual employee’s, pattern of attendance at work to be varied according to the needs of the employee and the requirements of the Member’s office. It is not a system that is designed to increase or reduce the total number of hours that must be worked.

B4.2 For TOIL arrangements to work effectively Members and employees have a responsibility to manage hours of work to ensure that individuals are not building up excessive TOIL credits without:

B4.2.1 the opportunity to access TOIL credit; and

B4.2.2 being productively employed, i.e. a Member may require an employee not to accumulate TOIL credits before 8:30 am or after 4:51 pm where there is insufficient work or an employee cannot be sufficiently managed.

B4.3 TOIL will only accrue on those hours worked in excess of thirty-eight hours and forty-five minutes in a week for a full-time employee, and proportionate hours for a part-time employee.

B4.4 A Member may authorise an employee who has accrued TOIL credits to be absent during the hours specified for the performance of ordinary daily hours in subclause B3.5 without deduction from pay, and without additional payment, on an hour-for-hour basis, at ordinary time rates of pay.

B4.5 Accrued TOIL credits will be taken at such times and in such a period or periods as are agreed between the employee and the Member and approved prior to taking accrued TOIL. It is the responsibility of both the employee and the relevant Member to take steps to ensure that accrued TOIL credits can be taken as time off, in accordance with this clause.
B4.6 TOIL will, subject to operational requirements, be granted as soon as practicable after it is accrued, unless the employee requests otherwise.

B4.7 If a Member does not grant an employee’s request to take TOIL because of operational requirements, the Member will consult with the employee to determine a mutually convenient alternative time for the employee to take TOIL.

B4.8 A Member must not approve TOIL where the employee has failed to keep suitable records of attendance for duty and absence from duty.

B4.9 At the end of the settlement period, an employee can only accrue:

B4.9.1 a maximum TOIL credit equal to 100 hours. Any TOIL accrued in excess of the maximum credit, at the end of the settlement period, will be forfeited.

B4.9.2 a maximum TOIL debit equal to 10 hours. Any debit in excess of the maximum debit, at the end of a settlement period, will be considered to be leave without pay and deducted in accordance with the overpayment process at clause D4.

B4.10 A settlement period will comprise two weeks.

B4.11 Where an employee has accrued 80 hours TOIL credit the employee and relevant Member must agree, and implement a TOIL usage plan to ensure the employee’s accrued TOIL credit will not exceed a maximum of 100 hours.

B4.12 There is no provision to cash out TOIL credits either during a period of employment with the Member, or upon separation.

B4.13 An employee not complying with these TOIL provisions may be directed to work standard hours or the employee’s standard working pattern. Standard hours are from 8.30am to 12.30pm and from 1.30pm to 4.51pm, Monday to Friday, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the employee and the Member.

B5 Record Keeping

B5.1 The employer will keep records relating to the employees’ work, including records about attendance and pay, in accordance with the requirements of the FW Act, FW Regulations and the Territory Records Act 2002.

B5.2 The employee will record the time of commencing and ceasing duty for each day. These records will require certification by the employing Member, or other nominated supervisor, and lodgement with the relevant corporate area in a timely fashion.

B6 Notice of Termination

B6.1 Where an employee’s employment is to be terminated at the initiative of the employee, the employee will provide written notice of their resignation to the Member at least two weeks prior to the proposed date of the resignation.

B6.2 The period of notice required in subclause B6.1 may be reduced by agreement in writing between the employee and the Member.

B6.3 Where an employee’s employment is to be terminated at the initiative of the Member, the employee may be paid a termination payment as set out in clause B7.

B6.4 The termination payment under clause B7 will constitute payment or part payment of compensation in lieu of notice for the purposes of section 117 of the Fair Work Act.
B6.5 If the payment to which the employee is entitled to under clause B7 is less than that to which the employee would be entitled to under section 117 of the Fair Work Act, the employee will be entitled to be paid compensation in lieu of notice equal to the difference between the termination payment in subclause B7.1 and the employee's entitlement under section 117 of the Fair Work Act.

B6.6 Where an employee is not entitled to a termination payment under subclause B7.1, the employee may be entitled to notice, or pay in lieu of notice, in accordance with section 117 of the Fair Work Act.

B7 Termination Payment

B7.1 Subject to this clause and subclause B7.2, an employee whose employment is terminated by the operation of sections 8(1), 8(2), 8(4), 13(1) and 13(3) of the LAMS Act is entitled to be paid:

B7.1.1 a sum equal to four weeks salary irrespective of length of service; plus
B7.1.2 a sum equal to two weeks salary for each completed year of continuous service; plus
B7.1.3 a pro-rata payment for additional completed months of service, up to a maximum of forty-eight weeks’ salary.

B7.2 The following employees are not entitled to a termination payment under subclause B7.1:

B7.2.1 an employee whose employment is terminated by resignation or dismissal for misconduct;
B7.2.2 an employee who has a right of return to secure employment in the public sector;
B7.2.3 an employee who is engaged for a fixed period, to fill a vacancy caused by a staff member being absent on leave;
B7.2.4 an employee who is engaged to undertake a specified project, where the project has been completed;
B7.2.5 a probationary employee;
B7.2.6 a casual employee;
B7.2.7 an employee who is immediately re-employed under the LAMS Act.

B7.3 Where an employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay under clause 119 of the Fair Work Act, any termination payment made under subclause B7.1 will be reduced by an amount equal to that redundancy payment.

B8 Payment on Death

B8.1 Where an employee dies, or the Member has directed that an employee will be presumed to have died on a particular date, the relevant corporate area may make a payment or partial payment for unused leave credits and other entitlements directly to the dependants or the domestic partner, or to the legal personal representative, or to the estate, of the former employee of an amount that would have been paid had the employee ceased employment otherwise than because of the employee's death. The payment in respect of unused LSL will be calculated in accordance with subclause F25.9.
Section C  Rates of Pay and Allowances

C1 Part-Time Employment
C1.1 Persons engaged on a part-time basis will receive, on a proportionate basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of full time employees, unless specifically stated elsewhere in this Agreement.

C2 Casual Employment Arrangements
C2.1 A casual employee is an employee who is employed by a Member by the hour or on an irregular or non-systematic basis, or to provide temporary assistance on such days as the Member may require.

Minimum Attendance
C2.2 The minimum payment on each occasion when a casual employee is called for and attends for duty will be three hours, whether or not the casual employee is required to work for those three hours.

Rate of Pay
C2.3 A person engaged as a casual employee will be paid at the same rate of pay as would be applicable to a fixed term employee performing the duties and hours of that role. In addition the casual employee will receive a loading of 25% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay set out in Annex A to this Agreement for the employee’s classification, in lieu of paid leave entitlements, other than long service leave, and in lieu of payment for public holidays on which the employee did not work.

Overtime
C2.4 Subject to subclause C2.5, a casual employee is eligible to receive payment for overtime in accordance with this provision in respect of all hours worked in excess of seven hours and twenty-one minutes on any day, and for all duty required to be performed on a Saturday or Sunday that is in addition to the employee’s ordinary weekly hours of work.

C2.5 Except with the approval of the Member, an employee whose minimum annual pay is equal to or greater than the minimum annual pay of a Senior Adviser Level 1 is not eligible to receive payment for overtime worked.

C2.6 In determining a claim or claims for overtime from an employee whose minimum annual pay is equal to or greater than the minimum annual pay of a Senior Adviser Level 1, the Member will take into account such records of attendance that may demonstrate that the employee has worked regular and/or excessive overtime.

C2.7 The loading paid under subclause C2.3 is not taken into account in the calculation of overtime payments.

C2.8 A casual employee who is required to work overtime will be paid as follows:

C2.8.1 for overtime worked at any time from Monday to Saturday inclusive, at the rate of time and a half at the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay for the first three hours, and at the rate of double time at the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay for all hours thereafter.

D1.5 The relevant corporate area will continue to provide appropriate information to employees concerning salary sacrifice arrangements.

D2  Classification/Work Value Review

D2.1 An employee, or a group of employees, or the union(s) or other employee representatives (“the applicant”), may present a case to request the Chief Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate to undertake a classification/work value review of a position or group of positions.

D2.2 The Chief Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate will undertake the review in consultation with the employee(s) and/or the union(s) or other employee representatives.

D3.2 The relevant corporate area will arrange for an assessment of the productive capacity of an employee in accordance with the processes contained in the National Minimum Wage Order issued annually by the FWC, except that the minimum rate payable will be as set out in subclause D3.1.

D4  Overpayments

D4.1 An overpayment is any payment in respect of pay, allowance or leave, whether the overpayment is by accident or otherwise, to which the employee is not entitled.

D4.2 An overpayment is a debt owed to the Territory.

D4.3 In the event that an employee has received an overpayment, the relevant corporate area will recover the overpayment in accordance with this clause.

D4.4 Where the relevant corporate area believes that an overpayment has occurred the relevant corporate area will work with the employee to establish the:

D4.4.1 pay period(s) in which the overpayment occurred; and D4.4.2 nature of the overpayment; and
D4.4.3 reasons why the overpayment occurred; and D4.4.4 gross and net components of the overpayment.

D4.5 Once the overpayment has been established in accordance with subclause D4.4 the relevant corporate area will provide the details of the overpayment, as per subclause D4.4, to the employee in writing and will consider whether it would be appropriate in the circumstances to waive part or all of the overpayment in accordance with section 131 of the Financial Management Act.

D4.6 Subsequent to the decision of whether to waive the overpayment or not in accordance with subclause D4.5 the relevant corporate area will advise the employee in writing, as soon as practicable, of the:

D4.6.1 decision as to what if any part of the overpayment will be waived;
D4.6.2 amount of the overpayment that is to be recovered if any;
D4.6.3 process for recovery of the overpayment, if any; and
D4.6.4 proposed recovery rate, if any.

D4.7 The relevant corporate area and the employee will agree on a reasonable recovery rate having regard for all of the circumstances prior to any recovery being made. Where agreement cannot be reached subclause D4.10 will apply.

D4.8 Any such agreement in accordance with subclause D4.7 may include recovery of the overpayment by the relevant corporate area:

D4.8.1 as a lump sum; or
D4.8.2 by payroll deduction from pay.
D4.9 In respect to recovery action it may be agreed with the employee to adjust their leave credits instead of, or in combination with, a cash recovery, provided that the employee cannot be worse off in terms of their leave entitlements than had they requested payment in lieu of annual leave in accordance with subclause F7.31 or long service leave in accordance with paragraph F25.6.2.

D4.10 Where the relevant corporate area and the employee cannot agree about the arrangements for recovery of an overpayment, the overpayment will be recovered in accordance with an arrangement as determined by the relevant corporate area in accordance with section 246 of the PSM Act.

D4.10.1 Where recovery occurs in accordance with subclause D4.10 the overpayment will be recovered at the rate of up to 10% of the employee’s gross fortnightly pay, or such other rate determined by the relevant corporate area having regard for all of the circumstances.

D4.11 Despite subclauses D4.7 and D4.10, the recovery period will not usually exceed twenty six pay periods.

D4.12 Despite subclauses D4.7 and D4.10, where an employee is paid an amount to which he or she is not entitled as a result of an amendment to, or late submission of, a time sheet, evidence, material or other forms, the amount paid (the “discrepancy”):

D4.12.1 may be deducted in the following pay period, provided it is no greater than 10% of the employee’s gross fortnightly pay; and

D4.12.2 will not be considered an overpayment for the purposes of this clause D4, provided that the employee is notified accordingly.

D4.13 Further to subclause D4.12, if more than two pay periods have passed since the discrepancy was paid, or the discrepancy exceeds 10% of the employee’s gross fortnightly pay, the discrepancy will be considered a debt and the provisions of this clause D4 will apply, unless the employee agrees in writing to the adjustment being made.

D4.14 Any outstanding money owing to the Territory when an employee ceases employment is to be recovered by deduction from any final entitlements payable to the employee. If a debt still exists further debt recovery action is to be taken by the relevant corporate area unless the relevant delegate under the Financial Management Act 1996:

D4.14.1 directs the recovery be waived, in part or in full, based on evidence provided by the employee of exceptional circumstance or that such recovery would cause undue hardship; or

D4.14.2 determines that an overpayment is not recoverable.

D4.15 Where the relevant delegate under the Financial Management Act 1996 determines that an overpayment is not recoverable, the provisions of the relevant Financial Instructions, relating to the waiver and write off of monies, will apply.

Note: Any disputes about the application of these provisions should be addressed through the Dispute Avoidance/Settlement Procedures outlined at clause G6-.

D5 Underpayments

D5.1 Where the relevant corporate area agrees that an employee has been underpaid on the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay, and the employee requests, an offline payment for the amount owing will be made to the employee within three business days of the relevant corporate area receiving the request.
D6 Backfill

D6.1 The approval of a request for a Member to exceed the Member’s salary cap will not be unreasonably withheld, where the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly is satisfied that:

D6.1.2 the requirement for the leave is beyond the Member’s control; and

D6.1.3 the Member will be unable to exercise the Member’s parliamentary duties without hiring a replacement during the period of the employee’s absence.

D7.3 This Agreement provides for an employer funded superannuation contribution equal to sixteen percent of the employee’s gross annual pay to be paid to a complying superannuation fund nominated by the employee, where the employee:

D7.3.1 was employed under the LAMS Act on 5 September 2007 and the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act has been continuous since that date; and D7.3.2 is not a member of the CSS or PSS defined benefit fund.

D7.4 Where the employment of an employee under subclause D7.3 is terminated by the operation of subsections 8(1), 8(2), 8(4), 13(1) or 13(3) of the LAMS Act and the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act recommences within a period up to and including the date that is ten weeks from the date the employee’s employment was terminated, the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act will, for the purposes of paragraph D7.3.1, be deemed to have continued.

