ACT PUBLIC SECTOR CANBERRA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2023-2026

State and Territory government administration

DEPUTY PRESIDENT DEAN

CANBERRA, 31 OCTOBER 2023

Application for approval of the ACT Public Sector Canberra Institute of Technology Enterprise Agreement 2023-2026.

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the ACT Public Sector Canberra Institute of Technology Enterprise Agreement 2023-2026 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act). It has been made by Canberra Institute of Technology (Employer). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[3] I note that the provisions at clause D5.14 of the Agreement concerning deduction from pay are likely to be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards (NES). However, noting clause A5.4 of the Agreement, I am satisfied the more beneficial entitlements of the NES will prevail where there is an inconsistency between the Agreement and the NES.

[4] The “Automotive, Food, Metals, Engineering, Printing and Kindred Industries Union” known as the Australian Manufacturing Workers’ Union (AMWU), CPSU, the Community and Public Sector Union and the United Workers’ Union, being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have given notice under section 183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover their organisation. In accordance with subsection 201(2) of the Act, I note that the Agreement covers the organisations.

[5] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 7 November 2023. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 31 March 2026.

Section A Scope of Agreement

A1 - Title

- A1.1 This Agreement, made under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009, will be known as the ACT Public Sector Canberra Institute of Technology Enterprise Agreement 2023-2026.

A2 - Main Purpose

- A2.1 The main purpose of this Agreement is to provide for common terms and conditions that apply across the Australian Capital Territory Public Sector (ACTPS) and terms and conditions that reflect the operational and business requirements of the Canberra Institute of Technology (CIT).

Retaining our people

- A2.2 In order to promote permanent employment and job security for employees, CIT will endeavour to minimise the use of temporary and casual employment.
- A2.3 CIT agrees to the use of temporary employees only where there is no officer available with the expertise, skills or qualifications required for the duties to be performed or the assistance of a temporary nature is required for the performance of urgent or specialised work within CIT and it is not practical in the circumstances to use the services of an existing officer.
- A2.4 Casual employment may be utilised to meet short-term work demands or specialist skill requirements which are not continuing and would not be anticipated to be met by existing employee levels. Casual employment must not be utilised for the purpose of undermining the job security of temporary and permanent employees.
- A2.5 In respect of casual employment, a conversion to full-time or part-time permanent employment will be considered in accordance with the ACT Government's Secure Workforce Conversion Process where: regular and systematic patterns of work have existed in the 6 month period prior to the employee's 12 month anniversary; and where there is a reasonable expectation that such arrangements can continue, on a part-time or full-time permanent basis without significant changes.
- Note: This is in addition to the FW Act right to request conversion.
- A2.6 The ACTPS will continue to consult with unions and employees on the development of strategies and initiatives that may assist in the successful recruitment and retention of mature age employees. Such strategies and initiatives will be the subject of discussion and agreement between the employee and the chief executive.
- A2.7 These strategies and initiatives may include any of the following:
- A2.7.1 Developing flexible working arrangements, such as variable employment, part-year employment, job sharing and purchased leave.
 - A2.7.2 Planning phased retirement arrangements for individual mature age employees who are considering retirement within 4 to 5 years, including through reducing the employee's management or higher level responsibilities during a phased retirement period.
 - A2.7.3 Examining the implications of current superannuation legislation for using such flexible employment and working arrangements and informing affected employees how such implications may be addressed.

- A2.7.4 Arranging training to assist the employee in any changing roles the employee may have as part of the employee's phased retirement.
- A2.7.5 Developing arrangements to facilitate the return of former mature age employees, including by engaging such persons for a short period in a mentoring capacity.
- A2.7.6 At the discretion of the chief executive, contributing to the cost to an employee of financial advice received as part of planning for a phased retirement period.

Attracting future employees

- A2.8 The CIT will consult with the union(s) through the CIT Consultative Committee (CITCC) to develop strategies to assist in attracting and retaining suitable employees. This will involve development of appropriate strategies and processes, including the conduct of surveys of staff, to assist this objective.

Developing our people

- A2.9 The ACTPS will consult and agree with the union(s) on the development and finalisation of Learning and Development Plans and on the annual key learning and development priorities. The ACTPS and the union(s) will also agree on the equitable use of resources to address these priorities and strategies appropriate for the different categories of employees. For the purposes of this clause, "resources" includes, but is not limited to, employees, time, funding (where required) and equipment.
- A2.10 This Agreement supports a performance culture within CIT that promotes ethical workplace conduct and rewards employees for their contribution towards the achievement of CIT's objectives.
- A2.11 It is acknowledged that performance management is important to employee development and to ensuring that the relationship between corporate, team and individual responsibilities is aligned to individual, team and organisational objectives.
- A2.12 Any performance management schemes in CIT will not include performance pay and will not be used for disciplinary purposes.

Recognising our people

- A2.13 CIT is committed to achieving an environment where employees feel valued for the contribution they make to achieving organisational goals. The most effective form of recognition is timely and appropriate feedback. CIT will consult with the union(s) on other effective ways of recognising and rewarding the achievement of individuals and work groups.
- A2.14 Any outcomes of this consultation will only be implemented by agreement of CIT and the union(s).

Ensuring fairness

- A2.15 CIT recognises and encourages the contribution that people with diverse backgrounds, experiences and skills can make to the workplace. CIT aims to ensure that this diversity is able to contribute to effective decision making and delivery of client service.
- A2.16 CIT will work with employees to prevent and eliminate discrimination on the basis of sex, sexuality, gender identity, relationship status, status as a parent or carer, pregnancy, breastfeeding, race, religious or political conviction, disability, industrial activity, age, profession, trade, occupation or calling, association, or a spent conviction, in accordance with the Discrimination Act 1991.

Achieving a better work and life balance

- A2.17 CIT is committed to providing employees with a work-life balance that recognises the family and other personal commitments of employees.
- A2.18 CIT acknowledges the commitment and responsibilities that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees have to their community, and that Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander identity is not left at the door when entering the workplace. CIT recognises that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees have the capacity to make a unique and important contribution and bring a strength to the operations of the Australian Capital Territory and Public Sector.
- A2.19 This Enterprise Agreement provides a number of entitlements specific to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees in recognition of their community and cultural responsibilities, and in this statement expressly recognises the roles that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees may be required to undertake as part of their community. Involvement in community is an on-going function for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and is not tied to 'office hours'.
- A2.20 It is recognised that commitment to community can result in expectations being placed on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees that may not be expected of other employees, and that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees may be culturally bound to the performance of specific functions for their community. It is also recognised that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees may be impacted in their lives by a variety and accumulation of cultural factors.
- A2.21 Within and subject to operational requirements, supervisors and managers should seek to work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees to support utilising the appropriate entitlements contained in this Agreement and achieve an appropriate balance between cultural and community responsibilities, and workplace duties.

Promoting a healthy and safe working environment

- A2.22 CIT is committed to promoting, achieving and maintaining the highest levels of health and safety for all employees.
- A2.23 CIT is committed to facilitating workforce participation at a level that meets the needs of each individual and accounts for their particular circumstances.
- A2.24 CIT will take all reasonable steps and precautions to provide a healthy, safe and secure workplace for the employee. The ACTPS and all employees will act in a manner that is consistent with the Work Health and Safety Act (WHS Act).
- A2.25 Further, given the clear evidence of the benefits and cost effectiveness of workplace health initiatives for both employers and employees, the ACTPS will develop health and wellbeing policies and programs that promote healthy lifestyles and help maintain a high standard of physical and mental health, along with supporting individual workplace safety and general wellbeing. Such policies and programs may include any of the following:

 - A2.25.2 Awareness, training and education programs that promote healthy lifestyles, assist employees to identify and reduce risk factors.

- Note: This is in addition to the FW Act right to request conversion.
- B7.2 Having considered the request the manager or supervisor must respond in writing, giving reasons, within a 6 week timeframe.
- B7.3 To avoid doubt, decisions stemming from such reviews are subject to the application of selection and appointment processes applying in the ACTPS. - B8.5 Prior to making decisions about matters covered by this clause, appropriate consultation must be undertaken with relevant employees and unions in accordance with clause F1 - of this Agreement.

B9 - Secure Workforce Conversion Process

- B9.1 The ACTPS is committed to promoting permanent employment and job security for employees within the ACTPS.
- B9.2 For the purposes of giving effect to this commitment, which is further outlined in this Agreement, including at subclauses A2.2 to A2.5, a Joint Union and ACT Government Secure Workforce Conversion Process has been established by the ACT Government. The Secure Workforce Conversion Process delivers important outcomes regarding secure work for temporary and casual employees.
- B9.3 In accordance with subclauses A2.2 to A2.5, assessments will occur through the Secure Workforce Conversion Process which will facilitate recommendations to the chief executive as to whether a position, or group of positions, or a temporary or casual employee, should be converted to permanency. Where such a recommendation has been made, the chief executive will endeavour to convert the position(s) or employee(s) to permanent employment. The chief executive may appoint the employee(s) currently in the relevant positions without a further merit selection process, if the chief executive is satisfied that the relevant employee(s) meets the requirements of the proposed position and the criteria of the secure work conversion process.
- B9.4 Where the Secure Workforce Conversion Process has made a recommendation to the chief executive that a position or group of positions, or an employee with temporary or casual employment should be converted to permanency and the chief executive decides not to appoint the relevant employee(s) in accordance with subclause B9.3, the chief executive must provide written reasons for their decision.

- B11.1 CIT is committed to providing flexible working arrangements which allow employees to manage their work and personal commitments. This must be balanced against the operational requirements for CIT to deliver services to the Canberra community.
- B11.2 CIT recognises the need to provide sufficient support and flexibility at the workplace to assist employees in achieving work and life balance and to meet their caring responsibilities. While family friendly initiatives are important aspects of work and life balance, it is also important that all employees, at all stages in their working lives, are supported through this Agreement.

This subclause should be read in conjunction with subclause B18.4 and clause E24 -.
- B12.2 Managers, supervisors and employees have a responsibility to minimise the extent to which excessive hours are worked. - B12.3 Complying with clause B12.2 requires the manager or supervisor to consider and implement one or more of the following strategies to reduce the amount of excessive hours being accumulated:

B14.6 A casual employee is eligible for payment of overtime in respect of all hours worked in excess of either 7 hours and 21 minutes or 7 hours and 36 minutes, as applicable, on any day or shift.

- B15.11 The day in lieu provided for in subclause B15.10 must be granted within one month after the holiday, if practicable.
- B15.12 If it is not practicable to grant a day's leave in lieu in accordance with subclause B15.11, the employee will be paid one day's pay at the ordinary hourly rate of pay.
- B15.13 The day's leave in lieu of a public holiday occurring on a rostered day off provided under subclause B15.10, or the day's pay provided under subclause B15.12, is equivalent to the ordinary hours the employee would have worked had the employee been rostered to work on the public holiday, provided that the employee is not otherwise being compensated for the public holiday by any of the following:

- B15.16 The term 'meal break' does not require the employee to partake of a meal during the break period.

ADOs must be approved by the manager or supervisor if they consider the approval will not affect operational requirements. - B16.3 Accrual towards an ADO does not occur when an employee is on any form of leave with the exception of annual leave, paid personal leave and compassionate leave.
- B16.4 ADOs will not be taken in advance and must only be taken when the equivalent time has been accrued.
- B16.5 An employee may bank a maximum of 6 ADOs with the approval of the employee's manager or supervisor.

