Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

I refer to your application under the ACT Freedom of Information Act 1989 (the Act), received by the Justice and Community Safety Directorate on 1 January 2015, in which you sought access to documents relating to the speed measuring device located at the intersection of Hindmarsh Drive and Ball Street, Woden.

I am the officer authorised under section 22 of the Act to make a decision in relation to your request.

On 30 January 2015, the Office of Regulatory Services wrote to you informing you that some of the documents relevant to your request were subject to third party consultation processes in accordance with section 27 and section 27A of the Act. Submissions regarding the release of these documents have since been received.

I have decided to partially release these documents to you, with exemptions, in accordance with section 41(1) and section 43(1) of the Act. Please see the attached schedule detailing the documents being released to you.

Section 41(1) of the Act details that information may be exempt from release if its disclosure under the Act would unreasonably release personal information.

Section 43(1) of the Act details that information may be exempt from release if its disclosure under the Act would unreasonably affect business affairs.

I have also assessed your request for information under the ACT Government's Online Freedom of Information Publication Policy and have determined that the documents relevant to your request that have been released to you, not including your original application, will be published online. For more information about the ACT Government's Online Freedom of Information Publication Policy, visit http://www.cmd.act.gov.au/open_government/report/freedom_of_information_online

You have the right to seek a review of this outcome under section 59 of the Act within 28 days from the date of this letter, or such other period as the Director-General permits. This right of review extends to a review of the adequacy of the search for documents undertaken by the Directorate. If you wish to seek a review you should write to:

The Director-General
ACT Justice and Community Safety Directorate
C/- Freedom of Information Officer
GPO Box 158
CANBERRA ACT 2601

You also have the right to complain to the Ombudsman about the processing of your request. If you wish to lodge a complaint you should write to:

The Ombudsman
GPO Box 442
CANBERRA ACT 2601

If you have any queries concerning this Directorate's processing of your request, or would like further information, please contact the FOI Contact Officer, Dylan McGee on (02) 6207 2492.

Yours sincerely,

David Snowden