D7.5 An employee who commences employment under the LAMS Act after 5 September 2007, other than:

D7.5.1 a former member of the CSS or PSS defined benefit fund with an entitlement to rejoin that fund, or

D7.5.2 employees who are members of the Public Sector Superannuation Accumulation Plan (PSSap), unless they are eligible to be members of the PSSap as a fund of choice, will have an employer funded superannuation contribution, as set out in subclauses D7.7 and D7.8, paid to a complying superannuation fund nominated by the employee.

D7.6 An employee may choose any approved superannuation fund as long as the fund can accept employer contributions by EFT. If the employees chosen fund cannot or will not accept additional contributions as outlined in subclauses D7.7 and D7.13, then the employee will be advised of their right to change funds, to enable such contributions to be made.

D7.7 The Territory’s employer contribution will be:

D7.7.1 the Superannuation Guarantee contribution in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, (which at the commencement of this Agreement is 9.5%); and

D7.7.2 an additional 1%; and

D7.8.2 to 1.50% on 1 July 2019; and
D7.8.3 to 2% on 1 July 2020.

D7.9 If the legislated minimum Superannuation Guarantee rate is increased during the life of this Agreement, the increase will be absorbed by the additional contribution provided under paragraph D7.7.2 (as increased in accordance with subclause D7.8), but will not affect the "3 for 1" arrangement in paragraph D7.7.3.

D7.10 The salary for Superannuation Guarantee purposes will be calculated on the employee's Ordinary Time Earnings (OTE) within the meaning of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992.

D7.11 An employee who is a member of the CSS or PSS defined benefit fund, or a former member with an entitlement to rejoin the CSS or PSS defined benefit fund, or a member of the PSSap, will receive the employer contributions specified by the fund rules for the relevant Superannuation plan.

D7.12 Employer contributions will not be reduced by any other contributions made through salary sacrifice arrangements.

D7.13 For employees who take paid or unpaid parental leave (which includes birth, parental, grandparental, and foster care leave), employer contributions (which will be calculated using the same formula as prescribed in subclause F14.21) will be made for a period equal to a maximum of 52 weeks, in accordance with the rules of the appropriate superannuation scheme.

D7.14 The Government will, through the Chief Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate, consult with unions and employees on changes to superannuation legislation that may be proposed by the Commonwealth.

E2.4.8 purchased leave (F9 -);
E2.4.9 annual leave (F7 -);
E2.4.10 long service leave (F25 -);
E2.4.11 leave without pay (F24 -); and
E2.4.12 leave not provided for elsewhere (F24 -).

E2.5 The flexible working arrangement will be recorded in writing and run for a specified duration of up to three years. At the end of the flexible working arrangement’s period of operation, unless a new flexible working arrangement is entered into, the default will be that the employee returns to their nominal status.

E2.6 Approved flexible working arrangements may be reviewed annually at which time the circumstances under which the flexible working arrangements were originally granted will be examined and reassessed.

E2.7 Employees that have an existing flexible working arrangement at the commencement of this Agreement will have that arrangement reviewed within 12 months of commencement of this Agreement.

E2.8 The Member may only deny an employee’s request for flexible working arrangements or a variation to existing flexible working arrangements where there are reasonable business grounds for doing so.

E2.9 Reasonable business grounds to deny a request are that:

E2.9.1 the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be too costly to implement, or would likely result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity, or would likely have a significant negative impact on service;

E2.9.2 there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the employee;

E2.9.3 it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other employees or recruit new employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the employee;

E2.9.4 it would be a genuine risk to the health and safety of an employee(s); or

E2.9.5 demonstrable exceptional circumstances have arisen that mean the request cannot be approved.

E2.10 Where a request is not approved the Member will consult with the employee to explore alternative arrangements.

E3 Scheduling of Meetings

E3.1 To assist employees to meet the employees’ personal responsibilities, where possible, all meetings requiring the attendance of employees are to be scheduled at times that take into account those responsibilities.

E4 Regular Part-Time Employment

E4.1 A person may be employed in any classification as a part-time employee for an agreed number of regular hours that is less than the ordinary weekly hours specified at subclause B3.2.

E4.2 Proposals to reduce hours below full-time employment may be initiated by the Member for operational reasons.
E4.3 No variation will be made to an employee’s hours of duty unless there is an agreement between the employee and the relevant Member.

E4.4 The agreed period, pattern of hours and days and commencement and cessation times for part-time work will be agreed between the employee and the relevant Member and recorded in the employee’s Employment Agreement.

Note: An employee who wishes to work part-time may apply for a flexible working arrangement with subclause E2.1.

Variation to Part-Time Hours

E4.5 Proposals to vary a part-time employment arrangement may be initiated by the Member for operational reasons or by an employee for personal reasons.

E4.6 Where an employee initiates a proposal the Member will have regard to the personal reasons put by the employee in support of the proposal and to their office’s operational requirements.

E4.7 The Member will obtain the written agreement of the employee before the employee’s hours are varied.

E4.8 The agreed period, pattern of hours and days and commencement and cessation times for part-time work will be agreed between the employee and the relevant Member and recorded in the employee’s Employment Agreement.

E5 Job Sharing

E5.1 In this clause employee refers to employees other than casual employees.

E5.2 Job sharing arrangements may be introduced by agreement between the Member and the employees involved, subject to operational requirements. Employees working under job sharing arrangements share one job and will be considered to be part-time with each working part-time on a regular, continuing basis.

E5.3 An employee must request in writing permission to work in a job sharing arrangement. The Member will agree to reasonable requests for regular job sharing arrangements, subject to operational requirements.

E5.4 The pattern of hours for the job sharing arrangement will be agreed between the employee and the Member. However, any single attendance at the office-based worksite will be for no less than three consecutive hours.

E5.5 The employee who is in a job sharing arrangement and who was previously working full-time may revert to full-time employment before the expiry of the agreed period of job sharing if all parties to the arrangement agree.

E5.6 In the event that either employee ceases to participate in the job sharing arrangement, the arrangement will terminate.

E6 Part Time Employment Following Birth Leave, Primary Caregiver Leave, Adoption or Permanent Care Leave or Parental Leave

E6.1 Subject to this clause, an employee employed on a full-time basis who returns to work after accessing birth leave under clause F14, primary caregiver leave under clause F16, adoption or permanent care leave under clause F20 or parental leave will, on application by the employee, be given access to part-time employment for a period of up to three years from the date of birth or adoption of a child, or from the date of granting of parental responsibility of a foster child, provided the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act is continuous during this period.
E6.2 The maximum aggregate period of part-time employment that may be approved for an employee under subclause E6.1 is seven years, provided the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act is continuous during this period.

E6.3 The agreed period, pattern of hours and days and commencement and cessation times for part-time work will be agreed between the employee and the relevant Member and recorded in the employee’s Employment Agreement.

E7 Home-Based Work

E7.1 The diverse nature of work conducted in the Assembly lends itself to a range of working environments. From time to time workplaces will include work undertaken in the field and in the home.

E7.2 Home-based work, on a regular basis, is a voluntary arrangement that requires the agreement of both the Member and the employee. Following consultation with the relevant corporate area, employee initiated requests will be considered, having regard to operational requirements and the suitability of the work.

E7.3 In determining appropriate home-based work arrangements, Members and employees will consider a range of matters, including:

- appropriate and effective communication with office-based employees;
- the need to ensure adequate interaction with colleagues;
- the nature of the job and operational requirements;
- privacy and security considerations;
- health and safety considerations;
- the effect on clients; and
- adequate performance monitoring arrangements.

E7.4 Home-based work arrangements may be terminated by the Member on the basis of operational requirements, inefficiency of the arrangements, or failure of the employee to comply with the arrangements.

E7.5 An employee may terminate home-based work arrangements at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Member.

E7.6 There may also be occasions where it is appropriate for an employee to work from home on an ad hoc basis. In these circumstances, arrangements to work from home are to be negotiated on a case-by-case basis between the employee and the Member.

E7.7 Home computing facilities may be provided where the need for such facilities is agreed between the employee and the Member. Provision of equipment by the Territory will be subject to occupational health and safety requirements and to an assessment of technical needs by the Member with the assistance of the relevant corporate area.

E8 Employee Assistance Program

E8.1 As a benefit to employees, the Territory will provide employees and employees’ immediate families with access to an independent, confidential and professional counselling service at no cost to the employee.
E9  Vacation Childcare Subsidy

E9.1 This clause applies to an employee (other than a casual employee or a fixed term employee who has been engaged by the Member for a period of less than twelve months) with school age children who makes a timely application, based on their accrued annual leave, purchased leave or long service leave during school holidays that is rejected. In these circumstances the relevant corporate area will make payment to the employee for each calendar year based on:

E9.1.1 fifty two dollars per day towards the cost of each school child enrolled in an accredited school holiday program;
E9.1.2 up to a maximum of $260 per child per five days;
E9.1.3 up to a maximum of ten days per child per year;
E9.1.4 up to a maximum of three children; and E9.1.5 reimbursement on production of a receipt.

E9.2 An accredited school holiday program is a program approved and/or subsidised by a State, Territory or Local Government.

E9.3 The payment will apply only on the days when the employee is at work.

E9.4 The payment will be made regardless of the length of time the child is in the program each day, but it cannot exceed the actual cost incurred.

E9.5 An employee whose domestic partner receives a similar benefit from the partner’s employer is not eligible for the payment.

E10  Family Care Costs

E10.1 Where an employee is directed by their Member to work outside the employee’s regular pattern of work, the relevant corporate area will authorise reimbursement to the employee, by receipted tax invoices, for some or all of the costs of additional family care arrangements.

E11  Nursing Employees

E11.1 Employees who are breastfeeding will be provided with the facilities and support necessary to enable such employees to combine a continuation of such breastfeeding with the employee’s employment.

E11.2 Where practicable the Assembly will establish and maintain a room for nursing employees. Where there is no room available another appropriate space may be used.

E11.3 Up to one hour, per day, paid lactation breaks that are non-cumulative will be available for nursing employees.

E12  Transfer to a Safe Job during Pregnancy

Purpose

E12.1 This clause provides arrangements to enable a pregnant employee to have their duties modified or to be transferred to an appropriate safe job during their pregnancy or enable them to be absent from their workplace if an appropriate safe job is not available.

Eligibility

E12.2 In accordance with the National Employment Standards of the FW Act (NES), this clause applies to pregnant employees when they:
E12.2.1 have given notice that they will be applying for birth leave; and

E12.2.2 provide evidence from a registered health professional or registered medical professional to the Member that they are fit for work but that it is inadvisable for the employee to continue with some or all of their duties in their present position during a stated period because of illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with that position.

E12.3 In these circumstances, the employee is entitled to have their duties modified or to be transferred to an appropriate safe job for the stated period with no detriment to their current terms and conditions of employment.

Paid Absence for ‘No Safe Job’ Purposes

E12.4 If an appropriate safe job is not available, and when the employee has completed twelve months of continuous service, the employee is entitled to take paid absence for ‘no safe job’ purposes for the stated period at a rate of payment that is the same rate as would be paid if the employee was granted personal leave. This period of paid absence will count as service for all purposes.

E12.5 If an appropriate safe job is not available, and the employee has not completed twelve months of continuous service, the employee is entitled to take unpaid absence for ‘no safe job’ purposes. This period of absence will not count as service for any purposes but will not break continuity of service.

E12.6 The employee’s entitlements under this clause cease when the employee’s pregnancy ends before the end of the stated period.

E13 Management of Excessive Hours

E13.1 The Territory recognises the importance of employees balancing work and personal life. The appropriate balance is a critical element in developing and maintaining healthy and productive workplaces. While it is acknowledged that peak workload periods may necessitate some extra hours being worked by some employees, this should be regarded as the exception rather than the rule. This subclause should be read in conjunction with subclause B4.2.

E13.2 Members and employees have a responsibility to minimise the extent to which excessive hours are worked. In the circumstances where work pressures result in the employee being required to work, or is likely to work, excessive hours over a significant period, the Member and employee together must review workloads and priorities and determine appropriate strategies to address the situation. In doing so, the Member will consider and implement one or more of the following strategies to reduce the amount of excessive hours being accumulated:

E13.2.1 review of workloads and priorities;
E13.2.2 re-allocation of resources;
E13.2.3 consideration of appropriate arrangements for time off in lieu or other recompense;
E13.2.4 review of staffing levels and/or classifications within the work group.

E13.3 The relevant corporate area will consult with the LAMS Consultative Committee (LAMS CC) about the development and implementation of appropriate strategies to deal with issues associated with excessive work hours.
Section F  Leave

F1  Part Time Employees

F1.1 Part time employees are credited and debited leave on a pro-rata basis.

F2  Leave Below One Day

F2.1 Employees with access to TOIL will use TOIL for all absences of less than one day wherever practicable; however personal leave may still be accessed for these absences.

F3  Non-approval of Leave

F3.1 Where a request is not approved the Member will, if so requested in writing by the employee, provide the reasons for that decision to the employee in writing. Where a request is not approved the Member will consult with the employee to determine mutually convenient alternative arrangements.

F4  Personal Leave

Purpose

F4.1 Personal leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty:

F4.1.1 because the employee is unfit for work because of a personal illness, or personal injury;

F4.1.2 to provide care or support to a member of the employee’s immediate family, or a member of the employee’s household:

(a) who is ill or injured; or

(b) who is affected by an unexpected emergency; or

F4.1.3 in extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances in accordance with clause F5.

F4.2 Personal leave supports the Territory’s commitment to a healthy workplace and workforce.

Eligibility

F4.3 Personal leave is available to employees other than casual employees.

Entitlement

F4.4 An employee may be granted personal leave up to their available credit from the first day of service.

F4.5 Personal leave is cumulative and there is no cap on the personal leave balance an employee may accrue.