Each day or shift of paid annual leave, paid personal leave or paid compassionate leave taken during the cycle of shifts will therefore be regarded as a day worked for accrual towards an ADO.
- B16.7 Where an employee, who has accrued credit towards an ADO, ceases employment with CIT and it is not practical for the employee to utilise that credit, the employee will have the accrued ADO credit paid on separation. The rate at which any unused ADO credit will be paid is the rate of pay, including any applicable higher duties allowance, that is in effect on the date of separation.

B17 - Hours of Work for Non-Shift Workers*

- B17.9 At the request of an employee and with the agreement of the chief executive, the employee may work outside the span of hours stipulated at subclause B17.7. This provision is designed to add flexibility and is not to be used to replace normal overtime provisions.
- B17.9.1 Where an employee requests to work outside the span of hours in accordance with subclause B17.9, these hours are considered normal hours of duty and do not attract overtime payments or time off in lieu provisions on an hour for hour basis, unless otherwise agreed between the employee and the chief executive prior to the work being performed.

Non-shift workers – operational service hours for work areas

- B17.10 Starting and finishing times within the span of hours are to be determined for individual work areas by the chief executive based on operational needs.

- B17.20 An employee who works up to 6 hours in a day may, with the agreement of the manager or supervisor, work up to 6 hours without a meal break to accommodate the employee's personal circumstances and work-life balance.

B18 - Flextime

- B18.1 Flextime provides the framework for an employee's pattern of attendance at work to be varied according to the needs of the employee and the requirements of the work unit. It is not a system that is designed to increase or reduce the total number of hours that must be worked. Flextime is a system that operates on an honesty and trust basis, where an employee and manager must ensure the employee's hours of work are accurately recorded on a timesheet.
- B18.2 Flextime arrangements must be in accordance with operational service requirements and work health and safety principles.

- B18.3 Flextime is not available to any of the following:
- B18.3.1 Casual employees.
 - B18.3.2 Shift workers whose hours of work are provided for in clause B15 -.
 - B18.3.3 Employees who are entitled to accrued days off in accordance with subclause B16 -.
 - B18.3.4 Employees who are entitled to recovery leave in accordance with clause E24 -.
- B18.4 For flextime arrangements to work effectively, managers and employees have a responsibility to manage hours of work to ensure that individuals are not building up excessive flex credits while either of the following apply:
- B18.4.1 The employee does not have the opportunity to access flextime accrued.
 - B18.4.2 The employee is not being productively employed i.e. the chief executive may require an employee not to accumulate flex credits before or after their operational service hours where there is insufficient work or an employee cannot be sufficiently managed.
- B18.5 A settlement period comprises 2 pay periods (i.e. 4 weeks).
- B18.6 An employee may have a maximum flextime credit equal to the employee's normal weekly hours of duty, at the end of the settlement period. This may be varied by agreement between the chief executive and the employee in exceptional circumstances.
- B18.7 Where an employee has a flextime credit in excess of the employee's normal weekly hours of duty for more than one settlement period, the employee and manager must agree and implement a flextime usage plan. This plan must ensure the flextime credit will not exceed the maximum flextime credit and will facilitate time off in the next settlement period, unless otherwise approved by the chief executive where there are exceptional circumstances.
- B18.8 If an employee does not agree to a reasonable flextime usage plan, the chief executive may direct an employee to take enough flextime to reduce the accrued flextime credits to the equivalent of the employee's maximum flextime credit.
- B18.9 Flextime credits of up to an employee's normal weekly hours will be paid out to an employee on the cessation of their employment. Flextime credits of up to an employee's ordinary weekly hours will be paid out at any time during the course of a person's employment and only in exceptional circumstances with chief executive approval.
- B18.10 The maximum flextime debit that may accrue is 10 hours measured at the end of any settlement period. Part-time employees may accrue a flex debit on a pro rata basis. At the end of a settlement period, any debit in excess of the maximum debit may be considered to be leave without pay, and the manager and employee must agree and implement a plan to do both of the following:
- B18.10.1 Prevent any further debit accruing.
 - B18.10.2 Reach a zero flextime balance.
- B18.11 If an employee does not agree to a reasonable plan and reduce their flextime debit in accordance with B18.10, the chief executive may commence overpayment processes in accordance with clause D5 -. The maximum flextime debit may be varied in exceptional circumstances by agreement between the chief executive and the employee.
- B18.12 Any flextime debits an employee has if the employee ceases employment with CIT will be treated as a debt in accordance with clause D5 -. The employee may nominate to use any available annual leave credits to cover the debt, or the debt will be recovered from any termination payment owing to the employee, except in the case of death.

B18.13 Accrued flextime credits will be taken at such times and in such a period or periods as are agreed between the employee and the chief executive and approved prior to taking accrued flextime. It is the responsibility of both the employee and the chief executive to take steps to ensure that accrued flextime credits can be taken as time off, in accordance with this clause. Approval of a request by the employee to utilise flextime credits will not unreasonably be withheld.

B18.14 An employee not complying with these flextime provisions may be directed by the chief executive to work operational service hours. This arrangement must be reviewed no less than every 90 calendar days to assess if a return to flextime arrangement is suitable.

Variation to part-time hours

- B21.6 Proposals to vary a part-time employment arrangement may be initiated by the chief executive for operational reasons or by an officer for personal reasons.

- B21.8 The chief executive must obtain the written agreement of the officer before the officer's hours are varied.
- B21.9 No pressure is to be exerted on an officer to vary the officer's hours of employment or to transfer to another position to make way for part-time employment.

B24 - Home Based Work*

This clause is amended by clause M4 (Home Based Work).

- B24.5 An employee may terminate home-based work arrangements at any time by giving reasonable notice to the chief executive.
- B24.6 There may also be occasions where it is appropriate for an employee to work from home on an ad hoc basis. In these circumstances, arrangements to work from home are to be negotiated on a case-by-case basis between the employee and the manager or supervisor.
- B24.7 CIT must provide home computing facilities where an employee and the employee's manager or supervisor agree there is a need for such facilities. Provision of equipment by CIT is subject to work health and safety requirements and to an assessment of technical needs by the manager or supervisor.

B25 - Employee Assistance Program

The chief executive must make a payment to the employee of $52.00 per day towards the cost of each school child enrolled in an accredited school holiday program for each calendar year subject to all the following conditions:
- B26.1.1 The maximum payable per child over a 5-day period is $260.
 - B26.1.2 The maximum payable days per child per year is 10.
 - B26.1.3 The maximum number of children the benefit is payable for is 3.

- B26.4 The payment will be made regardless of the length of time the child is in the program each day, but it cannot exceed the actual cost incurred.
- B26.5 An employee whose domestic partner receives a similar benefit from the partner's employer is not eligible for the payment.

B27 - Family Care Costs

- B29.3 Despite the provision of section 27 of the PSM Act, a medically unfit employee may, by agreement with the employee, be transferred to any position within the employee's current skill level and experience, at either their substantive classification or equivalent classification. If the employee moves into an alternative classification stream, they may only be transferred to a classification that has a maximum salary which does not vary from the top increment of the employee's substantive classification by more than 10%, and penalties and allowances attached to the substantive position will not be taken into consideration in this calculation. Penalties and allowances may only continue to be paid where applicable in the new position. For clarity this provision allows transfer between alternate classification streams, but does not allow for the transfer of an officer to a higher classification within the same classification stream e.g. a SOG B transfer to a SOG A.
- B29.4 An employee must not be redeployed in accordance with subclause B29.3 unless there is no suitable vacant position at the employee's substantive classification within CIT.

- B30.3 In these circumstances, the employee is entitled to have their duties modified or to be transferred to an appropriate safe job for the stated period with no detriment to their current terms and conditions of employment.

Paid absence for 'no safe job' purposes

- B30.4 If the chief executive determines that an appropriate safe job is not available, and when the employee has completed 12 months of continuous service, the employee is entitled to take paid absence for 'no safe job' purposes for the stated period at a rate of payment that is the same rate as would be paid if the employee was granted personal leave. This period of paid absence counts as service for all purposes.
- B30.5 If the chief executive determines that an appropriate safe job is not available, and the employee has not completed 12 months of continuous service, the employee is entitled to take unpaid absence for 'no safe job' purposes. This period of absence does not count as service for any purposes but does not break continuity of service.
- B30.6 The employee's entitlements under this clause cease when the employee's pregnancy ends before the end of the stated period.

 - C6.3.6 An internal merit selection process will be used where the number of participants in the relevant entry level program potentially suitable for appointment or promotion on completion of the program exceeds the number of available permanent funded positions.

- C7.9 An officer receiving HDA is entitled to normal incremental progression for the officer's substantive position and the HDA position in accordance with C5 -.

- C20.3.1 Part-time and casual employees who satisfy the requirements for payment of an allowance that is not an expense-related allowance will receive the following amount of the allowance or payment prescribed in Annex C unless the contrary intention is stated for a specific allowance in Annex C:
- C20.3.1 (a) If the allowance is payable by the hour, shift or occasion – the full amount.
- C20.3.1 (b) If the allowance is payable by the day, week, fortnight or year – a prorated amount calculated according to the hours worked relative to full-time hours.
- C20.4 Allowances payable to casual employees under this Agreement are not subject to the loading prescribed in subclause B14.3.
- C20.5 Where an employee is in receipt of a shift penalty, any disability allowance the employee receives in accordance with Annex C, will not be included for the purpose of calculating the shift penalty.
- C20.6 Unless the contrary intention is specifically provided, an allowance payable on leave is also payable on payments in lieu of leave for credits of the same leave type in accordance with the FW Act.
- Note: this includes the 'cash out' of leave credits where available under this Agreement, and the payment of leave credits on separation from CIT.
- C20.7 The following allowances, detailed in Annex C, may apply to any CIT employee:
- C20.7.1 Overtime meal allowance
- C20.7.2 Advanced First aid allowance
- C20.7.3 Community language allowance
- C20.7.4 Corporate Citizens Allowance
- C20.7.5 Motor vehicle allowance.

Excess travel time

- C20.8 An employee who is travelling or on duty away from the employee's usual place of work will be paid for time necessarily spent in travel or on duty (exclusive of overtime duty) in excess of both the following:
- C20.8.1 The employee's usual hours of duty for the day.
- C20.8.2 The time necessarily spent travelling to and from home and the usual place of work.

Excess fares

- C20.13 An employee is entitled to the reimbursement of excess fares incurred by the employee performing duty temporarily at a place other than the employee's usual place of work, when the cost of travelling to and from the temporary place of work is greater than the cost of travelling to and from the employee's usual place of work.

- C20.14 In circumstances where an employee is directed, or requested and agrees, to perform the work of a classification that is different to their substantive classification and that other work attracts allowances which are not applicable to the employee's substantive classification, the chief executive may, at their discretion, authorise payment to the employee of an allowance from the other classification that relates to the performance of that other work.
- C20.15 For the sake of clarity, subclause C20.14 does not give rise to an employee having an entitlement to the payment of such other allowance. Rather, the purpose of subclause C20.14 is to provide a mechanism for the payment of an allowance in extenuating circumstances where the chief executive considers it is warranted.

Single with no dependants	$12,000
Additional payment per dependant (first 6 dependants)	$2,000

If, following such further submissions, or if no such submissions are made, the chief executive still does not have enough information to make an assessment on whether or not the review is warranted, the chief executive may refuse to undertake the review.

For clarification, the 104-week period includes separate shorter periods aggregating to 104 weeks, and does not need to be one continuous period.

