Territory and Municipal Services

Dear :

Freedom of information request

I refer to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (the FOI Act) received on 14 March 2013, in which you sought access to documents held by the Territory and Municipal Services Directorate in relation to the decision to reduce the speed limit on William Hovell Drive, Belconnen from 90 kilometres per hour to 80 kilometres per hour.

Decision

I am an officer authorised under section 22 of the FOI Act to make a decision in relation to your request.

Seven documents have been located within the scope of your request. I have decided to release the documents in full to you. It should be noted that documents 1-6 include material outside the scope of your request but I have decided to release this material to you to provide the proper context of what is being discussed. The documents contain information about the various road projects that will be carried out as part of the Black Spot Program. To assist you, I have included a schedule of documents at Attachment A.

Fees and charges

Freedom of information requests attract fees and charges for time spent searching and retrieving documents, decision-making time and photocopying. In relation to your request, no fee is payable as the time spent processing your request, and the number of documents released were within the fee-free threshold.

Right of review

If you are dissatisfied with my decision, you have the right to seek an internal review. If you wish to seek an internal review you should write to:

The Director-General
Territory and Municipal Services Directorate
C/- Freedom of Information Officer
GPO Box 158
CANBERRA ACT 2601

You have 28 days from the date of the decision letter to seek a review of the outcome or such other period as the Director-General permits.

ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal

If you are still dissatisfied after the directorate has conducted an internal review, you can seek an independent review of the decision by the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal. You have 28 days from the date of the internal review decision to seek a review from the Tribunal.

The Tribunal is an independent body. It can agree with, change or reject the original decision, substitute its own decision or send the matter back to the decision maker for reconsideration in accordance with Tribunal recommendations.

To apply to the Tribunal for a review you can obtain an application form from the Tribunal (www.acat.act.gov.au). The postal address of the Tribunal is:

ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal
GPO Box 370
CANBERRA ACT 2601

Ombudsman

You also have the right to complain to the Ombudsman about the processing of your request. If you wish to lodge a complaint you should write to:

The ACT Ombudsman
GPO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601

Further information

If you have any questions in relation to your request please contact the Directorate's FOI Coordinator on 6205 5408 or tamsfoi@act.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