F4.6 Subject to the approval of the Member, on engagement under the LAMS Act, employees who have prior service recognised for personal leave purposes, will be credited with any personal leave balance accrued with that service. In order to be recognised for personal leave purposes, the previous service must have terminated no more than two months prior to the commencement of employment under the LAMS Act. Previous service for which a payment has, or should have, been made will not be recognised except in relation to relevant qualifying periods.

F4.7 Where personal leave is recognised under subclause F4.6, on the employee’s normal accrual date, the employee will then receive personal leave in accordance with subclause F4.9. Where the employee’s personal leave prior to engagement under the LAMS Act was accrued on a progressive basis, rather than credited prospectively, upon engagement the employee will also be credited with an amount of personal leave which is the difference between 3.6 weeks and any personal leave already accrued with the previous employer for their current accrual year.
Note: For the purposes of this clause ‘normal accrual date’ means the accrual date with the previous employer as recognised as part of the prior service.

F4.8 Except for a short term temporary employee, and an employee to whom subclauses F4.6 and F4.7 applies, an employee engaged for a period of greater than twelve months will be credited with an equivalent of 3.6 weeks of personal leave on the day they commence employment with the Territory.

F4.9 An additional credit of 3.6 weeks personal leave will be made on the anniversary of the employee’s commencement during each year of service.

F4.10 Where the HR system permits, subclauses F4.7, F4.8, F4.9 and F4.13 will not apply, and instead an employee’s personal leave will accrue and be credited progressively, from the date of commencement of their employment under the LAMS Act, in accordance with the following formula:

\text{total hours of personal leave accrued per calendar day, where:}

A = the number of ordinary hours per week worked;
B = one where the day counts as service, or zero where the day does not count as service;
C = the number of calendar days in the year; and
D = the number of weeks of personal leave an employee is entitled to a year (i.e. 3.6 weeks)

F4.11 The accrual date for personal leave will be deferred by one day for every calendar day of unauthorised absence or leave without pay that does not count for service.

F4.12 A part-time employee will accrue personal leave calculated on a pro-rata basis.

Short-term Temporary Employees

F4.13 A fixed-term employee engaged for a period of twelve months or less will be credited with 0.2 weeks of personal leave on commencement and a further 0.8 weeks of personal leave after four weeks continuous service. Thereafter the employee will be credited with 0.2 weeks of personal leave for each subsequent four weeks of continuous service up to a maximum of two weeks in the employee’s first twelve months of service.

F4.14 After twelve months continuous service an employee referred to in subclause F4.13 will receive 5.2 weeks of personal leave with pay. For every subsequent twelve months of service, the employee will receive personal leave in accordance with subclause F4.9.

When Personal Leave Credits Have Been Exhausted

F4.15 Where personal leave credits have been exhausted, the Member may, subject to the production of documentary evidence, grant an employee a period of unpaid personal leave for personal illness or injury or for the care or support of a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is ill or injured or affected by an unexpected emergency. This is in addition to the entitlement to unpaid carer’s leave that employees have under the National Employment Standards.

NOTE: In such circumstances, alternative arrangements are also provided for at subclause F4.43.

F4.16 Fixed-term employees are not entitled to anticipate personal leave, but may be granted up to an aggregate of twenty days without pay in the first twelve months.

Other Provisions

F4.17 An employee in receipt of workers compensation for more than forty-five weeks will accrue personal leave on the basis of hours actually worked.

F4.18 Unused personal leave credit will not be paid out on cessation of employment.
Evidence and Conditions

F4.19  An employee must give notice of the intention to take personal leave. The notice must be provided to their Member as soon as practicable (which in the case of personal illness or injury may be a time immediately after the leave has commenced) and must advise the duration, or expected duration, of the leave.

F4.20  The Member may grant personal leave if they are satisfied there is sufficient cause, having considered any requested or required documentary evidence.

F4.21  An employee must provide requested or required documentary evidence in a timely manner. To unduly withhold the provision of documentary evidence may result in the personal leave application not being approved for payment.

F4.22  The Member will accept the following documentary evidence as proof of personal illness or injury or the need to care for or support a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is ill or injured or who is affected by an unexpected emergency:

F4.22.1  a certificate from a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional who is operating within their scope of practice; or

F4.22.2  a statutory declaration made by the employee if it is not reasonably practicable for the employee to give the employer a certificate.

F4.23  Applications for personal leave requiring an employee to care for a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is sick will need any required documentary evidence to clearly state the caring requirement.

F4.24  Unless otherwise approved by the Member, an employee may only access a maximum of three consecutive days of paid personal leave on each occasion up to an accumulated maximum of seven days in any accrual year, without providing documentary evidence. Absences for personal leave without documentary evidence in excess of three consecutive days, or seven days in any accrual year, will be without pay.

F4.25  Notwithstanding subclause F4.24 the Member may, with reasonable cause, request the employee to provide a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional operating within their scope of practice, or a statutory declaration, for any absence from duty on personal leave at the time of notification of the absence.

F4.26  Any personal leave without pay that goes beyond a maximum continuous period of combined paid and unpaid personal leave of 78 weeks will not count as service for any purpose.

F4.27  The Member must not grant personal leave for an absence caused by the misconduct of the employee. The Member may determine that an absence caused by the misconduct does not count as service for any purpose.

F4.28  The Member must approve an application for up to five days of personal leave for the purpose of bonding leave in accordance with subclause F18.4.

F4.29  The Member may refer an employee for a medical examination by a nominated registered medical practitioner or registered health professional, or nominated panel of registered medical practitioners or registered health professionals, at any time for reasons including where:

F4.29.1  the Member is concerned about the wellbeing of an employee and considers that the health of the employee is affecting, or has a reasonable expectation that it may affect, the employee’s ability to adequately perform their duties;

F4.29.2  the Member considers that documentary evidence supplied in support of an absence due to personal illness or injury is inadequate; or
F4.29.3  the employee has been absent on account of illness for a total of thirteen weeks in any twenty six week period.

F4.30  The Member may require the employee to take personal leave after considering the results of a medical examination requested by the Member.

Rate of Payment

F4.31  Personal leave will be granted with pay except where it is granted without pay under subclauses F4.15, F4.16 or F4.24.

F4.32  Subject to the approval of the Member, an employee may request to use personal leave at half pay for absences of at least one week. Such absences will be deducted from the employee’s accrued credits at a rate of 50% of the period of absence.

F4.33  Any personal leave taken must be deducted from the employee’s credit.

Effect on Other Entitlements

F4.34  Personal leave with pay will count as service for all purposes.

F4.35  Personal leave without pay, other than provided for at subclause F4.26, will count as service for all purposes.

F4.36  Where an employee is absent on paid personal leave and a public holiday for which the employee is entitled to be paid falls within that period of absence:

F4.36.1  the employee will be paid as a normal public holiday for that day; and

F4.36.2  the public holiday will not be deducted from the employee’s personal leave credits.

F4.37  Where the personal leave under subclause F4.36 is without pay both sides of the public holiday or Christmas shutdown period, the public holiday, or the Christmas shutdown period, will also be without pay.

F4.38  While personal leave will not be deducted over the Christmas shutdown period, the Christmas shutdown does not break continuity of the period of absence in relation to the maximum period/s of leave under subclause F4.26.

Interaction with Other Leave Types

F4.39  An employee who suffers personal illness or injury, or provides care or support for a member of the employee’s immediate family or household who is ill or injured or who is experiencing an unexpected emergency, for one day or longer while on:

F4.39.1  annual leave; or
F4.39.2  purchased leave; or
F4.39.3  long service leave; or
F4.39.4  unpaid birth leave; or
F4.39.5  unpaid parental leave; or F4.39.6  grandparental leave, and who produces a certificate from a registered medical practitioner or a registered health professional operating within their scope of practice, or in the case of an unexpected emergency other satisfactory evidence, may apply for personal leave.

F4.40  Where an employee is on a form of leave specified in subclause F4.39 and:
F4.40.1 the employee is subsequently granted personal leave in accordance with subclause F4.39;
and
F4.40.2 the personal leave falls within a part or all of the period of the other form of leave, then that other leave will be re-credited for that period of the personal leave that falls within the period of the other leave.

F4.41 An employee cannot access paid personal leave while on paid birth leave, or primary care giver’s leave, or adoption or permanent care leave, but can apply for personal leave during unpaid birth leave or parental leave.

F4.42 If the employee has exhausted all paid personal leave, personal leave without pay cannot be substituted for unpaid birth leave.

F4.43 If an employee exhausts the employee’s paid personal leave entitlement and produces documentary evidence, as per subclause F4.22, as evidence of continuing personal illness or injury, or requirement to care or provide support to a member of the employee’s immediate family or household, the employee may apply to the Member for approval to take annual leave or long service leave. If approved, this leave will not break the continuity of the 78 weeks under

F5 Personal Leave in Extraordinary and Unforeseen Circumstances

F5.1 Employees, other than casual employees, are eligible for personal leave in extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances.

F5.2 Personal leave in extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances, is non-cumulative and if granted is deducted from the employee’s personal leave balance.

F5.3 The Member may grant a maximum of four days of personal leave, other than for personal illness or the care of a member of the employee’s immediate household who is sick or requires support, in an accrual year, in extraordinary, unforeseen or unexpected circumstances and where it is essential that the employee have leave from the workplace. These four days are in addition to the seven days personal leave without documentary evidence.

F5.4 While personal leave in extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances does not normally require documentary evidence, the Member may request reasonable evidence before granting the leave.

F5.5 Personal leave in extraordinary and unforeseen circumstances will be granted with pay.

F6 Infectious Disease Circumstances

F6.1 Where an employee is prevented from attending for duty under the Public Health Act 1997, the Member may grant that employee personal leave during that period.

F6.2 The employee may also apply for the absence, or a part of it, to be deducted from their annual leave credit.

F7 Annual Leave

Purpose

F7.1 Annual leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty for the purposes of rest and recreation.

Eligibility

F7.2 Annual leave is available to employees other than casual employees.
Entitlement

F7.3 An employee may be granted annual leave up to their available credit from the first day of service.

F7.4 Annual leave is cumulative.

F7.5 An employee’s annual leave credit accrues on a daily basis according to the formula set out below:

(A \times B \times D) / C = \text{total hours of leave accrued per day},

where:

F7.5.1 \( A \) = number of ordinary hours per week worked; and

F7.5.2 \( B \) = one where the day counts as service or zero where the day does not count as service or is an unauthorised absence;

F7.5.3 \( C \) = number of calendar days in the year; and

F7.5.4 \( D \) = number of weeks of annual leave an employee is entitled to a year.

F7.6 For the purpose of subclause F7.5 the basic leave entitlement is 147 hours annual leave for each full year worked.

F7.7 If an employee moves from one Member’s office to another Member’s office, annual leave accrued with the first Member will transfer to the second Member, provided the employee’s employment is continuous.

F7.8 An annual leave credit does not accrue to an employee if the employee is absent from duty on leave for specified defence service, or full-time defence service. If the employee resumes duty after a period of specified defence service, annual leave will accrue from the date the employee resumes duty.

F7.9 Employees will receive payment on separation of any unused annual leave entitlement.

Evidence and Conditions

F7.10 Employees are encouraged to use their annual leave in the year that it accrues, and to this end should discuss their leave intentions with their Member as soon as practicable.

F7.11 An employee must make an application to the Member to access their annual leave entitlement.

F7.12 Having considered the requirements of this clause the Member may approve an employee’s application to access annual leave.

F7.13 The Member should approve an employee’s application to take annual leave, subject to operational requirements.

F7.14 If the Member does not approve an employee’s application for annual leave because of operational requirements, the Member will consult with the employee to determine a mutually convenient alternative time (or times) for the employee to take the leave.

F7.15 The Member must, unless there are exceptional operational circumstances, approve an application for annual leave if it would enable an employee to reduce their annual leave credit below two and a half years’ worth of accrued annual leave credit. However, in the case of exceptional operational circumstances, the Member will consult with the employee to determine the time (or times) for the annual leave to be taken that is mutually convenient to both the Member’s office and the employee.

F7.16 If an employee’s annual leave is cancelled without reasonable notice, or an employee is recalled to duty from leave, the employee will be entitled to be reimbursed reasonable travel costs and incidental expenses not otherwise recoverable under any insurance or from any other source.
If the operations of the Assembly are suspended at Christmas or another holiday period, the Member may direct an employee to take annual leave at a time that is convenient to the working of the Assembly, whether or not an application for leave has been made. However, this does not affect any other entitlements to leave under this Agreement.

If an employee has the equivalent of two years’ accrued credit of annual leave and unless exceptional operational circumstances exist, the employee and relevant Member must agree, and implement an annual leave usage plan to ensure the employee’s accrued leave credit will not exceed an accrued two and a half years’ worth of annual leave credit.

If an employee does not agree to a reasonable annual leave usage plan the Member may direct an employee who has accrued two and a half years’ worth of accrued annual leave credit to take enough annual leave to reduce the accrued leave credit to the equivalent of two years’ accrued credit, subject to giving the employee one calendar month notice. This clause does not apply to an employee who is on graduated return to work following compensation leave.

An employee who has an annual leave credit in excess of two and a half years’ accrued entitlement:

1. at the commencement of the Agreement; or
2. on joining, or returning to, the Assembly; or
3. on returning to duty from compensation leave, will have twelve months to reduce the employee’s annual leave balance to two and a half years’ accrued entitlement or below.

An employee may not be directed under subclause F7.19 to take annual leave where the employee has made an application for a period of annual leave equal to or greater than the period specified in subclause F7.19 in the past six months and the application was not approved. The Member and the employee may agree to vary an annual leave usage plan.

Annual leave will be granted with pay.

Payment for the annual leave will be based on the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay, including allowances that count for all purposes for the time the leave is taken.

The Member may approve an application in accordance with clause E2 - for annual leave to be taken at half pay with credits to be deducted on the same basis.

Annual leave will count as service for all purposes.

Public holidays for which the employee is entitled to payment that fall during periods of absence on annual leave will be paid as a normal public holiday and will not be deducted from the employee’s annual leave balance.