- E4.9 On engagement under the PSM Act, employees who have prior service recognised for personal leave purposes will be credited with any personal leave balance accrued with the previous employer. On the employee's normal accrual date, the employee will then receive personal leave in accordance with subclause E4.10. Where the employee's personal leave prior to engagement with CIT was accrued on a progressive basis, rather than credited prospectively, the employee will also be credited with an amount of personal leave which is the difference between 3.6 weeks and any personal leave already accrued with the previous employer for their current accrual year.
- Note: For the purposes of this clause 'normal accrual date' means the accrual date with the previous employer as recognised as part of the prior service.
- E4.10 An additional credit of 3.6 weeks personal leave will be made on the anniversary of the employee's commencement during each year of service.
- E4.11 The accrual date for personal leave will be deferred by one day for every calendar day of unauthorised absence or leave without pay that does not count for service.

- E4.14 A short-term temporary employee subsequently appointed under the PSM Act prior to completing 12 months service will have their personal leave balance brought up to the equivalent of 3.6 weeks, less any personal leave with pay granted under subclause E4.3. For subsequent accruals that short-term temporary employee will receive personal leave on the same basis as an officer on the anniversary of the commencement of their employment.

Daily Accrual Implementation

- E4.15 Personal leave will move to daily accrual from 1 January 2024.
- E4.16 An employee's personal leave credit accrues daily according to the following formula:
Total hours of leave accrued per day = $(A \times B \times D) / C$, where:

E4.16.1 A = number of ordinary hours per week worked.

E4.16.2 B = one where the day counts as service or zero where the day does not count as service or is an unauthorised absence.

E4.16.3 C = number of calendar days in the year.

E4.16.4 D = number of weeks of personal leave an employee is entitled to a year.

E4.20 For permanent and long-term temporary employees, if the personal leave balance brought over from the previous employer, in accordance with subclause E4.19, is less than 3.6 weeks, the employee will be credited with the difference between 3.6 weeks and the balance brought over.

E4.21 For short-term temporary employees, if the personal leave balance brought over from the previous employer, in accordance with subclause E4.19, is less than 1.8 weeks, the employee will be credited with the difference between 1.8 weeks and the balance brought over.

Short-term temporary employees

E4.22 A short-term temporary employee will be credited with 1.8 weeks of personal leave on commencement. On each day of service thereafter, the employee will receive a credit based on the formula in subclause E4.16.

E4.23 After 12 months continuous service short-term temporary employees will receive 1.8 weeks of personal leave with pay.

E4.24 A short-term temporary employee subsequently appointed under the PSM Act within 12 months of commencement will be credited with an additional 1.8 weeks of personal leave.

Transition period for daily accrual implementation

E4.25 Current employees will transition from annual accrual to daily accrual of personal leave on the next accrual date for each employee within the transition year (1 January 2024 to 31 December 2024). When personal leave credits have been exhausted

E4.27 The chief executive may, for any reason including where personal leave credits have been exhausted, and subject to the production of documentary evidence, grant an employee a period of unpaid personal leave for personal illness or injury or for the care or support of a member of the employee's immediate family or household who is ill or injured or affected by an unexpected emergency. This is in addition to the entitlement to unpaid carer's leave that employees have under the NES.

NOTE: In such circumstances, alternative arrangements are also provided for at subclause E4.59.

- E4.28 Despite subclause E4.27, the chief executive may allow an employee, when the employee provides documentary evidence that the employee has a personal illness or injury, or needs to provide care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family or household, to anticipate up to a maximum of 1 week paid personal leave where all full pay personal leave credits are exhausted.
- E4.29 Any personal leave debits that an employee has at the time they cease employment with CIT will be treated as a debt in accordance with clause D5 -. The debt will be recovered from any termination payment owing to the employee, except in the case of death.
- E4.30 Temporary employees may be granted up to an aggregate of 20 days without pay in the first 12 months.
- E4.31 The chief executive may, in exceptional circumstances and subject to the production of documentary evidence, grant an employee an additional period of paid personal leave for personal illness or injury, or for the employee to provide care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family who is ill or injured. This leave may be at either full or half pay. Such leave will not be granted if the absence is due to a condition for which the employee is receiving compensation under the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988.

- E4.35 The chief executive may grant personal leave if they are satisfied there is sufficient cause, having considered any requested or required documentary evidence.
- E4.36 An employee must provide requested or required documentary evidence in a timely manner. To unduly withhold the provision of documentary evidence may result in the personal leave application not being approved for payment.
- E4.37 The chief executive must accept either of the following documentary evidence as proof of personal illness or injury or the need to care for or support a member of the employee's immediate family or household who is ill or injured or who is affected by an unexpected emergency:
 - E4.37.1 A certificate from a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional who is operating within their scope of practice.

E4.37.2 A statutory declaration made by the employee if it is not reasonably practicable for the employee to give the chief executive a certificate.

- E4.38 Unless otherwise approved by the chief executive, an employee may only access a maximum of 3 consecutive days of paid personal leave on each occasion up to an accumulated maximum of 7 days in any accrual year, without providing documentary evidence. Absences for personal leave without documentary evidence in excess of 3 consecutive days, or 7 days in any accrual year is without pay.
- E4.39 Up until daily accrual implementation subclause E4.38 will apply. Following daily accrual implementation the maximum days without a certificate will reset on the next accrual/transition date for the employee and apply for the remaining part of the calendar year. From 1 January 2025, unless otherwise approved by the chief executive, an employee may only access a maximum of 3 consecutive days of paid personal leave on each occasion up to an accumulated maximum of 7 days without providing documentary evidence. This will continue to reset on 1 January each year. Absences for personal leave without documentary evidence in excess of 3 consecutive days, or 7 days in any calendar year is without pay.
- E4.40 Notwithstanding subclause E4.38 the chief executive may, with reasonable cause, request the employee to provide a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner or registered health professional operating within their scope of practice or a statutory declaration for any absence from duty on personal leave at the time of notification of the absence.
- E4.41 Any personal leave without pay that goes beyond a maximum continuous period of combined paid and unpaid personal leave of 78 weeks does not count as service for any purpose.
- E4.42 For clarity, any other form of leave taken in lieu of unpaid personal leave that is intended to cover illness or injury will be considered as personal leave for the purpose of subclause E4.41.
- E4.43 The chief executive must approve an application for up to 5 days of personal leave for the purpose of bonding leave in accordance with subclause E18.4.
- E4.44 The chief executive may refer an employee for a medical examination by a nominated registered medical practitioner or registered health professional, or nominated panel of registered medical practitioners or registered health professionals, at any time for any of the following reasons:
- E4.44.1 The chief executive is concerned about the wellbeing of an employee and considers that the health of the employee is affecting, or has a reasonable expectation that it may affect, the employee's ability to adequately perform their duties.

 - E4.44.3 The employee has been absent on account of illness for a total of 13 weeks in any 26 week period.

E4.48 Any personal leave taken must be deducted from the employee's credit.

Effect on other entitlements

E4.49 Personal leave with pay counts as service for all purposes.

E4.50 Personal leave without pay, other than provided for at subclause E4.41, counts as service for all purposes.

E4.51 Where an employee is absent on paid personal leave and a public holiday for which the employee is entitled to be paid falls within that period of absence, both the following apply:

E4.51.1 The employee will be paid as a normal public holiday for that day.

E4.51.2 The public holiday will not be deducted from the employee's personal leave credits.

E4.52 Where the personal leave under subclause E4.51 is without pay both sides of the public holiday or Christmas shutdown period, the public holiday, or the Christmas shutdown period, will also be without pay.

E4.53 While personal leave is not deducted over the Christmas shutdown period, the Christmas shutdown does not break continuity of the period of absence in relation to the maximum period(s) of leave under subclause E4.41.

Interaction with other leave types

E4.54 This clause applies to an employee who suffers personal illness or injury, or provides care or support for a member of the employee's immediate family or household who is ill or injured or who is experiencing an unexpected emergency, for one day or longer while the employee is on one of the following types of leave:

- E7.33 Payment in lieu of annual leave is based on the employee's ordinary hourly rate of pay, including allowances that count for all purposes at the date of application. - F4.7.5 To email employees in their workplace to provide information to and seek feedback, subject to individual employees exercising a right to 'opt out'.
- F4.7.6 To consultation, and access to relevant information about the workplace and CIT, subject to privacy legislation and other relevant legislation.
- F4.7.7 To undertake their role as union representatives on workplace relations consultative committee(s).
- F4.7.8 To have reasonable access to CIT facilities (including internet and email facilities, meeting rooms, lunch rooms, tea rooms and other areas where employees meet) for the purpose of carrying out work as a delegate and consulting with members and other interested employees and the union.
- F4.7.9 To address new employees about union membership at the time they enter employment in their workplace.
- F4.7.10 To access appropriate training in workplace relations matters including training provided by a union in accordance with clause F5 -.
- F4.8 In exercising their rights under subclause F4.7, workplace delegates and unions must adhere to ACTPS policies and guidelines and consider operational issues and the likely effect on the efficient operation of CIT and the provision of services.

F5 - Attendance at Industrial Relations Courses and Seminars

- F5.1 For the purpose of assisting employees in gaining a better understanding of industrial relations issues relating to this Agreement, the chief executive must grant leave to employees to attend recognised short training courses or seminars subject to all of the following conditions:
 - F5.1.1 Operating requirements permit the granting of leave.
 - F5.1.2 The scope, content and level of the short courses will contribute to the better understanding of industrial relations issues.
 - F5.1.3 Leave granted under this clause is at full pay, not including shift and penalty payments or overtime.

F5.1.4 Each employee will not be granted more than 15 days or shifts leave in any calendar year.

F5.2 If the employee has applied for leave under subclause F5.1 and the chief executive rejected the application because of operational requirements, approval of any subsequent application for leave by the employee under subclause F5.1 must not be withheld unreasonably, provided that the employee gives the chief executive at least 14 days or shifts notice in writing.

F5.3 CIT must accept any short course conducted or accredited by a relevant employee organisation (for example union(s), the Australian Council of Trade Unions or the ACT Trades and Labour Council) as a course to which subclause F5.1 applies.

F5.4 Leave granted for this purpose counts as service for all purposes.

F6 - Dispute Avoidance and Settlement Procedures

F6.1 The objective of these procedures is the prevention and resolution of disputes about both of the following:

F6.1.1 Matters arising in the workplace, including disputes about the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement.

F6.1.2 The application of the NES.

F6.2 For the purposes of this clause, except where the contrary intention appears, the term 'parties' refers to 'parties to the dispute'.

F6.3 All persons covered by this Agreement agree to take reasonable internal steps to prevent, and explore all avenues to seek resolution of, disputes.

F6.4 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative, which may be a relevant union, for the purposes of the procedures of this clause.

F6.5 In the event there is a dispute, all the following processes apply.

F6.5.1 Where appropriate, the relevant employee or the employee's representative must discuss the matter with the employee's supervisor. Should the dispute not be resolved, it must proceed to the appropriate management level for resolution.

F6.6 In instances where the dispute remains unresolved, the next appropriate level of management, the employee, the union or other employee representative must be notified and a meeting be arranged at which a course of action for resolution of the dispute will be discussed.

F6.7 If the dispute remains unresolved after this procedure, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

F6.8 The FWC may deal with the dispute in the following 2 stages:

F6.8.1 The FWC must first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation.

F6.8.2 If the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at this first stage, the FWC may then do both the following:

F6.8.2 (a) Arbitrate the dispute.

F6.8.2 (b) Make a determination that is binding on the parties.