If personal leave is granted to the employee, annual leave will be re-credited for the period of paid personal leave granted.

Subject to the approval of the Member, an employee who is on unpaid leave may be granted annual leave during that period, unless otherwise stated in this Agreement.

If an employee is prevented from attending for duty under the Public Health Act 1997, the Member may grant annual leave during that period.
Payment in Lieu of Annual Leave

F7.30 An employee may request payment in lieu of their annual leave credit subject to the following:

F7.30.1 the employee providing the Member with a written election to do so; and F7.30.2 the Member, in consultation with the relevant corporate area, authorising the election; and
F7.30.3 the employee taking at least one week of annual leave in conjunction with this entitlement, or the employee has taken at least one week of annual leave in the past six months; and
F7.30.4 the payment in lieu will not result in a reduction in the balance of an employee’s remaining annual leave credit below one year’s accrued entitlement.

F7.31 Payment in lieu of annual leave will be based on the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay, including allowances that count for all purposes at the date of application. The payment in lieu will be based on the pay that the employee would have received for a notional period of leave equal to the credit being paid in lieu on the day the application is made.

F8 Annual Leave Loading

Purpose

F8.1 Annual leave loading is available to employees to provide monetary assistance while they are on annual leave.

Eligibility

F8.2 Employees who accrue annual leave under clause F7 - are entitled to an annual leave loading. Part time employees will be paid the annual leave loading on a pro rata basis.

Entitlement

F8.3 Where an employee’s entitlement is based on subclause F8.7, the leave loading payable is subject to a maximum payment. This maximum payment is the equivalent of the Australian Bureau of Statistics’ male average weekly total earnings for the May quarter of the year before the year in which the date of accrual occurs. Where the leave accrual is less than for a full year, this maximum is applied on a pro rata basis.

F8.4 An employee whose employment ceases and who is entitled to payment of accumulated annual leave, or pro rata annual leave, will be paid any accrued annual leave loading not yet paid, and leave loading on pro rata annual leave entitlement due on separation.

Evidence and Conditions

F8.5 Employees who are entitled to an annual leave loading, may elect to be paid the annual leave loading accrued by fortnightly instalments, or by lump sum payment at such a time as the employee nominates, by making a written request to the relevant corporate area.

F8.6 Any unpaid annual leave loading accrued by employees will be paid on the first payday in November following its accrual.

Rate of Payment

F8.7 The amount of an employee’s entitlement under subclause F8.2 will, subject to subclause F8.3, be based on 17.5 per cent of the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay on 1 January multiplied by the number of hours of annual leave accrued during the preceding calendar year.
Purpose

F9.1 Purchased leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty to support their work/life balance.

Eligibility

F9.2 Employees, other than casual employees, are eligible to apply to purchase leave.

Entitlement

F9.3 Employees may purchase leave in addition to the employee’s usual annual leave entitlement, up to a maximum of twelve weeks in any twelve month period, subject to Member’s approval.

F9.4 An employee may apply, at any time, to the Member for approval to participate in the purchased leave scheme.

F9.5 The application must specify the amount of leave to be purchased in whole weeks up to a maximum of twelve weeks in any twelve month period, and the period over which the additional leave is to be acquitted.

F9.6 Approval by the Member for an employee to purchase and use purchased leave, is subject to both the operational requirements of the workplace and the personal responsibilities of the employee.

F9.7 Approval to purchase additional leave will not be given where an employee has an annual leave balance of two and a half years’ worth of annual leave credit or more, except where the employee intends to use all excess annual leave credit before taking purchased leave.

F9.8 Once an employee commences participation in the scheme, the employee may only opt out of the scheme before the expiration of the agreed acquittal period, where:

F9.8.1 the employee can demonstrate, in writing, that exceptional circumstances exist, such as unforeseen financial hardship, and the Member agrees; or

F9.8.2 the employee’s employment ceases before the expiration of the agreed acquittal period; or

F9.8.3 the employee proceeds on paid birth or primary care giver leave.

F9.9 If an employee who is participating in the scheme moves from one Member’s office to another Member’s office during the agreed acquittal period, the employee’s continuation in the purchased leave scheme will be subject to the separate approval of the gaining Member. Where such approval is not given, any money owing to the employee in respect of purchased leave not taken will be refunded to the employee as soon as practicable. Any shortfall in payments will be deducted from monies owing to the employee.

Evidence and Conditions

F9.10 An employee should discuss with their Member, as soon practicable, their intention to be absent on purchased leave.

F9.11 An employee must make an application to the Member to access their purchased leave entitlement.

F9.12 Having considered the requirements of this clause the Member may approve an employee’s application to access purchased leave. A decision not to approve the leave must be made in accordance with subclause F3.1.
F9.13 Approval by the Member to grant purchased leave will be subject to the operational requirements of the workplace, the personal responsibilities of the employee and appropriate periods of notice.

F9.14 A minimum of one week of purchased leave, or the pro-rata equivalent for part-time employees, must be taken at any one time unless the remaining balance is less than one week or the Member is satisfied, on evidence presented, there are exceptional circumstances which warrant purchased leave being taken in shorter periods.

F9.15 Purchased leave must be used within the agreed acquittal period, not exceeding twelve months from the date of commencement in the scheme. Purchased leave not taken within the agreed acquittal period will be forfeited and the value of the leave refunded to the employee at the end of the acquittal period, or the expiry of the employee’s current Employment Agreement.

Rate of Payment

F9.16 While an employee is on a period of purchased leave the employee will be paid at the rate of pay used to calculate the employee’s deduction.

F9.17 Purchased leave will be paid for by a fortnightly deduction from the employee’s pay over an agreed acquittal period not exceeding twelve months from the date the employee commences participation in the scheme, or the expiry of the employee’s current Employment Agreement, whichever occurs first.

F9.18 Fortnightly deductions, from the employee’s pay, will commence as soon as practicable following approval of the employee’s application to participate in the purchased leave scheme. The deductions will be calculated on the employee’s pay at the date of commencement of participation in the scheme, the amount of leave to be purchased and the agreed acquittal period.

F9.19 Despite subclause F9.18, if the employee’s pay changes during the acquittal period the employee may apply to the relevant corporate area for the deduction to be recalculated.

F9.20 Fortnightly tax deductions will be calculated on the employee’s gross pay after the deduction has been made for purchased leave.

F9.21 Subject to subclause F9.22, allowances in the nature of pay may be included in the calculation of purchased leave payments where:

- F9.21.1 advised appropriate by the relevant corporate area, and the employee agrees; and
- F9.21.2 there is the likelihood the allowance will continue to be received over the duration of the acquittal period.

F9.22 The LAMS allowance cannot be included for the purposes of calculating purchased leave payments.

Effect on Other Entitlements

F9.23 Leave taken as purchased leave will count as service for all purposes.

F9.24 Public Holidays for which the employee is entitled to payment that fall during periods of absence on purchased leave will be paid as a normal public holiday and will not be deducted from the employee’s purchased leave balance.

F9.25 Purchased leave will not affect the accrual of other forms of leave, such as personal leave, annual leave or long service leave.

F9.26 The purchase of additional leave under this clause will not affect the superannuation obligations of the employer and/or the employee involved.
Interaction with Other Leave Types

F9.27 Where an employee provides a certificate from a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional operating within their scope of practice for a personal illness or injury, or for the purpose of providing care or support for a member of the employee’s family who is ill or injured or who is experiencing an unexpected emergency, during a period of absence on purchased leave, the employee will have the purchased leave re-credited for that period covered by the certificate, and substituted by personal leave.

F9.28 An employee participating in the scheme who proceeds on paid birth or primary care giver’s leave will elect to, either:

F9.28.1 exit the purchased leave scheme and have any money owing refunded; or

F9.28.2 subject to subclause F9.29, remain in the scheme and have pay deductions continue during the period of paid birth or primary care giver’s leave.

F9.29 Purchased leave taken during an employee’s absence on birth or primary care giver’s leave will not extend the employee’s total period of birth leave or primary care giver’s leave.

F9.30 An employee participating in the scheme who is in receipt of paid workers’ compensation will have pay deductions for purchased leave continue. Normal conditions for purchased leave will apply for employees on graduated return to work programs; however entry into the scheme should be discussed with the rehabilitation case manager.

Such evidence may include a copy of the birth certificate or documents provided by a registered medical practitioner or a registered health professional who is operating within their scope of practice.

F14.22 To avoid doubt, an employee’s status and all other entitlements remain unaltered by the operation of subclause F14.21.

F14.23 Paid birth leave may be taken with full or half pay, or a combination of full and half pay, with credits to be deducted on the same basis. The maximum paid period is up to thirty six weeks at half pay.

F14.31 An application by an employee for long service leave or annual leave during a period that would otherwise be an unpaid period of birth leave will be granted to the extent of available entitlements.

F14.34 The employee will be paid at their ordinary hourly rate of pay for the hours they attend the workplace in accordance with subclause F14.33 during unpaid birth leave. F15.2 Special birth leave is available to all employees and eligible casual employees.

F15.3 An employee is entitled to a period of unpaid special birth leave for the duration certified by a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional operating within their scope of practice as necessary.

F15.4 The employee must provide the Member with notice that they are taking special birth leave. The notice must be given as soon as practicable (which may be after the leave has started); and should include the period, or expected period, of the leave.

F15.5 An employee must submit an application to the Member for any period of special birth leave. Having considered the requirements of this clause the Member will approve an employee’s application to access special birth leave.

F15.6 An employee who has given notice that special birth leave will be (or is being) taken must provide reasonable evidence of the purpose for taking leave. This evidence may include a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional operating within their scope of practice.

F15.7 Special birth leave is granted without pay.

F15.8 Special birth leave does not count as service for any purpose.

F15.9 Special birth leave does not break continuity of service.

F15.10 Special birth leave accessed due to pregnancy related illness is not deducted from the entitlement for unpaid birth leave accessed after the birth of the child.

F15.11 Special birth leave is in addition to any accrued personal leave entitlement.

F15.12 Special birth leave is in addition to compassionate leave.
Purpose

F16.1 Primary care giver leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty to:
   F16.1.1 care for and bond with a newborn child; and
   F16.1.2 support the protection of the family and children under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Eligibility

F16.2 Primary care giver leave is available to employees other than casual employees who are the primary care giver of a newborn child.

F16.3 An employee who has completed at least twelve months continuous service, including recognised prior service, immediately prior to commencing a period of primary care giver leave, is eligible for primary care giver leave.

F16.4 An employee who is eligible for paid birth leave, foster and short term care leave, or adoption or permanent care leave is not eligible for primary care giver leave.

F16.5 An employee who completes twelve months of continuous service within eighteen weeks of becoming the primary care giver for a child is eligible for primary care giver leave for the period between completing twelve months of qualifying service and the end of the first eighteen weeks of becoming the primary care giver of the child.

Entitlement

F16.6 An eligible employee is entitled to eighteen weeks of paid leave in relation to each birth and this entitlement is in addition to the Federal paid parental leave scheme. To avoid doubt, the entitlement under this clause does not increase in cases of multiple births, adoptions or care and protection orders that apply to more than one child.

F16.7 Primary care giver leave is non-cumulative.

F16.8 An employee is entitled to return to work in accordance with the provisions in the National Employment Standards.

Evidence and Conditions

F16.9 An employee should discuss with their Member, as soon practicable, their intention to be absent on primary care giver leave.

F16.10 An employee must make an application to the Member to access their primary care giver leave.

F16.11 The employee must provide the Member with appropriate evidence concerning the reasons for and circumstances under which the primary care giver leave application is made, which may include:
   F16.11.1 a certificate from a registered medical practitioner or a registered health professional operating within their scope of practice relating to the estimated date of delivery of a child; or F16.11.2 a birth certificate.

F16.12 In all cases details of leave being taken by other persons in relation to the same child (or children in the case of multiple births) must be provided.

F16.13 Before granting primary care giver leave, the Member must be satisfied that the employee demonstrates that they are the primary care giver.
F16.14 For the purposes of this clause a newborn is considered to be a baby of up to fourteen weeks old. In extenuating circumstances, the Member may approve primary care giver leave when a newborn is more than fourteen weeks old.

F16.15 Having considered the requirements of this clause the Member will approve an employee’s application to access primary care giver leave.

F16.16 The total combined entitlement under this clause and the birth leave clause, and equivalent clauses in any other ACTPS enterprise agreement, is eighteen weeks of paid leave in relation to the birth.

F16.17 Primary care giver leave may be taken in any combination with birth leave provided that the mother and the other employee entitled to primary care giver leave do not take these forms of paid leave concurrently.

Rate of Payment

F16.18 Primary care giver leave will be granted with pay.

F16.19 The rate of payment to be paid to the employee during a paid period of primary care giver leave is the same rate as would be paid if the employee was granted personal leave.

F16.20 Despite subclause F16.19, where an employee varies their ordinary hours of work, either from part time to full time, from part time to different part time, or from full time to part time, during the twelve-month period directly preceding primary care giver leave, the rate of payment for the paid component of their primary care giver leave, which will be capped at full time rates, will be calculated by using the average of their ordinary hours of work, excluding any periods of leave without pay, for the twelve-month period immediately before the period of primary care giver leave commences.

F16.21 To avoid doubt, an employee’s status and all other entitlements remain unaltered by the operation of subclause F16.20.

F16.22 Primary care giver leave may be granted with full or half pay, or a combination of full or half pay, with credits to be deducted on the same basis. The maximum paid period is up to thirty six weeks at half pay.

Effect on Other Entitlements

F16.23 Primary care giver leave will count as service for all purposes.

F16.24 Public holidays for which the employee would otherwise have been entitled to payment that fall during periods of absence on primary caregiver leave will not be paid as a normal public holiday.

Interaction with Other Leave Types

F16.25 Primary care giver leave does not extend the maximum period of unpaid parental leave available to an employee.