- F6.9 The FWC may exercise any powers it has under the FW Act as are necessary for the just resolution or determination of the dispute.
- F6.10 A person may be assisted and represented at any stage in the dispute process in the FWC on the same basis as applies to representation before the FWC under section 596 of the FW Act.
- F6.11 All persons involved in the proceedings under subclause F6.8 must participate in good faith.
- F6.12 Unless the parties agree to the contrary, the FWC must, in responding to the matter, have regard to whether a party has applied the procedures under this term and acted in good faith.
- F6.13 The parties agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this clause.
- F6.14 Notwithstanding subclause F6.13, any party may appeal a decision made by the FWC in accordance with the FW Act.
- F6.15 Despite the above, the parties may agree to submit the dispute to a body or person other than the FWC. Where the parties agree to submit the dispute to another body or person, all the following apply:
- F6.15.1 References to the FWC in the above provisions must be read as a reference to the agreed body or person.
 - F6.15.2 All obligations and requirements on the parties and other relevant persons under the provisions in this clause must be complied with unless the parties agree otherwise.
 - F6.15.3 The agreed body or person must deal with the dispute in a manner that is consistent with section 740 of the FW Act.
- F6.16 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using procedures in this clause the employee must do all of the following:
- F6.16.1 Continue to perform their work as they would normally unless they have a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to their health or safety.
 - F6.16.2 Comply with a direction given by the chief executive to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless any of the following apply:
 - F6.16.2 (a) The work is not safe.
 - F6.16.2 (b) Applicable work health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed.
 - F6.16.2 (c) The work is not appropriate for the employee to perform.
 - F6.16.2 (d) There are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
- F6.17 Any dispute formally commenced in accordance with F6.7 under the ACT Public Sector Canberra Institute of Technology Enterprise Agreement 2021-2022, but not concluded before the commencement of this Agreement, shall continue to be dealt with in accordance with the dispute settlement provisions in this Agreement. Any steps already taken in that process will be recognised and accepted by parties and the FWC as steps taken for the purpose of this clause.

F7 - Privatisation

- F7.1 In order to promote job security it is agreed that the privatisation of a government entity may only occur if all of the following apply:

- F7.1.1 The entity does not perform a role central to the functions of government.
 - F7.1.2 Disadvantaged groups would not be negatively affected by the privatisation.
 - F7.1.3 A social impact statement has been completed which indicates that there is a demonstrated public benefit from the sale.
- F7.2 In the event that privatisation of CIT or a service or services currently supplied by CIT is under consideration, consultation must occur on the implications for employees and CIT from these proposals.
- F7.3 Where such privatisation is under consideration, CIT must provide the necessary reasonable resources to develop an in-house bid and this bid must be prepared either off site or on site as determined by the chief executive and subject to consideration on equal terms to any other bid. An independent probity auditor must be appointed by the chief executive to oversee the assessment of the in-house bid.

Section G Workplace Values and Behaviours

G1 - Introduction

- G1.1 All employees have a common interest in ensuring that workplace behaviours are consistent with, and apply the values and general principles set out in Division 2.1 of the PSM Act and the ACT Public Service Code of Conduct and Signature Behaviours. This involves the development of an ethical and safe workplace in which all employees act responsibly and are accountable for their actions and decisions.
- G1.2 Behaviours that are not consistent with public sector values, principles and conduct including but not limited to bullying, harassment and discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated in ACTPS workplaces. It is recognised that bullying, harassment and discrimination in the workplace has both emotional and financial costs and that both systemic and individual instances of bullying and harassment are not acceptable.
- G1.3 The following provisions of Section G contain procedures for managing workplace behaviours that do not meet expected standards and management of misconduct.
- G1.4 These provisions for managing workplace behaviours and values promote the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.
- G1.5 Any misconduct, underperformance, internal review or appeal process under the previous enterprise agreement that is not completed as at the date of commencement of this enterprise agreement will be completed under the previous enterprise agreement. Any right of appeal from that process will also be set out in the previous enterprise agreement.
- G1.6 Noting that the provisions of this Section G are in identical terms to provisions (however described) of other ACTPS Enterprise Agreements: If an employee moves from one directorate or Agreement to another either on a permanent or temporary basis while a misconduct process is on foot, and irrespective of whether this Agreement or another ACTPS Enterprise Agreement applied to the employee at the time the misconduct process commenced, the misconduct process will continue and the employee is required to continue to participate in the process.
- G1.6.1 Any disciplinary action and sanction which is determined to be applied under clause G9 - will be applied to the employee in their new position, where the chief executive determines it is appropriate and necessary and having due regard to the nature of the misconduct and the changes in employment circumstances including any material bearing on the employee's duties and responsibilities in their new position.
- G1.7 If an employee's employment has ended with the ACTPS while a misconduct process is on foot, the public sector standards commissioner will do one of the following:
- G1.7.1 Determine to complete the misconduct process under Section G of this Agreement, including inviting the employee to participate in the process, such that the outcome of the process can be taken into account with any application by the employee to subsequently re-enter the ACTPS.
- G1.7.2 Determine to stay the misconduct process under Section G of this agreement, upon the employee's end of employment and communicate to the employee that the misconduct process may recommence if the employee subsequently re-enters, or seeks to re-enter, the service.
- G1.7.3 Determine to discontinue the matter.

- G1.8 Any disciplinary action and sanction which is determined as a consequence of a resumed misconduct process may be imposed on the employee in their new position in accordance with G1.6.1 or taken into account with any application by the employee to subsequently re-enter the ACTPS.

G2 - Preliminary Assessment

- G2.1 The preliminary assessment is a means of determining if there is a workplace issue, and the most appropriate way to resolve it. The preliminary assessment must be conducted expeditiously. The outcome should be focused on the workplace issue and an appropriate response that addresses the issue in context. The preferred approach whenever possible is to resolve the issues through a local and low level approach, and in a non-disciplinary way.
- G2.2 In cases where a workplace issue arises such as an allegation of inappropriate behaviour or alleged misconduct, the appropriate manager must undertake an assessment to determine whether the matter can be resolved locally or whether further action is required or not.
- G2.3 When undertaking an assessment, the nature, circumstances and context of the issue should be considered when forming the response.
- G2.4 The preliminary assessment may result in the following outcomes (this is not an exhaustive list):
- G2.4.1 If the manager is satisfied that no further action is necessary, no further action needs to be taken.
 - G2.4.2 If the manager is of the view that formal or informal counselling or other alternative remedial or restorative action is appropriate, the manager will implement that action.
 - G2.4.3 If the manager considers the issue related to performance issues, the manager may commence an underperformance process in accordance with H2 - (underperformance).
 - G2.4.4 If the manager determines that there are allegations of potential misconduct that require investigation, the manager will recommend to the relevant referral delegate that the matter should be referred in accordance with G2.8.
- G2.5 The manager may seek the assistance of an appropriate Human Resources adviser from within CIT or Professional Standards Unit, however the manager is responsible for undertaking the assessment unless an actual or perceived conflict of interest exists.
- G2.6 The assessment must be done in an expeditious manner and generally be limited to having discussions (either verbal or written) about the issue, with relevant employees, and, if requested, their representatives.
- G2.7 Although the principles of procedural fairness apply, this assessment is not a formal investigation (as this may occur after the assessment is undertaken) and is designed to enable a manager to quickly determine whether other action or formal investigation is needed or not to resolve the issues. The manager must communicate the outcomes to relevant employees and their representatives if any.
- G2.8 If the manager determines that the issue requires investigation the manager must recommend to the chief executive that the matter be investigated.
- G2.9 The chief executive may determine that no investigation is necessary where the employee admits to the alleged misconduct and the employee agrees that there is no need for an investigation. The employee must fully understand the misconduct they are admitting to and make an admission statement taken by the public sector standards commissioner.

- G2.10 Where an employee makes an admission in accordance with subclause G2.9 the public sector standards commissioner will provide the admission statement to the chief executive who will determine the appropriate outcome. This may include disciplinary action or sanction in accordance with clause G9 -. The chief executive must ensure that they have sufficient information concerning the nature and full circumstances of the misconduct, any mitigating factors, and details of the employee's prior service record and performance to enable a fair and reasonable determination under clause G9 - to be made.

G3 - Counselling

- G3.1 Counselling may happen outside of the preliminary assessment and misconduct processes. This is an opportunity for the employee and the manager to discuss possible causes and remedies for identified workplace problems. All parties have an obligation to participate in counselling in good faith.
- G3.2 Counselling can be conducted either informally through coaching and feedback or formally.
- G3.3 Informal counselling is a non-disciplinary method utilised to resolve a workplace issue. It should be used as a supportive, feedback type mechanism. Coaching and feedback should encourage and support the employee in understanding the requirements and expectations of a public servant in their role.
- G3.4 Formal counselling is counselling that an employee is required to participate in and is available as remedial action following the outcome of a preliminary process under clause G2 - . An employee may be directed to participate in formal counselling.
- G3.5 Where an employee refuses or fails to follow a direction to participate in formal counselling, the chief executive may refer the matter to the Public Sector Standards Commissioner for investigation.
- G3.6 Where the employee disagrees with a direction to participate in formal counselling, the employee may provide a written request to the chief executive seeking a formal investigation of the alleged inappropriate behaviour or alleged misconduct that required the formal counselling. Where a request is received, the chief executive must refer the matter to the Public Sector Standards Commissioner for review.
- G3.7 In cases where counselling is considered to be appropriate, the employee will be informed what the discussion will be about and be invited to have a support person, who may be the employee's union or other employee representative, present at the counselling and will allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged. The employee must be advised whether the counselling is considered a formal or informal process.
- G3.8 In the cases where the counselling is considered to be formal, the manager or the chief executive must create a formal record of the counselling which must include details about the ways in which the employee's conduct needs to change or improve, the time frames within which these changes or improvements must occur and may include a written direction about future expectations, standards and behaviours.
- G3.9 The record of formal counselling must be provided to the employee and the employee given an opportunity to correct any inaccuracies and provide comments before signing the record. The employee's signature is taken as representing their full agreement that the record accurately reflects the discussion. If the employee elects not to sign the record, then details of the offer and any reasons given for refusal must be clearly noted.

- G3.10 Where the manager or supervisor or the chief executive considers that the employee's conduct has not improved following informal or formal counselling, a misconduct process may be undertaken in relation to continued or subsequent behaviour, following a preliminary assessment being undertaken in accordance with clause G2 -.

G4 - Misconduct and Discipline

Objectives and application

- G4.1 This clause establishes procedures for managing misconduct or alleged misconduct by an employee.
- G4.2 This clause applies to all employees, except casual employees who are not eligible casual employees. In applying these procedures to officers on probation, temporary employees or eligible casual employees, the chief executive may determine that procedures and practices throughout clause G8 - and clause G9 - apply on a proportionate basis according to the circumstances of the case and in accordance with the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice.
- G4.2.1 If the process is to be applied on a proportionate basis in accordance with this subclause the content of that process, along with any estimated timeframes, must be communicated to the employee when the process commences.
- G4.3 The objective of these procedures is to encourage the practical and expeditious resolution of misconduct issues in the workplace.
- G4.4 All parties have an obligation to participate in misconduct processes in good faith.

What is misconduct

- G4.5 For the purposes of this section, misconduct includes any of the following:
- G4.5.1 The employee fails to meet the obligations set out in section 9 of the PSM Act.
- G4.5.2 The employee engages in conduct that the chief executive or the public sector standards commissioner is satisfied may bring, or has brought, CIT or the ACTPS into disrepute.
- G4.5.3 A period of unauthorised absence and the employee does not offer a satisfactory reason on return to work.
- G4.5.4 The employee is found guilty of, or is convicted of a criminal offence or where a court finds that an employee has committed an offence but a conviction is not recorded, taking into account the circumstances and seriousness of the offence, the duties of the employee and the interests of the ACTPS and CIT.
- G4.5.5 The employee fails to notify the chief executive of criminal charges in accordance with clause G10 -.
- G4.5.6 The employee makes a vexatious or knowingly false allegation against another employee.