Keep in Touch Arrangements (Primary Care Giver Leave)

F16.26 An employee on primary care giver leave may, following an invitation from an authorised person, agree to attend the workplace on up to ten separate occasions of up to one day each so as to keep in touch with developments in the workplace (for meetings and training etc.).

F16.27 The employee will be paid at their ordinary hourly rate of pay for the hours they attend work in accordance with subclause F16.26 during unpaid primary care giver leave. Keep in touch attendance will count as service for all purposes, but does not extend the period of leave and does not end or reduce the entitlement to primary care giver leave.
Purpose

F17.1 Parental leave without pay is in addition to the provisions available in birth leave, primary care giver leave, and adoption or permanent care leave and is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty following the birth or adoption of a child, or the commencement of a permanent caring arrangement for a child.

Eligibility

F17.2 Parental leave is available to an employee, or an eligible casual employee, who is the primary care giver of a child following the birth or adoption of a child or the commencement of a permanent caring arrangement for a child.

Entitlement

F17.3 An employee is entitled to up to two years of parental leave following the child’s birth, adoption or commencement of a permanent caring arrangement, less any period of birth leave, primary care giver leave or adoption or permanent care leave which the employee has taken in relation to the same child, provided the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act is continuous during this period.

F17.4 To avoid doubt, the entitlement under this clause does not increase in cases of multiple births, adoptions or permanent caring arrangements that apply to more than one child at any one time.

F17.5 At the end of this time the employee is entitled to return to work in accordance with the provisions in the National Employment Standards.

F17.6 An employee is entitled to apply and will be granted an additional year of parental leave for up to two occasions of birth, adoption or commencement of a permanent caring arrangement, provided that the employee’s employment under the LAMS Act is continuous during this period.

Evidence and Conditions

F17.7 An employee should discuss with their Member, as soon as practicable, their intention to be absent on parental leave.

F17.8 An employee must make an application to the Member to access their unpaid parental leave entitlement.

F17.9 Having considered the requirements of this clause the Member will approve an employee’s application to access parental leave.

F17.10 The employee must provide the Member with appropriate evidence concerning the reasons for and circumstances under which the unpaid parental leave application is made, which may include:

   F17.10.1 a birth certificate; or
   F17.10.2 documents from an adoption authority concerning the adoption of a child; or F17.10.3 documents relating to a permanent caring arrangement.

F17.11 The Member will not grant parental leave if the employee’s domestic partner is on parental leave and is an employee of the Territory.

Rate of Payment

F17.12 Parental leave will be granted without pay.

F17.15 Public holidays for which the employee would otherwise have been entitled to payment that fall during periods of absence on parental leave will not be paid as a normal public holiday.

Interaction with Other Leave Types

F17.16 An employee on parental leave may access annual and long service leave on full or half pay to the extent of available entitlements.

F17.17 An application by an employee for personal leave during a period that would otherwise be a period of parental leave will be granted subject to the employee providing a certificate from a registered medical practitioner or a registered health professional operating within their scope of practice, in accordance with subclause F4.39.

Keep in Touch Arrangements (Parental Leave)

F17.18 An employee may, following an invitation from an authorised person, agree to attend the workplace on up to ten separate occasions of up to one day each so as to keep in touch with developments in the workplace (for meetings and training etc.), less any Keep In Touch time approved during birth or primary caregiver leave as per subclauses F14.33 or F16.26.

F17.19 The employee will be paid at their ordinary hourly rate of pay for the hours that they attend the workplace in accordance with subclause F17.18. Keep in touch attendance will count as service for all purposes, but does not extend the period of leave and does not end or reduce the entitlement to parental leave.

Bonding Leave

Purpose

F18.1 Bonding leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty to:

F18.1.1 bond with their newborn child, adopted child or a child for whom the employee’s domestic partner has commenced a primary care giving role under a permanent caring arrangement;

F18.1.2 support the protection of the family and children under the Human Rights Act 2004.

Eligibility

F18.2 Bonding leave is available to employees, other than casual employees, at the time of the child’s birth, adoption or the commencement of a permanent caring arrangement when the employee is not the primary care giver to the child.

F18.3 An employee who is eligible for paid birth leave, adoption or permanent care leave, or primary care giver leave is not entitled to bonding leave. If, however, bonding leave has been taken by the employee, and the employee later becomes entitled to primary care giver’s leave due to unforeseen circumstances, the Member may agree to convert the bonding leave and personal leave taken in accordance with this clause to primary care giver’s leave.

Entitlement

F18.4 Under this clause, an employee is entitled to be absent on paid leave for a maximum of two weeks (ten working days) at, or near, the time of the birth, adoption or commencement of the permanent caring arrangement. The maximum absence may be increased by a further five days of personal leave for bonding purposes as per subclause F4.28.
In accordance with the National Employment Standards, an eligible employee is entitled to be absent up to a maximum of eight weeks of concurrent unpaid bonding leave in the first twelve months following the birth or adoption, or commencement of a permanent caring arrangement for a child, subject to a minimum period of two weeks at a time unless a shorter period is agreed by the Member.

The entitlement under subclause F18.5 will be reduced by the extent of the entitlement accessed by an employee under subclause F18.4.

To avoid doubt, the entitlement under this clause does not increase in cases of multiple births, adoptions or permanent caring arrangements that apply to more than one child at the one time.

Bonding leave is non-cumulative.

Paid bonding leave must be taken within fourteen weeks from the date of birth, adoption or commencement of the permanent caring arrangements, unless there are exceptional circumstances and the Member agrees to a longer period.

The five days of personal leave accessed as per subclause F4.2 may be taken at any time up to fourteen weeks from the date of the birth, adoption or commencement of the permanent caring arrangement.

Where an employee’s domestic partner is also an employee of the Territory this leave may be taken concurrently with the domestic partner receiving birth leave, adoption or permanent care leave, or primary care giver leave.

Evidence and Conditions

An employee should discuss with their Member, as soon as practicable, their intention to be absent on bonding leave.

Bonding leave will be approved subject only to the Member being satisfied that the eligibility requirements have been met; however an employee must submit an application to the Member for any period of bonding leave.

The employee must provide the Member with appropriate evidence concerning the circumstances under which the bonding leave application is made, which may include:

- a medical certificate relating to the estimated date of delivery of a child; or
- a birth certificate; or
- documents from an adoption authority concerning the proposed adoption of a child; or
- documents relating to a permanent caring arrangement until the child reaches the age of eighteen years.

Unless the Member determines that exceptional circumstances apply, bonding leave will not be approved to care for:

- a baby over the age of fourteen weeks (not applicable in cases of adoption or permanent caring arrangements); or
- an adopted child or child who is the subject of a permanent caring arrangement over the age of eighteen years on the day of placement.
Rate of Payment
F18.16 Bonding leave will be granted with or without pay.

F18.17 The rate of payment to be paid to the employee during a period of paid bonding leave is the same rate as would be paid if the employee was granted personal leave.

Effect on Other Entitlements
F18.18 Paid bonding leave will count as service for all purposes and unpaid bonding leave will not count as service for any purposes, but will not break continuity of service.

F18.19 Public holidays for which the employee is entitled to payment that fall during periods of absence on paid bonding leave will be paid as a normal public holiday and will not extend the maximum period of bonding leave.

Effect on Other Entitlements

F23.16 Leave with pay for family violence purposes will count as service for all purposes. Leave without pay for family violence purposes will not count as service for any purpose, but will not break an employee’s continuity of service.

Interaction with Other Leave Types

F23.17 Where leave for family violence purposes credits have been exhausted the Member may grant an employee leave without pay or other forms of paid leave, such as annual leave or long service leave.

F23.18 Employees should utilise personal leave for an illness or injury, or to seek treatment for an illness or injury, caused by family violence.

F23.19 Leave entitlements under clause F5 - of this Agreement (Personal Leave in Extraordinary and Unforeseen Circumstances) may be used by an employee who is seeking leave to support a person who is experiencing family violence.
F24 Other Leave

Purpose
F24.1 Other leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty for a variety of purposes as set out in Annex C.

F24.2 Other leave may be granted in the interests of:
   F24.2.1 the Assembly, a State, a Territory or the Commonwealth; or F24.2.2 the community in general; or
   F24.2.3 the employee.

Note: Separate provisions apply for community service leave which includes jury service, voluntary emergency management and voluntary community service.

Eligibility
F24.3 An employee who meets the eligibility requirements specified in Annex C is eligible to apply for that form of other leave.

Entitlement
F24.4 An employee may, subject to subclause F24.8, be granted other leave to the maximum period set out in Annex C.

Evidence and Conditions
F24.5 An employee should discuss with their Member, as soon as practicable, their intention to be absent on a form of other leave, including the reasons for the absence and the period, or expected period, of the absence.

F24.6 An employee must make an application to the Member to access a form of other leave.

F24.7 Having considered the requirements of this clause the Member may approve an employee’s application to access a form of other leave. A decision not to approve the leave must be made in accordance with subclause F3.1.

F24.8 Any period of leave approved under this clause must not extend beyond the life of the current Assembly, or the expiry date of an employee’s Employment Agreement, whichever occurs first.

F24.9 The employee must, if requested by the Member, provide sufficient documentary evidence supporting the reason for the absence.

F24.10 When considering requests for other leave, the Member will take into account:
   F24.10.1 the employee’s circumstances;
   F24.10.2 community norms and obligations;
   F24.10.3 the operational requirements of the workplace;
   F24.10.4 other available leave options;
   F24.10.5 any conditions on the entitlement as defined in Annex C.

Rate of Payment
F24.11 Other leave may be granted with or without pay in accordance with Annex C.

Effect on Other Entitlements
F24.12 A period of other leave will, or will not, count as service in accordance with Annex C.
Public holidays for which the employee is entitled to payment that fall during periods of absence on other paid leave will be paid as a normal public holiday and will not reduce an entitlement of the employee to other leave under Annex C.

Access to Other Leave Entitlements

Leave will not be granted under this provision if another form of leave is more appropriate.

Purpose

Long service leave is available to employees to enable them to be absent from duty in recognition of their length of service in the public sector.

Eligibility

The eligibility requirements and entitlements for long service leave under the relevant determination made under the LAMS Act apply, subject to the provisions of this clause.

Entitlement

An employee may elect to receive an annual allowance calculated at two and a half percent of the employee’s annual salary instead of the accrual of long service leave. If an employee elects to receive an annual allowance instead of long service leave the entitlement to accrue long service leave is forgone during the employee’s period of employment.

An Employee who makes no election under subclause F25.3 will accrue long service leave at the rate of three months for each ten years of completed eligible employment, or an equivalent period of employment for casual employees, subject to:

- a period without pay not to count as service of one day or more will not count towards long service accrual, but does not break a period of employment for the purpose of determining an employee’s eligibility for long service leave; and
- long service leave accrues according to the employee’s ordinary hours of work.

The Member may grant long service leave to an employee who accrues long service leave under subclause F25.4 to the extent of that employee’s pro-rata long service leave credits after seven years of completed eligible employment.

Pursuant to subclause F25.5, to encourage the flexible use of long service leave:

- long service leave may be taken on double, full or half pay when approved by the Member and subject to operational requirements, with credits to be deducted on the same basis; or
- an employee may, in writing, request the approval of the Member to the partial or full payment in lieu (cash out) of their accrued long service leave credit. The payment in lieu is subject to a minimum payment of one week and will be based on the rate of pay the employee would have received had the employee taken the leave.

If the employee is on higher duties at the time of taking long service leave under paragraph F25.6.1, or cashing out long service leave under paragraph F25.6.2, payment for the leave at the higher duties rate will only be approved if the higher duties would have continued for the entire period of the leave taken, or the entire period of the leave is cashed out.

An employee who accrues long service leave under subclause F25.4, whose employment under the LAMS Act ceases otherwise than because of the employee’s death, will receive payment on separation of any pro-rata long service leave entitlement, provided the employee has completed not less than one year of eligible employment, including any recognised service.
F25.9 If an employee whose period of eligible employment is not less than one year dies, the approving authority may authorise payment of an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the employee if the employee had, on the day the employee died, ceased to be an employee otherwise than because of death, on or after, the employee attaining the minimum retiring age.

Evidence and Conditions

F25.10 An employee should discuss with the Member as soon as practicable their intention to be absent on long service leave.

F25.11 An employee must make an application to the Member to access their long service leave entitlement.

F25.12 Having considered the requirements of this section the Member may approve an employee’s application to access long service leave.

F25.13 If the Member does not approve an application by an employee for long service leave because of operational requirements the Member must consult with the employee to determine a mutually convenient alternative time (or times) for the employee to take the leave.

Effect on Other Entitlements

F25.14 Long service leave will count as service for all purposes.

F25.15 When applying for long service leave an employee must seek approval if they propose to engage in outside employment during the leave.
Section G  Communication and Consultation

G1  Consultation

G1.1  There should be effective consultation with an employee/s and their representatives on, and employee participation in, decisions that affect them. This is essential to the successful management of change.

G1.2  Where there are proposals by the Chief Minister or a Member to introduce changes that would have a significant effect on an employee or a group of employees, the Chief Minister or Member will consult with the affected employees and the union(s). Consultation means a genuine opportunity to contribute to and influence the decision making process prior to decisions being made.

G1.2.1  Significant Effect includes, but is not limited to, effects of proposals that deal with:
   (a)  the termination of the employment of employees through redundancy; or
   (b)  changes to the composition, operation or size of the office workforce or the skills required of employees; or
   (c)  the alteration of hours of work; or
   (d)  the need to retrain employees; or
   (e)  the need to physically relocate employees; or
   (f)  the restructuring of job-roles, positions or structures; or
   (g)  changes to employment policies; or
   (h)  anything likely to materially affect workloads.

G1.3  An employee/s and/or their representatives may also initiate consultation on any matters or proposals if such consultation hasn’t already been initiated under subclause G1.2.