What is serious misconduct

- G4.6 Serious misconduct means conduct that is so serious that it may be inconsistent with the continuation of the employee's employment with the Territory. Serious misconduct is defined within the Fair Work Regulations.

G5 - Dealing with Allegations of Misconduct

- G5.1 Upon becoming aware of a matter of alleged misconduct the chief executive must determine whether or not the matter needs to be investigated. Where the chief executive determines that investigation is required the chief executive must refer the matter to the public sector standards commissioner for investigation.
- G5.2 At any stage of dealing with alleged misconduct the chief executive may, in accordance with clause G6 - do any of the following:
- G5.2.1 Re-assign other duties to the employee.
 - G5.2.2 Transfer the employee to other duties.
 - G5.2.3 Suspend the employee with pay.
 - G5.2.4 Suspend the employee without pay where serious misconduct is alleged.
- G5.3 In considering the appropriate action under G5.2, the employer should give preference to retaining the employee in the workplace where possible.
- G5.4 Upon receiving a referral in accordance with subclause G5.1 the public sector standards commissioner must do one of the following:
- G5.4.1 Make arrangements for an appropriately trained or experienced person (the investigating officer) to investigate the alleged misconduct in accordance with clause G7 -
 - G5.4.2 Decline to investigate the matter, or any part of the matter, if the public sector standards commissioner decides that an investigation will not resolve the matter and refer it back to the chief executive for resolution or further consideration.
- G5.5 The public sector standards commissioner may determine that no investigation is necessary where the employee admits to the alleged misconduct and the employee agrees that there is no need for an investigation. The employee must fully understand the misconduct they are admitting to and have their admission statement taken by the public sector standards commissioner.
- G5.6 Where an employee makes an admission in accordance with subclause G5.5 the chief executive may determine the appropriate disciplinary action or sanction in accordance with clause G9 -. The chief executive must ensure that they have sufficient information concerning the nature and full circumstances of the misconduct, any mitigating factors, and details of the employee's prior service record and performance to enable a fair and reasonable determination under clause G9 - to be made.
- G5.7 The public sector standards commissioner may at any time decide to instigate an investigation of alleged misconduct, in the absence of a referral under subclause G5.1, if satisfied that the matter warrants investigation.

- G5.8 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the chief executive may summarily terminate the employment of an employee without notice for serious misconduct as defined within the Fair Work Regulations.

G6 - Reassignment, Transfer or Suspension

- G6.1 This clause applies to all employees.
- G6.2 In accordance with subclause G5.2 the chief executive may reassign, transfer or suspend an employee with or without pay where the chief executive is satisfied that the action taken is reasonable and it is in the public interest, the interests of the ACTPS or the interests of CIT to do so while the alleged misconduct is being dealt with.
- G6.3 Suspension with pay should only be considered where it is inappropriate for the employee to remain in their current position and reassignment of duties or transfer is not appropriate. Suspension without pay should only be considered where cases of serious misconduct is alleged in accordance with G5.2.
- G6.4 The requirements under subclauses G6.5, G6.6 and G6.11 also apply in circumstances where an employee has been reassigned or transferred with pay to other duties following an allegation of misconduct, to the extent that the employee is no better off financially than if they had not been reassigned or transferred.
- G6.5 The chief executive must not reassign, transfer or suspend an employee without first informing the employee of the reasons for the proposed reassignment, transfer or suspension and giving the employee the opportunity to be heard. Despite this, the chief executive may suspend an employee first and then give the employee the reasons for the suspension and an opportunity to be heard, where, in the chief executive's opinion, this is appropriate in the circumstances.
- G6.6 While suspended with pay an employee is paid in accordance with all of the following:
- G6.6.1 The employee's ordinary hourly rate of pay and any higher duties allowances that would have been paid to the employee for the period they would otherwise have been on duty.
 - G6.6.2 Overtime (but not overtime meal allowance) and shift penalty payments where there is a regular and consistent pattern of extra duty or shift work being performed over the previous 6 months which would have been expected to continue but for the suspension from duty.
 - G6.6.3 Any other allowance or payment (including under an Attraction and Retention Incentive entered into in accordance with Annex B to this Agreement) of a regular or on-going nature that is not conditional on performance of duties.
- G6.7 Where a decision is made to suspend an employee with pay, no appeal or internal review of that decision is available.
- G6.8 Unless the employee is on authorised leave an employee who is suspended must be available to attend work and participate in the disciplinary process within 48 hours of receiving notice.
- G6.9 Suspension without pay is usually only appropriate where serious misconduct is alleged or where the employee is charged with a criminal offence that would in the opinion of the chief executive be incompatible with the continuation of the employee's employment.
- G6.10 A period of suspension with or without pay must not be more than 30 calendar days unless exceptional circumstances apply.

- G6.11 If the period of suspension with or without pay extends beyond 30 calendar days as per subclause G6.10, the suspension should be reviewed every 30 calendar days unless the chief executive considers that, in the circumstances, a longer period is appropriate.
- G6.12 While suspended without pay all of the following apply:
- G6.12.1 The employee may apply to the chief executive for permission to seek alternate employment outside the ACTPS for the period of the suspension or until the permission is revoked. Any such permission given to the employee is granted on the condition that the employee remains available to attend work and participate in the disciplinary process as per subclause G6.8.
 - G6.12.2 In cases of demonstrated hardship, the chief executive may determine that the employee may cash out accrued long service leave and annual leave.
 - G6.12.3 The employee may apply to the chief executive for the suspension to be with pay on the grounds of demonstrated hardship.
- G6.13 An employee suspended without pay and who is later acquitted of the criminal offence (which is the subject of the allegation(s) of misconduct which caused the employee to be suspended), or is found not to have been guilty of the misconduct is entitled to both the following:
- G6.13.1 Repaid the amount by which the employee's pay was reduced.
 - G6.13.2 Credited with any period of long service or annual leave that was cashed out in accordance with paragraph G6.12.2.
- G6.14 Where an employee is suspended and later found guilty of a criminal offence (whether or not a conviction is recorded), or is found guilty of misconduct and whose employment is terminated because of the offence or misconduct, a period of suspension under this clause does not count as service for any purpose, unless the chief executive determines otherwise.

G7 - Investigations

- G7.1 The role of the investigating officer is to establish the facts of the allegations and to provide a report of those facts to the public sector standards commissioner.
- G7.2 The investigating officer must do all the following:
- G7.2.1 Inform the employee in writing of the particulars of the alleged misconduct, and details concerning the investigative process.
 - G7.2.2 Give the employee a reasonable opportunity to respond to allegations, which the employee may do in writing or at a scheduled interview or in a different manner as agreed with the investigating officer, before making a finding of fact.
 - G7.2.3 For written responses provide the timeframe for response which must be reasonable under the circumstances.
 - G7.2.4 If the response includes an interview, provide the employee with at least 24 hours written notice prior to conducting an interview, and advise the employee if the interview is to be recorded electronically.
 - G7.2.5 Advise the employee that the employee may have a second person present during the interview, who may be the employee's union representative or other individual acting as support person and must allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged; and provide a record of the interview to the employee.

- G7.2.6 Give the employee an opportunity to supplement the record of an interview with a written submission, if the employee so chooses.

- G7.2.8 Provide a written report to the public sector standards commissioner setting out the investigating officer's findings of fact.

- G7.4 The investigating officer's findings of fact must be made on the balance of probabilities.
- G7.5 The chief executive must provide access to relevant CIT information and communication technology (ICT) records including email, computer, work phone records, or building access logs in order for the public sector standards commissioner to establish the facts of the allegations.

G8 - Findings of misconduct

- G8.1 After considering the report from the investigating officer, the public sector standards commissioner must make a proposed determination on the balance of probabilities as to whether misconduct has occurred.
- G8.2 If the public sector standards commissioner determines that the misconduct has not occurred, the public sector standards commissioner must notify the employee of this finding and advise that no sanctions will be imposed.
- G8.3 If the public sector standards commissioner makes a proposed determination that misconduct has occurred, in accordance with subclause G8.1 the public sector standards commissioner must do all of the following:
 - G8.3.1 Advise the employee in writing of the proposed determination that misconduct has been found to have occurred.
 - G8.3.2 Provide written reasons for arriving at this proposed determination.
 - G8.3.3 Provide a copy of the investigation report unless this would be inappropriate in the circumstances.

- G8.4 After considering the employee's response or, if the employee has not responded, at any time after the period outlined in paragraph G8.3.4 has lapsed, the public sector standards commissioner must make a final determination as to whether or not misconduct has occurred and will do the following:
 - G8.4.1 Inform the employee in writing of the final determination of whether or not misconduct has occurred; and if the determination is that misconduct has occurred do both the following:

- G9.4 In relation to paragraph G9.2.3, if an employee's classification is reduced as a result of disciplinary action, service before the demotion is not counted towards an increment for any higher duties the employee performs after demotion.
- G9.5 Sanctions imposed under these procedures must be proportionate to the degree of misconduct concerned. In determining the appropriate sanction, all the following factors must be considered:
- G9.5.1 The nature and seriousness of the misconduct.
 - G9.5.2 The degree of relevance to the employee's duties or to the reputation of CIT or the ACTPS.
 - G9.5.3 The circumstances of the misconduct.

Section H Underperformance

H1 - Introduction

- H1.1 All employees have an obligation to exercise the functions of an office in accordance with the best practice principle. These responsibilities and standards are established in accordance with Division 2.1 of the PSM Act and the ACT Public Service Code of Conduct and Signature Behaviours.
- H1.2 These provisions for managing cases of unsatisfactory work performance promote the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.
- H1.3 Any underperformance under the previous enterprise agreement that is not completed as at the date of commencement of this enterprise agreement will be completed under the previous enterprise agreement. Any right of appeal from that process will also be set out in the previous enterprise agreement.

H2 - Underperformance

- H2.1 Under this clause, procedures are established for managing underperformance by an employee.
- H2.2 This clause applies to all employees, except casual employees who are not eligible casual employees. In applying these procedures to officers on probation, temporary employees, or eligible casual employees, the chief executive may determine that procedures and practices throughout this clause H2 - may be applied on a proportionate basis according to the circumstances of the case, and in accordance with the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice.
 - H2.2.1 If the process is to be applied on a proportionate basis in accordance with this subclause the content of that process, along with any estimated timeframes, must be communicated to the employee when the process commences.
- H2.3 The objectives of these procedures are to do both the following:
 - H2.3.1 Provide advice and support to an employee whose performance is below the standard required.
 - H2.3.2 Provide a fair, prompt and transparent framework for action to be taken where an employee continues to perform below expected standard.

Underperformance discussions

- H2.4 Consistent with good management practice, concerns about underperformance should be raised by the manager or supervisor with the employee at the time that the concerns arise or are identified. The manager or supervisor should offer advice and support to the employee to overcome these concerns. The manager or supervisor should inform the employee that the underperformance procedures in subclause H2.7 to subclause H2.20 might be invoked if the underperformance continues.
- H2.5 In order to ensure that these procedures operate in a fair and transparent manner, the manager or supervisor is responsible for documenting all relevant discussions. This includes making a record of all relevant discussions under this clause, to be signed by both the manager or supervisor and the employee. The employee must be given the opportunity to comment on any records before signing them. In circumstances where the employee refuses to sign such a record, the refusal must be noted on the relevant record.
- H2.6 All parties have an obligation to participate in underperformance processes in good faith.

Underperformance process

Step One: Action Plan

- H2.7 Where a manager or supervisor assesses that an employee's work performance is demonstrated as being below expected standards after having previously discussed concerns with the employee in line with subclause H2.4, the manager or supervisor must inform the employee in writing of this assessment and the reasons for it. The employee must be invited by the manager or supervisor to provide written comments on this assessment, including any reasons that in the employee's view may have contributed to their recent work performance.
- H2.8 After taking into account the comments from the employee, the manager or supervisor must prepare an action plan in consultation with the employee.
- H2.9 The manager or supervisor must invite the employee to have a support person, who may be the employee's union or other employee representative, present at discussions to develop the action plan and must allow reasonable opportunity for this to be arranged.
- H2.10 The action plan must provide all of the following:
- H2.10.1 Identify the expected standards of work required of the employee on an on-going basis.
 - H2.10.2 Identify any learning and development strategies that the employee should undertake.
 - H2.10.3 Outline the potential underperformance actions that may be taken if the employee does not meet the expected standards.
 - H2.10.4 Specify the action plan period, which should not normally be less than one month and should not exceed 6 months to allow the employee sufficient opportunity to achieve the expected standard.
 - H2.10.5 Specify the assessment criteria to be measured within the action plan period.
- H2.11 Any current performance agreement must be suspended during the period of the action plan. Any incremental advancement action for the employee must be suspended during the action plan period.

Step Two: Regular Assessment

- H2.12 During the action plan period, the manager or supervisor must make regular written assessments (desirably every fortnight) of the employee's work performance under the action plan. The employee must be given an opportunity to provide written comments on these assessments.
- H2.13 If the manager or supervisor considers that further assessment time is needed the manager or supervisor may extend the action plan period. However, the extended assessment time must not result in the action plan exceeding 6 months' duration. The manager or supervisor must inform the employee in writing of the decision to extend the assessment time and the duration of the action plan.

Step Three: Final Assessment Report

- H2.14 If at the end of the action plan period, the manager or supervisor assesses the work performance of the employee as satisfactory, no further action can be taken under these procedures at that time. The manager or supervisor must inform the employee in writing of this decision.

- H2.15 If at the end of the action plan period, the manager or supervisor assesses the work performance of the employee as not satisfactory, the manager or supervisor must provide a report including the assessment and reasons for the assessment to the chief executive.

Step Four: Underperformance Action

- H2.16 The chief executive must advise the employee in writing of all the following:
- H2.16.1 The assessment and reasons for the manager's or supervisor's assessment.
 - H2.16.2 The underperformance action(s) (subclause H2.17) proposed to be taken and the reasons for proposing this action.
 - H2.16.3 The employee's right to respond in writing to the proposed action within a period of not more than 7 calendar days.
- H2.17 At any time after 7 calendar days from the date the chief executive advised the employee under subclause H2.16, and after considering any response from the employee, the chief executive may decide to take one or more of the following underperformance actions:
- H2.17.1 Transfer the employee to other duties (at or below current pay).
 - H2.17.2 Defer the employee's incremental advancement.
 - H2.17.3 Reduce the employee's incremental point.
 - H2.17.4 Temporarily or permanently reduce the employee's classification and pay.
 - H2.17.5 Remove any benefit derived through an existing Attraction and Retention Incentive.
 - H2.17.6 Terminate the employee's employment.
- H2.18 If an employee's incremental point is reduced in accordance with paragraph H2.17.3, or the employee's classification is permanently reduced in accordance with paragraph H2.17.4 the date the sanction takes effect will become the new anniversary date for the purpose of future incremental advancement. Any higher duties worked prior to the date of sanction do not count towards incremental advancement at a higher level.
- H2.19 The chief executive must inform the employee in writing of the decision made under subclause H2.17, the reasons for the decision and the appeal mechanisms available under this Agreement.
- H2.20 At any time in these procedures, the employee may elect to be retired on the grounds of inefficiency.

H3 - Appeal Rights

- H3.1 The employee has the right under Section J to appeal any underperformance action taken under subclause H2.17, except action to terminate the employee's employment.
- H3.2 The employee may have an entitlement to bring an action under the FW Act in respect of any termination of employment under this Agreement. This is the sole right of review of such an action.

K3.1.4 Decisions to transfer, or not to transfer, an employee.

K3.1.5 Decisions under the PSM Standards to promote an officer after acting for a period of 12 months or more in a position above Administrative Services Officer Class 6 or equivalent classification.

K3.2 The findings of a review under this clause do not alter the outcome of the original decision, but may be used to inform similar processes conducted in the future, or address any failings on the part of employees involved in the process under review.

Initiating a review

K3.3 An officer ("the applicant" for the purposes of this section), or the applicant's union or other employee representative on the applicant's behalf, may initiate a review under these procedures by making an application to the chief executive in accordance with all of the following:

- K3.3.1 It is in writing.
- K3.3.2 It describes how the applicant believes the process was not conducted properly and provides reasons for this.
- K3.3.3 It is received by the chief executive within 14 calendar days of the employee being advised of the decision, or becoming aware of the decision.
- K3.3.4 It seeks to review a reviewable process as set out in subclause K3.1.

Conducting a process review

- K3.4 Subject to subclause K3.3 the chief executive must arrange for an application to be reviewed by an independent person (the reviewer) who may be one of the following:
 - K3.4.1 A suitably skilled person who was not involved in the original action.
 - K3.4.2 A person chosen from a panel of providers.
- K3.5 The independent reviewer must be provided with all relevant information and evidence that was available to the decision-maker in the making of the original decision.
- K3.6 The reviewer must make an assessment whether relevant processes contained in this Agreement, the PSM Act and PSM Standards were followed, and to what extent.
- K3.7 After reviewing the information and evidence provided under subclause K3.5, the independent reviewer must provide a report to the chief executive, which does one of the following:
 - K3.7.1 Confirms that the process was conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the PSM Act, and PSM Standards.
 - K3.7.2 Finds that there were deficiencies in the process. Such findings must be supported by reasons and the report may include recommendations for how similar processes may be conducted in future.

Section L Redeployment and Redundancy

L1 - Definitions

- L1.1 Excess officer means an officer who has been notified in writing by the chief executive that they are excess to CIT's requirements because one of the following applies:
- L1.1.1 The officer is included in a class of officers employed in CIT, which class comprises a greater number of officers than is necessary for the efficient and economical working of CIT.
 - L1.1.2 The services of the officer cannot be effectively used because of technological or other changes in the work methods of CIT or changes in the nature, extent or organisation of the functions of CIT.
- L1.2 Potentially excess officer means an officer who is formally notified they are likely to become an excess officer in a foreseeable space of time.

L2 - Application

- L2.1 CIT recognises the need to make the most effective use of the skills, abilities and qualifications of its officers in a changing environment. When positions become excess, CIT must seek to redeploy permanent officers within CIT or the ACTPS in order to avoid or minimise an excess officer situation. Should redeployment not be possible, voluntary redundancy, reduction in classification and involuntary redundancy must be considered in that order. Throughout these procedures CIT must, where practicable, take into consideration the personal and career aspirations and family responsibilities of affected officers.

L3 - Consultation

- L3.1 Where it appears to the chief executive that a position is likely to be either potentially excess or excess to CIT's requirements, and prior to any individual officer(s) being identified, the chief executive must, at the earliest practicable time, advise and discuss with the union(s), the following issues (as appropriate in each case):
- L3.1.1 The number and classification of officers in the part of CIT affected.
 - L3.1.2 The reasons an officer is or officers are likely to be excess to requirements.
 - L3.1.3 The method of identifying officers as excess, having regard to the efficient and economical working of CIT and the relative efficiency of officers.
 - L3.1.4 The number, classification, location and details of the officers likely to be excess.
 - L3.1.5 The number and classification of officers expected to be required for the performance of any continuing functions in the part of CIT affected.
 - L3.1.6 Measures that could be taken to remove or reduce the incidence of officers becoming excess.
 - L3.1.7 Redeployment prospects for the officers concerned.
 - L3.1.8 The appropriateness of using voluntary retirement.
 - L3.1.9 Whether it is appropriate for involuntary retirement to be used if necessary.
- L3.2 The discussions under subclause L3.1 must take place over such time as is reasonable, taking into account the complexity of the restructuring and need for potential excess officer situations to be resolved quickly and must comply with the consultation requirements of F1 -. Any use of involuntary redundancy must be agreed between the chief executive and the union(s) at this stage and must not be used without the written agreement of the chief executive and the union(s).

- L3.3 The chief executive must comply with the notification and consultation requirements for union(s) and Centrelink about terminations set out in the FW Act.
- L3.4 The chief executive must, at the first available opportunity, inform all officers likely to be affected by an excess staffing situation of the terms and operation of this section.
- L3.5 Where a redundancy situation affects a number of officers engaged in the same work at the same level, elections to be made voluntarily redundant may be invited.
- L3.6 Nothing in this Agreement prevents the chief executive inviting officers who are not in a redundancy situation to express interest in voluntary redundancy, where such redundancies would permit the redeployment of potentially excess and excess officers who do not wish to accept voluntary redundancy.

L4 - Notification

- L4.1 Except where a lesser period is agreed between the chief executive and the officer, the officer must not, within one month after the union(s) has been advised under subclause L3.1 be invited to volunteer for retirement nor be advised in writing in accordance with subclause L4.4 that the officer is excess to CIT's requirements.

Potentially excess officers

- L4.2 At the point where individual employees can be identified, the chief executive must advise the officer(s) that a position(s) is likely to become excess and that the employee may be affected. In that advice the officer(s) must also be advised that the officer may be represented by a union or other employee representative at subsequent discussions. The chief executive must discuss with the officer(s) and, where chosen, the union or other employee representative(s) the issues dealt with in paragraphs L3.1.1 through L3.1.9 (as appropriate in each case).
- L4.3 Potentially excess officers who have not been invited to be voluntarily retired, or who have declined to elect to be voluntarily retired, are subject to the redeployment provisions in clause L4.6.

Excess officers

- L4.4 Subject to subclause L4.1 the notification of an officer's excess status may only be given when the consultation required under clause L3 - and the consultation required under subclause L4.2 has taken place. Following such consultation, where the chief executive is aware that an officer is excess, the chief executive must advise the officer in writing.
- L4.5 An excess officer is subject to the redeployment provisions in subclause L4.6.
- L4.6 An excess officer who is offered a voluntary redundancy, but who does not accept the offer, is entitled to a 7 month retention period in accordance with paragraph L6.10.3.

L5 - Redeployment

- L5.1 Redeployment of potentially excess and excess officers must be in accordance with the officer's experience, ability and, as far as possible, the officer's career aspirations and wishes.

- L5.2 Once an officer has been notified that they are potentially excess or excess in accordance with subclause L4.2 and subclause L4.4 respectively, the officer must be registered by CIT on the redeployment register.
- L5.3 The chief executive must consider a potentially excess or excess officer from other ACT Public Service agencies in isolation for vacancies at the officer's substantive level.
- L5.4 An excess officer (or potentially excess) has absolute preference for transfer to positions at the officer's substantive level and must be considered in isolation from other applicants for any vacancy, which is to be advertised for permanent filling or for a temporary period of 6 months or more, within the ACTPS. For the purposes of this clause substantive level means the same classification or an alternative equivalent classification in another classification stream where the maximum pay does not exceed the top increment of the officer's current classification by more than 10%. For clarity this does not allow for the transfer of an officer within the same classification stream e.g a SOG B to transfer to a SOG A.
- L5.5 Under this clause an excess officer must be given preference over a potentially excess officer.
- L5.6 An excess officer need only be found suitable, or suitable within a reasonable time (generally 3 to 6 months) to be transferred to a position in accordance with subclause L5.4.
- L5.7 The chief executive must make every effort to facilitate the placement of an excess officer, within the service.
- L5.8 The chief executive must arrange reasonable training that would assist the excess officer's prospects for redeployment.
- L5.9 The chief executive must provide appropriate internal assistance and career counselling and assist as necessary with the preparation of job applications.