G1.4  The Chief Minister or Member will provide relevant information to assist the employee/s and the union(s) to understand the reasons for the proposed changes and the likely impact of these changes so that the employee/s and union(s) are able to contribute to the decision making process.

G1.5  In addition to the consultation outlined in subclauses G1.1 to G1.3, for the purpose of providing effective consultation:
   G1.5.1  adequate time will be provided to employees and the union(s) to consult with management;
   G1.5.2  a LAMS Consultative Committee (LAMS CC) will be established, with membership to be agreed by the Chief Minister and the union(s) following commencement of this Agreement; and G1.5.3  additional levels of consultation, such as a Workplace Consultative Committee, may be established to operate at the local level.

G1.6  The purpose of the LAMS CC is to:
   G1.6.1  monitor the operation and implementation of this Agreement;
   G1.6.2  consider any proposed new or proposed significant changes to Assembly policy statements and guidelines that relate to the provisions of this Agreement; and G1.6.3  consult on workplace matters significantly affecting employees.
G1.7 The LAMS CC will meet within two months of the commencement of this Agreement. The purpose of this meeting is to agree on the terms of reference, which will include the consultative structure to operate during the term of this Agreement.

G1.7.1 The LAMS CC will meet no less than once in any twelve month period thereafter, unless a different period is agreed in the Terms of Reference.

G1.7.2 Additional meetings of the LAMS CC may also be convened if requested by any member of the LAMS CC, or as determined by the Terms of Reference.

Consultation on Changes to Regular Rosters or Ordinary Hours of Work

G1.8 Where the Member proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of employees, the following will apply:

G1.8.1 the Member must notify the relevant employees of the proposed change;

G1.8.2 the Member must recognise the affected employee(s) union or other representative;

G1.8.3 as soon as practicable after proposing to introduce the change, the Member must:
   (a) discuss with the relevant employees the introduction of the change; and
   (b) for the purposes of the discussion, provide to the relevant employees:
      i. all relevant information about the change, including the nature of the change; and
      ii. information about what the Member reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the employees; and
      iii. information about any other matters that the Member reasonably believes are likely to affect the employees; and
   (c) invite the relevant employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

G1.9 However, the Member is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employees.

G1.10 The Member must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant employees.

G1.11 These provisions are to be read in conjunction with other consultative obligations detailed in the Agreement.

Note: In this term “relevant employees” means the employees who may be affected by a change referred to in subclause G1.9.

G1.12 In addition, the employer undertakes that, for the purposes of subclause G1.2, the Member will recognise and consult with the affected employee(s), their union or other representative.

G2 Freedom of Association

G2.1 The Territory recognises that employees are free to choose whether or not to join a union. Irrespective of that choice, employees will not be disadvantaged or discriminated against in respect of the employees’ employment under this Agreement. The Territory recognises that employees who choose to be members of a union have the right to choose to have their industrial interests represented by the union.

G2.2 Employees in negotiations of any kind are entitled to negotiate collectively where they so choose.

G2.3 Employees engaging in negotiations of any kind are entitled to be represented by a representative of their choice. The Territory will deal with any such representative in good faith.
G3  Right of Existing and New Employees to Representation in the Workplace

G3.1  The Territory acknowledges the rights of its employees to be represented on any workplace relations matter and to meet with their representatives in the workplace. The Territory recognises the legitimate right of the union(s) to represent its employees who are members, or eligible to become members of the union(s).

G3.2  The FW Act prescribes the purpose and manner under which the union(s) may exercise right of entry in the workplace. The Territory will grant the union(s) access in accordance with the FW Act.

G3.3  In addition, the Territory will:

G3.3.1  allow union officials and employees, who are permit holders, to enter the workplace for normal union business or to represent employees, to meet with management or members and to distribute or post material, provided that work is not disrupted;

G3.3.2  allow the union(s) to meet with new employees who are members, or who are eligible to become members, of the union(s), at a time during normal working hours which the union(s) and the Member agree upon, and of which the relevant corporate area will advise the employees;

G3.3.3  provide all new employees with some form of induction program, including an induction package containing information about the union(s) which the union(s) has given the relevant corporate area; and

G3.3.4  invite the union(s) to attend any face to face induction of new employees, the details of which the relevant corporate area will advise to the union(s) contact officer or other nominated person with reasonable notice. Such attendance will be included as an integral part of the induction process and be for the purpose of delivering an information presentation including recruitment information to new employees.

G3.4  For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in subclause G3.3 should be taken as conferring a right of entry that is contrary to, or for which there is otherwise, a right of entry under the FW Act.

G4  Co-operation and Facilities for Unions and Other Employee Representatives

G4.1  For the purpose of ensuring that union(s) and other employee representatives who are employees of the Territory can effectively fulfil their employee representative role under this Agreement, the following provisions will apply.

G4.2  Reasonable access to Assembly facilities, including the internal courier service, access to the ACT Government communication systems, telephone, facsimile, photocopying, access to meeting rooms and storage space, will be provided to union(s) and other employee representatives to assist them to fulfil their representative obligations, duties and responsibilities having regard to the Assembly’s statutory obligations, operational requirements and resources.

G4.3  In addition to the Assembly facilities outlined in subclause G4.2, where available, a union or employee representative who is an employee of the Territory will be able to establish designated Outlook public folders which will provide a collaborative electronic workspace to improve the flow of information. The use of Assembly facilities will be in accordance with published policies and for matters other than for industrial action.

G4.4  A union or other employee representative who is an employee of the Territory will be provided with adequate paid time off from their usual working hours, to undertake duties to represent other employees.

G4.5  While the representative duties would normally be expected to be performed within the workplace, on occasions the union or employee representative may be required to conduct these duties external to the workplace.
The role of union workplace delegates and other recognised union representatives is to be respected and facilitated. The Territory and union workplace delegates must deal with each other in good faith.

In addition to other provisions in this Agreement, in discharging their representative roles at the workplace level, the rights of union workplace delegates include, but are not limited to:

- the right to be treated fairly and perform their role as workplace delegate without any discrimination in their employment;
- recognition by the Territory that endorsed workplace delegates speak on behalf of their members in the workplace;
- the right to participate in collective bargaining on behalf of those who they represent, as per the FW Act;
- the right to reasonable paid time off from their usual working hours to:
  - provide information and seek feedback from employees in the workplace on workplace relations matters in the Assembly during normal working hours;
  - represent the interests of members to the employer and industrial tribunals;
  - consult with other delegates and union officials in the workplace, and receive advice and assistance from union staff and officials in the workplace;
- the right to email employees in their workplace to provide information to and seek feedback, subject to individual employees exercising a right to ‘opt out’;
- the right to consultation, and access to relevant information about the workplace and the Assembly, subject to privacy legislation and other relevant legislation;
- the right to undertake their role as union representatives on Assembly workplace relations consultative committee(s);
- reasonable access to Assembly facilities (including internet and email facilities, meeting rooms, lunch rooms, tea rooms and other areas where employees meet) for the purpose of carrying out work as a delegate and consulting with members and other interested employees and the union;
- the right to address new employees about union membership at the time they enter employment in their workplace;
- the right to access appropriate training in workplace relations matters including training provided by a union in accordance with clause G5.

In exercising their rights, workplace delegates and unions will adhere to Assembly policies and guidelines and consider operational issues and the likely effect on the efficient operation of the Assembly and the provision of services.

G5 Attendance at Industrial Relations Courses and Seminars

For the purpose of assisting employees in gaining a better understanding of industrial relations issues relating to this Agreement, leave will be granted to employees to attend recognised short training courses or seminars on the following conditions:

- that operating requirements permit the granting of leave;
- that the scope, content and level of the short courses contribute to the better understanding of industrial relations issues;
- leave granted under this clause will be with full pay, not including the LAMS Allowance or overtime; and
- each employee will not be granted more than fifteen days/shifts leave in any calendar year.
G5.2 If the employee has applied for leave under subclause G5.1 and the application was rejected because of operational requirements, approval of any subsequent application for leave by the employee under subclause G5.1 will not be withheld unreasonably, provided that the employee gives the Member at least fourteen days’ notice in writing.

G5.3 Courses to which subclause G5.1 applies include any short course conducted or accredited by a relevant employee organisation (for example union(s), the Australian Council of Trade Unions or the ACT Trades and Labour Council).

G5.4 Leave granted for this purpose will count as service for all purposes.

G6 Dispute Avoidance/Settlement Procedures

G6.1 The objective of these procedures is the prevention and resolution of disputes about:

G6.1.1 matters arising in the workplace, including disputes about the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement; and G6.1.2 the application of the National Employment Standards.

G6.2 For the purposes of this clause, except where the contrary intention appears, the term ‘parties’ refers to ‘parties to the dispute’.

G6.3 All persons covered by this Agreement agree to take reasonable internal steps to prevent, and explore all avenues to seek resolution of, disputes.

G6.4 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative, which may be a relevant union, for the purposes of the procedures of this clause.

G6.5 In the event there is a dispute, the following processes will apply.

G6.6 Where appropriate, the relevant employee or the employee’s representative will discuss the matter with the Member.

G6.7 In instances where the dispute remains unresolved, the employee, the union or other employee representative will be notified and a meeting will be arranged at which a course of action for resolution of the dispute will be discussed.

G6.8 If the dispute remains unresolved after this procedure, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

G6.9 The FWC may deal with the dispute in two stages:

G6.9.1 the FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and

G6.9.2 if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at this first stage, the FWC may then:

(a) arbitrate the dispute; and

(b) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

G6.10 The FWC may exercise any powers it has under the FW Act as are necessary for the just resolution or determination of the dispute.

G6.11 A person may be assisted and represented at any stage in the dispute process in the FWC on the same basis as applies to representation before the FWC under section 596 of the FW Act.

G6.12 All persons involved in the proceedings under subclause G6.9 will participate in good faith.
G6.13 Unless the parties agree to the contrary, the FWC will, in responding to the matter, have regard to whether a party has applied the procedures under this term and acted in good faith.

G6.14 The parties agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this clause.

G6.15 Notwithstanding subclause G6.14, any party may appeal a decision made by the FWC in accordance with the FW Act.

G6.16 Despite the above, the parties may agree to submit the dispute to a body or person other than the FWC. Where the parties agree to submit the dispute to another body or person:

G6.16.1 all of the above provisions apply, unless the parties agree otherwise; and
G6.16.2 references to the FWC in the above provisions will be read as a reference to the agreed body or person;
G6.16.3 all obligations and requirements on the parties and other relevant persons under the above provisions will be complied with; and G6.16.4 the agreed body or person must deal with the dispute in a manner that is consistent with section 740 of the FW Act.

G6.17 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using procedures in this clause:

G6.17.1 an employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
G6.17.2 an employee must comply with a direction given by the Member to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:

(a) the work is not safe; or
(b) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
(c) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
(d) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
Section H   Workplace Values and Behaviours

H1   Introduction

H1.1   Members and employees have a common interest in ensuring that workplace behaviours are consistent with, and apply the obligations set out in the relevant Code of Conduct and in the employee’s Employment Agreement. This involves the development of an ethical and safe workplace in which Members and employees act responsibly and are accountable for their actions and decisions. Bullying, harassment and discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated in the Assembly. It is recognised that bullying, harassment and discrimination in the workplace has both emotional and financial costs and that both systemic and individual instances of bullying and harassment are not acceptable.

H1.2   The following provisions of Section H contain procedures for managing workplace behaviours that do not meet expected standards, including the management of cases of unsatisfactory work performance and misconduct.

H1.3   These procedures in this Section account for the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

H1.4   Any misconduct, underperformance or internal review process under the previous enterprise agreement that is not completed as at the date of commencement of this enterprise agreement will be completed under the previous enterprise agreement. Any right of review from that process will also be set out in the previous enterprise agreement.

H1.5   Noting that the provisions of this Section H are in similar terms to Section H (however described) of other ACTPS enterprise agreements. If an employee moves to the ACT Public Service, either on a permanent or temporary basis, while a misconduct process is on foot, and irrespective of whether this Agreement or another ACTPS Enterprise Agreement applied to the employee at the time the misconduct process commenced, the misconduct process may continue and, if the process continues, the employee is required to continue to participate in the process.

H1.5.1   Any disciplinary action and sanction which is determined to be applied under clause H11 - will be applied to the employee in their new position, where the relevant delegate determines it is appropriate and necessary and having due regard to the nature of the misconduct and the changes in employment circumstances including any material bearing on the employee's duties and responsibilities in their new position.

H1.6   If an employee resigns while a misconduct process is on foot, the employing Member may:

H1.6.1   determine to complete the misconduct process under Section H of this Agreement, including inviting the employee to participate in the process, such that the outcome of the process can be taken into account with any application by the employee to subsequently re-enter employment with the Territory; or

H1.6.2   determine to stay the process upon the employee's resignation and communicate to the employee that the misconduct process may recommence if the employee subsequently re-enters, or seeks to re-enter, employment with a Member of the Legislative Assembly. Any disciplinary action and sanction which is determined as a consequence of a resumed misconduct process may be imposed on the employee in their new position in accordance with H1.5.1 or taken into account with any application by the employee to subsequently re-enter employment with a Member of the Legislative Assembly.
H2 Preliminary Assessment

H2.1 In cases where an allegation of inappropriate behaviour or alleged misconduct is made, or an incident occurs which may be deemed to be inappropriate behaviour or alleged misconduct, the Member will initiate an assessment process to determine whether the matter can be resolved, or whether further action is required or not.

H2.2 The Member may inform and/or seek advice from, or the assistance of, an appropriate Human Resources adviser.

H2.3 The assessment should be done in an expedient manner and generally be limited to having communication (either verbal or written) about the allegation or incident, with relevant employees, and, if requested, their representatives.