L6 - Voluntary Redundancy

- L6.1 Subject to subclause L4.1, at the completion of the discussions in accordance with clause L3 -, the chief executive may invite officers to elect to be made voluntarily redundant under this clause.
- L6.2 Where the chief executive invites an officer to elect to be made voluntarily redundant, the officer must be provided a consideration period of a maximum of one month from the date of the offer in which to advise the chief executive of the officer's election, and the chief executive must not give notice of redundancy before the end of the one month consideration period.
- L6.3 To allow an officer to make an informed decision on whether to submit an election to be made voluntarily redundant, the chief executive must provide the officer with advice on all of the following:
 - L6.3.1 The sums of money the officer would receive by way of severance pay, pay instead of notice, and paid up leave credits.
 - L6.3.2 The career transition and development opportunities within the ACTPS.
- L6.4 The officer should seek independent advice on all of the following:
 - L6.4.1 The amount of accumulated superannuation contributions.
 - L6.4.2 The options open to the officer concerning superannuation.
 - L6.4.3 The taxation rules applicable to the various payments.

- L6.5 CIT must supplement the costs of independent, accredited financial counselling incurred by each officer who has been offered voluntary redundancy up to a maximum of $1000. The chief executive must authorise the accredited financial counsellors to invoice CIT directly.
- L6.6 Subject to subclause L6.7, where the chief executive approves an election to be made redundant and gives the notice of retirement in accordance with the PSM Act, the period of notice is one month, or 5 weeks if the officer is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years continuous service.
- L6.7 Where the chief executive so directs, or the officer so requests, the officer will be retired at any time within the period of notice under subclause L6.6, and the officer must be paid in lieu of pay for the unexpired portion of the notice period.

Severance benefit

- L6.8 An officer who elects to be made redundant in accordance with this clause is entitled to be paid the greater of the following amounts:
 - L6.8.1 An amount equal to 2 weeks of the officer's pay for each completed year of continuous service, plus a pro rata payment for completed months of continuous service since the last year of continuous service. The maximum sum payable under this paragraph is 48 weeks' pay.
 - L6.8.2 An amount equal to 26 weeks of the officer's pay.
- L6.9 For the purpose of calculating any payment instead of notice or part payment, the pay an officer would have received had they been on annual leave during the notice period, or the unexpired portion of the notice period as appropriate, is used.
- L6.10 For the purpose of calculating payment under subclause L6.8 all the following apply:
 - L6.10.1 If an officer has been acting in a higher position for a continuous period of at least 12 months immediately preceding the date on which they receive a notice of retirement, the pay level is the officer's pay in the higher position at that date.
 - L6.10.2 If an officer has, during 50% or more of pay periods in the 12 months immediately preceding the date on which they receive a notice of retirement, been paid a loading for shift-work or are paid a composite pay, the weekly average amount of shift loading received during that 12 month period is counted as part of "weeks pay".
 - L6.10.3 The inclusion of other allowances, being allowances in the nature of pay, will be subject to the approval of the chief executive.
 - L6.10.4 Redundancy pay will be calculated on a proportionate basis where the employee has worked part-time hours during the period of service and the employee has less than 24 years full-time service.

L7 - Retention Period for Excess Officers

- L7.1 An excess officer who does not accept voluntary redundancy is entitled to a 7 month retention period.
- L7.2 The retention period will commence on one of the following days:
 - L7.2.1 On the day the officer is advised in writing by the chief executive that the officer is an excess officer.

L7.2.2 In the case of an officer who is invited by the chief executive to submit an election to be retired - one month after the day on which the election is invited.

L7.3 At the end of the retention period, if the officer has not been redeployed, the officer must be offered a choice of the following:

L7.3.1 A suitable vacant position at the officer's substantive level, to be transferred to in accordance with the PSM Act.

L7.3.2 Retirement from the ACTPS with a severance payment which is the equivalent to what the officer would have received had the officer accepted the voluntary redundancy, less the amount of salary that the officer received during the retention period.

L7.4 To be transferred to a suitable position in accordance with paragraph L7.3.1 an excess officer need only be found suitable, or suitable within a reasonable time (generally 3 to 6 months) to be transferred to the position.

L8 - Reduction in Classification

L8.1 Where efforts to redeploy at level have failed and where the officer has refused the offer of voluntary redundancy, the chief executive with the agreement of the officer may reduce the officer in classification and place the officer in a specific position.

L8.2 Reduction in classification is to occur in accordance with the PSM Act.

L9 - Involuntary Retirement

L9.1 An excess officer may be made involuntarily redundant, subject to the agreement of the union(s). This clause applies to excess officers who are not any of the following:

L9.1.1 Retired with consent.

L9.1.2 Redeployed to another position.

L9.1.3 Reduced in classification.

L9.2 An officer may be involuntarily retired subject to the agreement of the union(s). Such agreement must not be withheld if, during or after 6 months from the date the officer was declared excess, the officer does one of the following:

L9.2.1 Does not accept a transfer in accordance with the PSM Act.

L9.2.2 Refuses to apply for, or be considered for, a position for which the officer could reasonably be expected to be qualified to perform, either immediately or in a reasonable time.

L9.3 Where the chief executive believes that there is insufficient productive work available for an excess officer during the retention period, the chief executive may make the officer involuntarily redundant before the end of the retention period.

L9.4 An excess officer must not be involuntarily retired if they have not been invited to elect to be voluntarily retired with benefits, or have made such an election and the chief executive refuses to approve it.

L9.5 Where the chief executive involuntarily retires an excess officer, the officer must be given no less than 4 weeks' notice of the action proposed; or 5 weeks if the officer is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years of continuous service. This notice period must, as far as practicable, be concurrent with the 7 month retention period.

L10 - Income Maintenance Payment

- L10.1 An officer who has been receiving a higher rate of pay for a continuous period of at least 12 months and who would have continued to receive that pay rate, except for the excess officer declaration, must be considered to have the higher pay rate.
- L10.2 This pay is known as the income maintenance pay. The income maintenance pay, where applicable, is used for the calculation of all conditions and entitlements under this clause.
- L10.3 The income maintenance pay exists for the retention period or the balance of the retention period.
- L10.4 If an officer is involuntarily retired, the entitlements, including paying out the balance of the retention periods, where applicable, must be calculated on the income maintenance pay rate. If an officer is involuntarily retired during the retention periods the officer's date of retirement is the date that the officer would have retired after the retention period ceased, not the date of the involuntary retirement. All final entitlements must be calculated from the latter date.
- L10.5 If an officer is involuntarily reduced in classification during the retention period, the officer is entitled to be paid at the income maintenance pay rate for the balance of the retention period.
- L10.6 All allowances in the nature of pay must be included in determining the income maintenance pay rate.

L11 - Leave and Expenses to Seek Employment

- L11.1 At any time after the officer has been advised under subclause L4.2 of being potentially excess, the officer is entitled to paid leave to seek alternative employment. Leave granted under this clause is for periods of time to examine the job and to attend interviews. Reasonable travelling time must also be granted.
- L11.2 The officer is entitled to any reasonable fares and other incidental expenses if these are not met by the prospective employer.

L12 - Use of Personal Leave

- L12.1 The use of personal leave must not extend the retention periods of an officer unless these periods are supported by a medical certificate or are of such a nature as to make the seeking of employment during certificated personal leave inappropriate.
- L12.2 An officer who is receiving income maintenance must have those payments continued during certified personal leave periods of up to a total of 6 months.

L13 - Appeals

- L13.1 Without affecting the officer's rights under the FW Act, an excess officer has the right under Section J to appeal any decision taken in relation to the officer's eligibility for benefits under subclause L4.6, L9 - and, the amount of such benefits, or the amount payable by way of income maintenance under clause L10 -.
- L13.2 An excess officer who received a notice of involuntary redundancy under clause L9.5 has the right under section J to appeal the decision.

L14 - Agreement Not to Prevent Other Action

- L14.1 Nothing in this Agreement prevents the reduction in classification of an officer or the retirement of an officer as a result of action relating to discipline, invalidity, inefficiency or loss of essential qualifications.

L15 - Re-engagement of Previously Retrenched Officers

- L15.1 Despite the PSM Act, officers who are involuntarily retired from the ACTPS can be engaged at any time by the chief executive.
- L15.2 Officers who elect to be made voluntarily redundant under L6 - cannot be re-engaged in the ACTPS until a period has expired, which is equivalent in weeks and days to the termination payment received under subclause L6.8 or paragraph L7.3.2, except with the written consent of the chief executive.

Section M CIT Specific Conditions

M1 - Operation of CIT Specific Conditions

- M1.1 Section M applies exclusively to CIT employees engaged in a classification in Annex A.
- M1.2 The following ACTPS common terms and conditions do not apply to CIT employees:
- M1.2.1 Clause E11, Christmas Shutdown.
 - M1.2.2 Clause E24, Recovery Leave Arrangements for Employees Above Senior Office Grade A and Equivalent.

M2 - Temporary Transfer

- M2.1 In filling a temporary vacancy for a period of 6 months, or longer, the Chief Executive will give preference to officers provided that they are at least as suitable for the vacancy as other candidates. In determining suitability for temporary performance of duties, the Chief Executive will have regard to merit and the career development of officers.
- M2.2 Despite section 100 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994, both officers and temporary employees may be directed for temporary transfer (at level or on higher duties).
- M2.3 If a temporary employee is selected for temporary transfer, the direction shall not extend past the termination date of the employee's existing temporary contract.

M3 - Incremental Advancement

- M3.1 Despite subclause C5.5, except in the case of age increments, an employee's increment will be deferred by one day for every calendar day of unauthorised absence or leave without pay that does not count as service.

M4 - Home Based Work

- M4.1 To ensure paragraph B24.3.5 is adequately considered, home-based work arrangements will only be approved where a Work Health and Safety (WHS) assessment is conducted on the proposed worksite.
- M4.2 A WHS assessment under this clause may, as determined by the Chief Executive, be conducted by either:
- M4.2.1 The employee via a recognised self-assessment tool provided by CIT.
 - M4.2.2 A suitably qualified/authorised CIT employee.
 - M4.2.3 A suitably qualified/authorised external entity.
- M4.3 To ensure WHS practices are maintained throughout a home based work arrangement a WHS assessment may also be required at any time during the arrangement. This may include a worksite inspection by CIT, with reasonable notice and the prior approval of the employee.
- M4.4 In addition to the capacity to terminate arrangements provided at subclause B24.4, home-based work arrangements may also be terminated by the Chief Executive as a result of an unsatisfactory WHS assessment or where a worksite inspection is not agreed.
- M4.5 Where a home-based work arrangement is to be established under subclause B24.6, a WHS assessment may still be required by the Chief Executive.