H2.4 Although the principles of procedural fairness apply, this assessment is not a formal investigation (as this may occur after the assessment is undertaken) and is designed to enable a Member to quickly determine whether formal investigation or other action is needed or not to resolve the issues.

H2.5 Following this process, if the Member determines that the allegation:

- H2.5.1 requires no further action, then no further action needs to be taken;
- H2.5.2 can be resolved through counselling, other remedial action, or assistance to the employee then the Member will implement such action;
- H2.5.3 are better resolved through Internal Review procedures set out in this Agreement or appropriate external mechanisms, the Member will refer the matter accordingly;
- H2.5.4 relate to underperformance processes, the Member will commence an underperformance process where this is warranted;
- H2.5.5 require investigation, the Member will conduct an investigation;
- H2.5.6 may be vexatious or knowingly false, the Member will consider whether further action needs to be taken in relation to the person who made the allegations.

H2.6 If it is appropriate to do so, the Member will inform the relevant employees where a preliminary assessment process is commenced under subclause H2.1, and will communicate the outcomes to relevant employees and their representatives if any.

H2.7 In performing the preliminary assessment the relevant authorising officer may authorise access to relevant Territory information and communication technology (ICT) records including email, computer, work phone records, or building access logs if, in the opinion of the Member, access is necessary to determine whether further action is necessary.

H2.8 The Member may determine that no investigation is necessary where the employee admits to the alleged misconduct and the employee agrees that there is no need for an investigation. The employee must fully understand the misconduct they are admitting to and make an admission statement.

H2.9 Where an employee makes an admission in accordance with subclause H2.8 the Member may determine the appropriate disciplinary action/sanction in accordance with clause H11. The Member must ensure that they have sufficient information concerning the nature and full circumstances of the misconduct, any mitigating factors, and details of the employee’s prior service record and performance to enable a fair and reasonable determination under clause H11 to be made.
H3    Counselling

H3.1   Counselling may happen outside of the misconduct and underperformance processes. This is an opportunity for the employee and the Member to discuss possible causes and remedies for identified workplace problems. All parties have an obligation to participate in counselling in good faith.

H3.2   In cases where counselling is considered to be appropriate, the employee will be informed what the discussion will be about and be invited to have a support person, who may be the employee’s union or other employee representative, present at the counselling and will allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged.

H3.3   The Member will create a formal record of the counselling which will include details about the ways in which the employee’s conduct needs to change or improve, the time frames within which these changes or improvements must occur and may include a written direction about future expectations, standards and behaviours.

H3.4   The record of the counselling will be provided to the employee and the employee given an opportunity to correct any inaccuracies and provide comments before signing the record. The employee’s signature is taken as representing their full agreement that the record accurately reflects the discussion. If the employee elects not to sign the record, then details of the offer and any reasons given for refusal will be clearly noted.

H3.5   Where the Member considers that the employee’s conduct has not improved following counselling, an underperformance or misconduct process may be undertaken in relation to continued and/or subsequent behaviour, following a preliminary assessment being undertaken in accordance with clause H2 -.

H4    Underperformance

H4.1   Under this clause, procedures are established for managing underperformance by an employee.

H4.2   The objectives of these procedures are to:

H4.2.1 provide advice and support to an employee whose performance is below the standard required; and

H4.2.2 to provide a fair, prompt and transparent framework for action to be taken where an employee continues to perform below expected standard.

Underperformance Discussions

H4.3   Consistent with good management practice, concerns about underperformance should be raised by the Member with the employee at the time that the concerns arise or are identified. The Member should offer advice and support to the employee to overcome these concerns. The Member should inform the employee that the underperformance procedures in subclauses H4.6 to H4.13 might be invoked if the underperformance continues.

H4.4   In order to ensure that these procedures operate in a fair and transparent manner, the Member will be responsible for documenting all relevant discussions. The employee must be given the opportunity to comment on any records before signing them. In circumstances where the employee refuses to sign such a record, the refusal will be noted on the relevant record.

H4.5   All parties have an obligation to participate in underperformance processes in good faith.
Underperformance Process

Step One:

H4.6 Where a Member assesses that an employee’s work performance is demonstrated as being below expected standards, after having previously discussed concerns with the employee in line with subclause H4.3, the Member will inform the employee in writing of this assessment and the reasons for it. The employee will be invited by the Member to provide written comments on this assessment, including any reasons that in the employee’s view may have contributed to their recent work performance.

H4.7 After taking into account the comments from the employee, the Member will inform the employee in writing of:

H4.7.1 the expected standards of work required of the employee on an on-going basis;

H4.7.2 any learning and development strategies that the employee should undertake;

H4.7.3 the potential underperformance actions that may be taken if the employee does not meet the expected standards; and

H4.7.4 the assessment criteria to be measured and the period during which a further review of the employee’s work performance will be conducted.

H4.8 The Member will invite the employee to have a support person, who may be the employee’s union or other employee representative, present at discussions and will allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged.

Step Two:

H4.9 If at the end of the review period, the Member assesses the work performance of the employee as satisfactory, no further action will be taken under these procedures at that time. The Member will inform the employee in writing of this decision.

H4.10 If at the end of the review period, the Member assesses the work performance of the employee as not satisfactory, the Member will advise the employee in writing of:

H4.10.1 the assessment and reasons for the Member’s assessment;

H4.10.2 the underperformance action/s (subclause H4.11) proposed to be taken and the reasons for proposing this action; and

H4.10.3 the employee’s right to respond in writing to the proposed action within a period of not more than seven calendar days.

H4.11 After considering any response from the employee, the Member may decide to take one or more of the following underperformance actions:

H4.11.1 alter the employee’s duties;

H4.11.2 reduce the employee’s incremental pay point;

H4.11.3 temporarily or permanently reduce the employee’s classification and pay;

H4.11.4 remove any monetary benefit derived through an existing Specialist Duties Payment;

H4.11.5 terminate the employee’s employment.

H4.12 The Member will inform the employee in writing of the decision made under subclause H4.11, the reasons for the decision and the review mechanisms available under this Agreement.

H4.13 At any time after seven calendar days from the date the Member advised the employee under subclause H4.10, the Member may take one or more of the under-performance actions outlined in the information provided to the employee under subclause H4.10.
H5  Review Rights

H5.1  The employee has the right under Section I to seek a review of any underperformance action taken under subclause H4.11, except action to terminate the employee’s employment.

H5.2  The employee may have an entitlement to bring an action under the FW Act in respect of any termination of employment under this Agreement. This will be the sole right of review of such an action.

H6  Misconduct and Discipline

Objectives and Application

H6.1  This clause establishes procedures for managing misconduct or alleged misconduct by an employee.

H6.2  The objective of these procedures is to encourage the practical and expeditious resolution of misconduct issues in the workplace.

H6.3  All parties have an obligation to participate in misconduct processes in good faith.

What is Misconduct

H6.4  For the purposes of this Section, misconduct includes any of the following:

H6.4.1  the employee fails to meet the obligations set out in the employee’s Employment Agreement or the relevant Code of Conduct;

H6.4.2  the employee engages in conduct that has brought, or is likely to bring, the Assembly or the Territory into disrepute;

H6.4.3  a period of unauthorised absence and the employee does not offer a satisfactory reason on return to work;

H6.4.4  the employee is found guilty of, or is convicted of a criminal offence or where a court finds that an employee has committed an offence but a conviction is not recorded, taking into account the circumstances and seriousness of the offence, the duties of the employee and the interests of the Assembly and/or the Member;

H6.4.5  the employee fails to notify the Member of criminal charges in accordance with clause H12; or

H6.4.6  the employee makes a vexatious or knowingly false allegation against another employee.

What is Serious Misconduct

H6.5  Serious misconduct means conduct that is so serious that it may be inconsistent with the continuation of the employee’s employment with the Territory. Serious misconduct includes but is not limited to the kinds of serious misconduct defined within the Fair Work Regulations.

H7  Dealing with Allegations of Misconduct

H7.1  Where the Member is of the opinion that an investigation is required, the Member will:

H7.1.1  inform the appropriate Human Resources Manager that an investigation is to take place;

H7.1.2  with the assistance of the appropriate Human Resource Manager, investigate, or make arrangements for an appropriately trained or experienced person (the investigating officer) to investigate, the alleged misconduct in accordance with clause H9; and

H7.1.3  inform the employee of the alleged misconduct and that the matter is to be investigated, unless it is inappropriate to do so.
H7.2 Depending on the nature of the alleged misconduct the Member may, in accordance with clause H8, immediately or at any stage of dealing with the alleged misconduct:

H7.2.1 transfer the employee to other duties;
H7.2.2 re-allocate duties away from the employee;
H7.2.3 suspend the employee with pay while the alleged misconduct is being investigated;
H7.2.4 suspend the employee without pay where serious misconduct is alleged.

H7.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Member may summarily terminate the employment of an employee without notice for serious misconduct as defined within the Fair Work Regulations.

H8 Suspension or Reassignment

H8.1 This clause applies to all employees including eligible casual employees and employees on probation.

H8.2 Subject to these procedures, the Member may suspend with or without pay, or reassign an employee where the Member is satisfied that it is in the public interest, the Member’s interests or the interests of the Assembly to do so while the alleged misconduct is being investigated.

H8.3 The Member will not normally suspend or reassign an employee without first informing the employee of the reasons for the proposed suspension or reassignment and giving the employee the opportunity to be heard. However, the Member may suspend an employee first and then give the employee the reasons for the suspension and an opportunity to be heard, where, in the Member’s opinion, this is appropriate in the circumstances.

H8.4 Whilst suspended with pay an employee will be paid:

H8.4.1 the employee’s ordinary hourly rate of pay that would have been paid to the employee for the period they would otherwise have been on duty; and H8.4.2 any other allowance or payment of a regular or on-going nature that is not conditional on performance of duties.

H8.5 Where a decision is made to suspend an employee with pay no review of that decision is available.

H8.6 Unless the employee is on authorised leave an employee who is suspended must be available to attend work and participate in the disciplinary process as directed within 48 hours of the direction being given.

H8.7 Suspension without pay is usually only appropriate where serious misconduct is alleged or where the employee is charged with a criminal offence that would in the opinion of the Member be incompatible with the continuation of the employee’s employment.

H8.8 Whilst suspended without pay:

H8.8.1 the period of suspension without pay will not be for more than thirty calendar days, unless exceptional circumstances apply;
H8.8.2 the employee may apply to the Member for permission to seek alternate employment for the period of the suspension, or until the permission is revoked. Any such permission given to the employee is granted on the condition that the employee remains available to attend work and participate in the disciplinary process as per subclause H8.6;
H8.8.3 in cases of demonstrated hardship, the Member may determine that the employee may cash out accrued long service leave and/or annual leave;
H8.8.4 the employee may apply to the Member for the suspension to be with pay on the grounds of demonstrated hardship.

H8.9 If the period of suspension without pay extends beyond thirty calendar days as per subclause H8.8, the suspension should be reviewed every thirty calendar days unless the Member considers that, in the circumstances, a longer period is appropriate.

H8.10 An employee suspended without pay, and who is later acquitted of the criminal offence (which is the subject of the allegation(s) of misconduct which caused the employee to be suspended), or is found not to have been guilty of the misconduct:
   H8.10.1 is entitled to be repaid the amount by which the employee’s pay was reduced; and H8.10.2 is entitled to be credited with any period of long service or annual leave that was cashed out in accordance with paragraph H8.8.3.

H8.11 Where an employee is suspended and later found guilty of a criminal offence (whether or not a conviction is recorded), or is found guilty of misconduct and whose employment is terminated because of the offence or misconduct, a period of suspension under this clause does not count as service for any purpose, unless the Member determines otherwise.

H9 Investigations

H9.1 The role of the investigating officer is to establish the facts of the allegations and to provide a report of those facts to the Member.

H9.2 The investigating officer will:
   H9.2.1 inform the employee in writing of the particulars of the alleged misconduct, and details concerning the investigative process; and
   H9.2.2 give the employee a reasonable opportunity to respond to allegations, which the employee may do in writing and/or at a scheduled interview or in a different manner as agreed with the investigating officer, before making a finding of fact; and
   H9.2.3 for written responses the timeframe for response will be as communicated by the investigator and be reasonable under the circumstances; and
   H9.2.4 where the response includes an interview, provide the employee with at least twenty four hours written notice prior to conducting an interview, and advise the employee if the interview is to be recorded electronically; and
   H9.2.5 advise the employee that the employee may have a second person present during the interview, who may be the employee’s union representative or other individual acting as support person, and will allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged; and H9.2.6 provide a record of the interview to the employee; and H9.2.7 give the employee an opportunity to supplement the record of an interview with a written submission, if the employee so chooses, before signing the record. If the employee elects not to sign the record, then details of the offer will be noted; and H9.2.8 as soon as practicable, take any further steps considered necessary to establish the facts of the allegations; and H9.2.9 provide a written report to the Member setting out the investigating officer’s findings of fact.

H9.3 If the employee fails to, or chooses not to, respond to the allegations in accordance with subclause H9.2 within a reasonable timeframe, the investigating officer will prepare the report and set out the findings of fact on the information available.

H9.4 The investigating officer’s findings of fact will be made on the balance of probabilities.
H9.5 The relevant authorising officer may authorise access to relevant Territory information and communication technology (ICT) records including email, computer, work phone records, or building access logs if, in the opinion of the Member, the investigating officer requires access in order to establish the facts of the allegations.

H10 Findings of Misconduct

H10.1 After considering the report from the investigating officer, the Member will make a determination on the balance of probabilities as to whether misconduct has occurred.

H10.2 If the Member determines that the misconduct has not occurred, the Member will notify the employee of this finding and advise that no sanctions will be imposed.

H11 Disciplinary Action and Sanctions

H11.1 The Member will, following an investigation of alleged misconduct or full admission by the employee, consider whether or not disciplinary action is appropriate, and whether or not one or more of the following sanctions may be taken in relation to the employee:

H11.1.1 a written warning or reprimand;

H11.1.2 a financial penalty which can:

   (a) reduce the employee’s incremental pay level;

   (b) reduce, temporarily or permanently, the employee’s classification;

   (c) impose a fine on the employee;

   (d) require the employee to fully or partially reimburse the employer for damage that the employee has wilfully incurred to property or equipment;

H11.1.3 alter the employee’s duties at level, or reassign the employee to another position at level or to a lower classification level;

H11.1.4 remove any monetary benefit derived through an existing Specialist Duties Payment;

H11.1.5 termination of employment.

H11.2 Nothing in this section limits the ability of the Member to require an employee to participate in formal remedial programs/sessions aimed at assisting the employee with addressing the behaviour that was the subject of the misconduct process.

H11.3 Sanctions imposed under these procedures must be proportionate to the degree of misconduct concerned. In determining the appropriate sanction, the following factors must be considered:

H11.3.1 the nature and seriousness of the misconduct;

H11.3.2 the degree of relevance to the employee's duties or to the reputation of the Member or the Assembly;

H11.3.3 the circumstances of the misconduct;

H11.3.4 any mitigating factors, including any full admission of guilt; and

H11.3.5 the previous employment history and the general conduct of the employee.

H11.4 If the employee has moved to a new position, other than as a result of a decision in accordance with clause H7, during the course of the misconduct process, the changes in employment circumstances will be taken into account as appropriate in accordance with paragraph H1.5.1.

H11.5 Before taking disciplinary action under subclause H11.1, the Member will advise the employee in writing of:

H11.5.1 the determination that misconduct has been found to have occurred; and H11.5.2 the reasons for arriving at this determination; and H11.5.3 the sanction proposed; and
H11.5.4 the period during which the employee has to respond to the proposed disciplinary action (which must be a minimum of seven calendar days).

H11.6 After considering the employee’s response in accordance with subclause H11.5, or if the employee does not respond, at any time after the period set out in paragraph H11.5.4 has passed, the Member will inform the employee in writing of:

H11.6.1 the final decision regarding disciplinary action to be taken; and H11.6.2 the disciplinary action to be taken, if any; and H11.6.3 the date of effect and/or, if relevant, the cessation of any disciplinary action; and H11.6.4 the review mechanisms that are available under Section I of this Agreement.

H12 Criminal Charges

H12.1 An employee must advise the Member in writing within 48 hours where practicable, but no longer than seven calendar days, of any criminal charges laid against the employee. in circumstances where the interests of the Member or of the Assembly may be adversely affected, taking into account:

H12.1.1 the circumstances and seriousness of the alleged criminal offence; and H12.1.2 the employee’s obligations under the employee’s Employment Agreement and relevant Code of Conduct; and H12.1.3 the effective management of the employee’s work area; and H12.1.4 the integrity and good reputation of the Member and the Assembly; and H12.1.5 the relevance of the offence to the employee’s duties.

H12.2 Where criminal charges are laid against an employee and the interests of the Member or of the Assembly may be adversely affected, the Member may suspend the employee in accordance with the suspension arrangements under clause H8 -.

H12.3 If an employee is found guilty of, or convicted of a criminal offence (including if a non-conviction order is made) the employee will provide a written statement regarding the circumstances of the offence to the Member within seven calendar days of the conviction or the finding.

H12.4 Where an employee is convicted of a criminal offence and the conviction or finding has adversely affected the interests of the Member or the Assembly, the Member may impose a sanction for misconduct against the employee in accordance with clause H11 -.

H13 Right of Review

H13.1 An employee has the right under Section I to seek a review of any decision to take disciplinary action, or to apply a sanction under clause H11 -., or against any decision taken under clause H8 - to suspend the employee without pay, except action to terminate the employee’s employment.

H13.2 An employee may have an entitlement to bring an action under the FW Act in respect of any decision under this Section to terminate the employee's employment. This will be the sole right of review of such a decision.
Section I  Internal Review Procedures

I1  Objectives and Application

I1.1 Under this Section, procedures are established for employees to seek a review of management actions that affect their employment with the Member.

I1.2 The procedures in this Section account for the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

I1.3 These procedures apply to all employees covered by this Agreement.

I1.4 For the purposes of this Section, an action includes a decision and a refusal or failure to make a decision.

I1.5 The power(s)/function(s) of the Chief Minister under this Section can only be delegated in regard to procedural matters.

I2  Decisions and Actions Excluded

I2.1 The following decisions and actions are excluded from the rights of an employee to seek a review under procedures set out in this Section:

I2.1.1 actions regarding the policy, strategy, nature, scope, resourcing or direction of the Government and the Assembly (see clause G1 - of this Agreement for consultation on these actions);

I2.1.2 actions arising under Commonwealth or ACT legislation that concern domestic or international security matters;

I2.1.3 actions regarding superannuation (see relevant superannuation legislation for complaints and appeals on these actions, in particular the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993);

I2.1.4 actions regarding workers’ compensation (see the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 for reviews and appeals on these actions);

I2.1.5 decisions to terminate the employment of an employee on probation;

I2.1.9 actions arising from the internal review procedures of this Agreement.

I3  Initiating a Review

I3.1 Unless it would not be appropriate, an employee should first discuss their concerns about an action or decision with the relevant Member with a view to resolving the matter within the workplace before initiating a review under these procedures.

I3.2 An employee, or the employee’s union or other employee representative on the employee’s behalf, has the right to apply for a review of any action or decision that directly affects the employee’s employment, unless the action or decision is specifically excluded under this Section.
I3.3 An employee, or the employee’s union or other employee representative on the employee’s behalf, may initiate a review under this Section by making an application to the Chief Minister that:

I3.3.1 is in writing; and
I3.3.2 is made no more than 28 calendar days after the employee was advised of the decision that is the subject of the application for review, unless the Chief Minister agrees that extenuating circumstances exist; and I3.3.3 identifies the action and/or decision which the employee seeks a review of; and I3.3.4 does not concern a decision or action that is excluded under subclause I2.1
I3.3.5 identifies the reasons the review is sought including, in the employee’s view, the effect/s that the action or decision has or is having on the employee’s employment; and I3.3.6 outlines the extenuating circumstances, if any, where the application is made outside the timeframe specified in paragraph I3.3.2; and I3.3.7 describes the outcome sought.

I3.4 If the review relates to a failure or refusal to make a decision in accordance with subclause I1.4, the 28 day time period outlined in paragraph I3.3.2 will be taken to commence on the day it was apparent that there was a failure or refusal to make a decision.

I3.5 The Chief Minister will, provided that the requirements under subclause I3.3 have been met, refer the matter for review in accordance with clause I4 -.

I4 Review Process

I4.1 Notwithstanding subclause I3.5, where appropriate, and agreed by the relevant Member and the employee who made the application under subclause I3.3 (for the purposes of this Section I “the applicant”), or the applicant’s union or other employee representative on the applicant’s behalf, the Chief Minister must consider mediation as an option before arranging for a review under subclause I4.3. The mediator will be agreed between the applicant and the relevant Member.

I4.2 In the event that mediation does take place and that it resolves the issues raised in the application, then no further action is required under these procedures. In that event a formal written statement that the issue has been resolved must be signed by the applicant and the relevant Member.

I4.3 Subject to subclauses I3.5, I4.1 and I4.2, the Chief Minister must arrange for an application made under subclause I3.3 to be reviewed by an independent person (the reviewer), who should be a suitably skilled person who was not involved in the original action.

I4.4 The Chief Minister may determine the process under which an application is reviewed, subject to the principles set out in subclause I4.5.

I4.5 The reviewer must have due regard to the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness and act as quickly as practicable consistent with a fair and proper consideration of the issues. This includes but is not limited to:

I4.5.1 fully informing the applicant of all relevant issues and providing access to all relevant documents; and I4.5.2 providing reasonable opportunity for the applicant to respond; and I4.5.3 advising the applicant of the applicant’s rights to representation.
I4.6 Notwithstanding subclause I4.5, the reviewer may recommend to the Chief Minister that an application should not be considered on any of the following grounds:

I4.6.1 the application concerns a decision or action that is excluded under subclause I2.1; or
I4.6.2 a period of twenty-eight calendar days has elapsed since the applicant was advised of the decision or action, except where extenuating circumstances exist; or
I4.6.3 the applicant has made an application regarding the decision or action to a court or tribunal, or where the reviewer believes it is more appropriate that such an application be made; or I4.6.4 the reviewer believes on reasonable grounds that the application:
   (a) is frivolous or vexatious; or
   (b) is misconceived or lacks substance; or
   (c) should not be heard for some other compelling reason.

I4.7 The Chief Minister must either confirm a recommendation made by the reviewer under subclause I4.6 that an application should not be considered or arrange for another reviewer to consider the application.

I4.8 The Chief Minister will inform the applicant in writing, within fourteen calendar days of the date of any decision under subclause I4.7, including, the reasons for any decision not to consider the application.

I4.9 If the reviewer does not make a recommendation under subclause I4.6, then the reviewer will conduct a procedural review on the papers to determine:

I4.9.1 whether it was open to the decision-maker to take the action that he or she did;
I4.9.2 whether the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice were complied with in taking the original action; and
I4.9.3 whether the final decision of the decision-maker was fair and equitable in all of the circumstances.

I4.10 The reviewer will be provided with all relevant information and evidence that was available to the relevant decision-maker in the making of the original decision or in taking the original action. To ensure efficiency and timeliness, the reviewer should not undertake to collect the same information or new evidence which was not available at the time the original action or decision was made.

I4.11 If the reviewer is of the view that there is doubt over the veracity and/or validity of the information or evidence or processes used in making the initial decision or action, or that significant information or evidence was not considered in the making of the original decision or action, the reviewer will inform the Chief Minister of that doubt and the reasons for it in the written report in accordance with subclause I4.12.

I4.12 After reviewing any action or decision the reviewer will make a written report to the Chief Minister recommending that:

I4.12.1 the original decision/action be confirmed; or I4.12.2 the original decision/action be varied; or I4.12.3 other action be taken.

I4.13 A copy of the report under subclause I4.12 will be provided to the applicant and the applicant will be given the opportunity to provide a response.
I4.14 The applicant may respond to any aspects of the report. Such a response must be in writing and be provided to the Chief Minister within fourteen calendar days of the applicant receiving the report.

I4.15 Upon receiving the report from the reviewer, the Chief Minister will inform the relevant Member in writing, within fourteen calendar days, of the recommendations under subclause I4.12.

I4.16 The relevant Member, after considering the report from the reviewer, and any response from the applicant to the report of the reviewer, may:
   I4.16.1 confirm the original action; or I4.16.2 vary the original action; or
   I4.16.3 take any other action the Member believes is reasonable.

I4.17 The relevant Member will inform the applicant, and the Chief Minister, in writing, within fourteen calendar days of the date of any decision under subclause I4.16, including the reasons for the action.

I5 Right of External Review

I5.1 The applicant, or the applicant’s union or other employee representative on the applicant’s behalf, may seek a review of a decision or action under subclause I4.16 by an external tribunal or body, including the FWC.

I5.2 The FWC will be empowered to resolve the matter in accordance with the powers and functions set out in clause G6 - of this Agreement. The decision of the FWC will be binding, subject to any rights of appeal against the decision to a Full Bench of the FWC in accordance with subclause G6.15.

Payment on Leave

The allowance is payable during:
(a) long service leave, paid birth or primary care giver’s leave or annual leave;
(b) paid personal leave or other leave with pay for up to one month.

Where leave is on reduced pay, or without pay, the allowance must be proportionately reduced or withdrawn accordingly. The allowance is included in salary for payment in lieu of long service leave and annual leave.

Notes

1. The above rates will be paid in full to part-time employees
2. Where the qualification of an employee who is in receipt of the allowance is no longer current, the relevant corporate area may allow a short period to allow for re-qualification.

3. The relevant corporate area may reimburse fees for renewal of qualification and/or relevant courses incurred by an employee who is eligible to be paid a First Aid allowance.

4. Where an employee holds more than one First Aid qualification, the employee will be paid an allowance only for the qualification which attracts the higher payment.

5. The allowance must not be included in salary for overtime or penalty payments.

6. Where an employee who normally undertakes First Aid functions is absent and another employee who is qualified in First Aid undertakes all the duties for which the allowance is paid, the relieving employee is entitled to be paid the allowance appropriate to that employee’s qualifications.

3. Where assessment in a language is not offered by NAATI, the relevant corporate area may approve assessment by another individual or body that has the necessary expertise to assess the language skills and has sufficient knowledge of NAATI levels and competencies required to determine the appropriate rate of allowance.

4. The relevant corporate area should arrange accreditation testing, and pay associated fees.

5. Until such time as recognition by NAATI, or an alternative provider, is available, the relevant corporate area may approve the payment at Level 1 to an employee on certification of the employee’s supervisor.

6. The allowance may be paid from the date of an employee’s application for payment, or from the date at which the relevant corporate area determines the need for the language is demonstrated.

7. Payment of the allowance should be reviewed annually, or whenever the employment status of a recipient changes (e.g. upon the recipient’s promotion or temporary transfer). Such reviews should address whether there is a continuing need for communication in a language other than English.

Notes

1. The amount of the allowance is to be reduced by the amount of any Isolated Establishments (or equivalent) allowance that is payable. If the amount of any Isolated Establishments (or equivalent) allowance payable exceeds the amount of motor vehicle allowance that would otherwise be payable, then no motor vehicle allowance may be authorised.

2. If an employee satisfies the relevant corporate area that the allowance is insufficient to meet the amount of the expenses reasonably incurred and paid by the employee in using a motor vehicle for official purposes, the relevant corporate area may grant an additional allowance equal to the amount by which those expenses exceed the amount of the allowance or allowances.

3. If, as a consequence of using a motor vehicle an employee is required to pay a higher insurance premium than would otherwise be the case, they are entitled to be reimbursed the additional cost.