M5 - Workplace Health and Safety

- M5.1 CIT commits to Workplace Health and Safety (WH&S) and the Injury Management of all employees by:
- M5.1.1 Providing appropriate access to time, as determined by CIT, for Workplace Health and Safety representatives to perform their duties. The time taken to undertake these WH&S duties will count towards an employee's hours of duty.
 - M5.1.2 Monitoring WH&S issues and making available budget funding for health and wellbeing activities which address prevailing WH&S issues, including but not limited to:
 - M5.1.2 (a) personal protective equipment.
 - M5.1.2 (b) preventative measures such as ergonomic assessment of workstations and preventative exercise and relaxation techniques to minimise risk of musculoskeletal and stress related injuries within the workplace.
 - M5.1.2 (c) activities to encourage greater physical activity.
 - M5.1.3 Making available annual non-mandatory influenza vaccinations to all employees. CIT may also provide immunisation or therapy against other contagions as appropriate. CIT will consider requests from employees for such therapy.
 - M5.1.4 Providing access to specialist critical incident stress debriefing to employees and their immediate family as required further to the commitment of providing Employee Assistance Program services under clause B25.
 - M5.1.5 Making available return to work opportunities for all ill and injured employees, consistent with its legal and moral obligations.
- M5.2 CIT recognises the importance of minimising workplace stress and ensuring that its staff maintain good mental health and wellbeing. In line with legislated WHS duties, this is a shared responsibility between CIT and employees. CIT will work collaboratively with employees at all levels to support a positive workplace culture.
- M5.3 CIT acknowledges that health is not only the absence of illness, but a situation of physical, mental and social wellbeing. In addition to Employee Assistance Program services under clause B25, CIT provides employees:
- M5.3.1 Individually tailored support packages as required.
 - M5.3.2 Reasonable adjustment to work practices in line with ACTPS policy.
 - M5.3.3 Quick access to a variety of external support services via the Staff Information Site (SIS).

 - M5.3.5 Access to Mental Health First Aid training.
 - M5.3.6 Access to psychological services through ACTPS Shared Services initiatives.

- M6.1 Despite subclauses E25.28-E25.29, employees may be granted long service leave for a minimum period of one day, which may or may not be taken consecutively, if requested. Each day taken will be deducted at a rate of 1:1 and this can be taken on double, full or half pay with credits to be deducted on the same basis.
- M6.2 For absences on long service leave of less than 5 consecutive working days, any public holiday, Saturday and Sunday immediately preceding, immediately following and/or during this long service leave will not be debited from the long service leave credit.

M7 - Conversion of Part Time Long Service Leave Credits

- M7.1 Full-time employees may elect to convert previously accrued part-time long service leave credits to equivalent full-time long service leave credits.

M8 - Christmas Shutdown

- M8.1 All officers and temporary employees will observe a two-week Christmas shutdown period as advised in the CIT Teaching Calendar.
- M8.2 Only those employees who are directed or rostered to work during this period may attend for work over the Christmas shutdown period.
- M8.3 Payment for Christmas Shutdown will normally be at full pay unless the employee is on leave immediately before and after the Shutdown period in which case the following will occur:
- M8.3.1 where an employee is on annual leave or personal leave at full pay, payment for the shutdown will be at full pay, with no deduction of personal or annual leave credits.
 - M8.3.2 where an employee is on recreation or personal leave at half pay, payment for Shutdown will be at full pay with no deduction of personal or recreation leave credits.
 - M8.3.3 where an employee is on other forms of leave, payment for Shutdown will be based on the rate of pay for which the leave has been approved e.g. full pay, half pay or without pay. Leave entitlements will be deducted for the Shutdown period in these circumstances.
- M8.4 An employee who is required to work normal duty during the shut-down period will access that time in lieu, at a mutually convenient time as negotiated with the employee's supervisor/manager, but generally not later than the end of February.
- M8.5 In approaching employees to work during the shutdown period supervisors/managers will endeavour to give employees reasonable notice and have regard to the personal circumstances of employees.
- M8.6 Christmas shutdown absence counts as service for all purposes.

M9 - Overseas Commercial Allowance

- M9.1 The Overseas Commercial Allowance (OsCA) applies to employees who are undertaking commercial work or activities associated with procuring and managing contestable business for CIT on site overseas.
- M9.2 The rate of the allowance is $85 gross payment, per day and will not be adjusted for the life of the agreement.

- M9.3 The employee will be entitled to receive the allowance for the duration of the overseas project, while performing duties as mentioned in subclause M9.1.
- M9.4 The maximum approvable duration for the allowance will be three months from the date of its commencement.
- M9.5 Approval of payment for the allowance must be given prior to the staff member travelling overseas.
- M9.6 Once approved, the allowance will be paid for each calendar day, including weekends and travel days, to and from the destination of the commercial activity, except for approved periods of leave, other than Personal Leave as mentioned in subclause M9.7 below.
- M9.7 The employee will be entitled to receive the allowance during periods of approved Personal Leave, where the leave is due to illness or injury sustained during the period of the overseas project.
- M9.8 The allowance is payable in addition to the current meals and incidentals reimbursement process that applies for CIT employees, including that provided at clause B27 (Family Care Costs).
- M9.9 The allowance is classified as 'taxable income' for taxation purposes.
- M9.10 Subject to subclause M9.11, employees performing duties as described in subclause M9.1 will remain employees of CIT for the duration of the overseas project and retain full rights and responsibilities of employment under this agreement.
- M9.11 While the employee is performing work as specified under subclause M9.1, the employee's conditions of employment may be amended to suit the business needs of the overseas project. Where this is the case, any variation to the employment conditions will be specified in a written agreement between the employee and the Chief Executive.

M10 - Engagement of Ancillary Staff

- M10.1 The Chief Executive may engage employees on a casual or temporary contract for work ancillary to vocational education to perform non-core CIT work, for example to engage life models, musicians, waiters.
- M10.2 Where an ancillary staff member is required, consultation and agreement between the parties will occur to:
 - M10.2.1 acknowledge that the nature of those employed as ancillary staff do not meet the normal ACTPS work level standards for any specific classification.
 - M10.2.2 determine CIT classification that most closely relates to the skills required and taking into consideration the market rate for the type of work performed.

M11 - Broadbanding

- M11.1 The Chief Executive may broadband ASO2 and ASO3 and Technical Officer Level 1 and Technical Officer Level 2 positions:
 - M11.1.1 at the written request of the relevant senior manager.
 - M11.1.2 with the written agreement of the position's occupant/s.
- M11.2 Movement from the ASO 2 to the ASO 3 rates of pay and from the Technical Officer Level 1 to the Technical Officer Level 2 rates of pay will be subject to satisfactory performance and competency assessment by the relevant supervisor/manager and the availability of work at the appropriate level. The format and conduct of the competency assessment will be developed in consultation with the supervisor/manager, and the employee occupying the position, and if they choose, their employee representative, prior to the broadbanding of the position.

- M11.3 The Chief Executive will determine a salary point on temporary or permanent recruitment to a broad banded position that will be based on the occupant's experience, skills and qualifications as determined by the relevant supervisor/manager, but not less than the salary level afforded by normal CIT incremental rules. Should that review determine that the employee should be offered a salary point in the higher range of the classification (i.e. ASO 3 or Technical Officer 2) the employee must satisfactorily complete the competency assessment.

M12 - Hours of Work

- M12.1 Despite subclause B15.2 and B17.2, ordinary weekly hours of work for full-time employees will be 36.75 hours per week. Ordinary daily hours of work will be 7 hours 21 minutes.

M13 - Seasonal Employment

- M13.1 Despite paragraph B2.1.2 and subclause B3.1 Seasonal employees may be employed on a Short term temporary or long term temporary basis under which they work for certain periods during consecutive seasons (the "active employment periods").
- M13.2 The active employment periods for CIT seasonal employees will make up no less than 42 per cent of a calendar year. Such periods will be specified in an Active Employment Period Schedule on commencement, and in advance of any given calendar year thereafter.
- M13.3 CIT may alter an employee's Active Employment Period Schedule:
- M13.3.1 Despite subclause B3.7, at any stage throughout a calendar year where dates are altered with no change to the overall engagement percentage.
 - M13.3.2 In line with subclause B3.6, where the engagement percentage may be extended up to 100 per cent of any calendar year with the agreement of the employee.
 - M13.3.3 In line with subclause B3.7, where the engagement period may be shortened provided that the minimum period is no less than 31 per cent of any calendar year.

M14 - Overtime

- M14.1 Despite clause C9.12 the rate of payment for overtime for employees engaged in all classifications will be:

 - M14.1.2 Double time: $\text{Annual Salary} \times 12 / 313 \times 4 / 2 \times 1 / 73.5$

M15 - Overtime for Casual Employees

- M15.1 Despite clause B14.6, a casual employee is eligible for payment of overtime in respect of all hours worked in excess of either:
- M15.1.1 10 or more hours in a day (excluding meal breaks).
 - M15.1.2 36.75 hours or more per week.

Section N 'Low Wage' Salary Floor Increases and Classification Review

N1 - 'Low Wage' Salary Floor Increases

- N1.1 Clause N1 applies to employees engaged in the following classifications:
- N1.1.1 Administrative Service Officers (ASO),
 - N1.1.2 General Service Officers (GSO),
 - N1.1.3 ICT Trainees,
 - N1.1.4 Trainees.

ANNEX B – ATTRACTION AND RETENTION INCENTIVES

1. Introduction

- 1.1. This Section ('the Framework') sets out the provisions that apply to Attraction and Retention Incentives (ARIns).
- 1.2. An ARIn may only be agreed and approved in accordance with this Framework.
- 1.3. ARIns apply to all employee types employed in classifications covered by this Agreement.
- 1.4. Subject to the terms of this Framework, it is a matter for the chief executive's sole discretion (in consultation with the head of service) as to whether an ARIn will be offered or continued.
- 1.5. In assessing whether an ARIn should be offered or continued to an employee, the chief executive will consider the consequences the provision of the ARIn may have on the Territory's ability to recruit and/or retain employees to Executive positions.
- 1.6. In this Framework, unless the contrary intention appears:
 - 1.6.1. 'Attraction and Retention Incentives' (ARIns) means additional pay and/or conditions of employment, provided in recognition of the additional requirements of a position that are set out in paragraph 2.3 and recorded through a written agreement between the chief executive and the employee occupying the position to which the ARIn is to apply.
 - 1.6.2. 'Base rate of pay' in relation to an employee is the rate of pay payable under Annex A of this Agreement for the employee's classification on the date the ARIn commences, or for a review, on the date that the ARIn is approved, or renewed, following a review.
 - 1.6.3. 'Chief executive' means the person occupying the position of chief executive of CIT, or their nominated delegate.
 - 1.6.4. 'Group ARIn' means an ARIn approved by the Chief executive, after consideration by the head of service, for a number of related positions with the same classification performing an identical function in CIT, which is applied to the employees in those positions.
 - 1.6.5. 'Head of service' means the person occupying the position and exercising the powers of the head of service.
 - 1.6.6. A reference to 'position, employee, occupant or union' includes 'positions, employees, occupants or unions'.
 - 1.6.7. 'Relevant market data' may include but is not limited to job sizing assessments, recruitment experience, market surveys and job advertisements.
 - 1.6.8. The 'rates of pay component' of an ARIn refers to enhanced pay rates as per subparagraph 2.4.1 only and does not include any additional lump sum or periodic component of an ARIn or any additional provision approved per subparagraph 2.4.2 or subparagraph 2.4.3.

2. ARIn Requirements

- 2.1. The terms and conditions of employment of this Agreement will continue to form the basis for employees covered by this Agreement. Accordingly, where an ARIn applies to an employee, the terms and conditions of the employee is a combination of both of the following:
 - 2.1.1. the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement; and
 - 2.1.2. the terms and conditions contained in the ARIn.
- 2.2. The terms and conditions of employment contained in an ARIn prevail over the terms and conditions of employment contained in this Agreement to the extent of any inconsistency.
- 2.3. In determining whether to offer or continue an ARIn to an employee, the chief executive will have regard to all the following relevant matters:
 - 2.3.1. whether the position is critical to the operation of CIT;
 - 2.3.2. whether an employee who occupies the position requires specialised qualifications, skill set and/or experience to perform the requirements of the position;

- 2.3.3. whether the role and skills required by the employee who occupies the position are in high demand;
- 2.3.4. the level at which comparable individuals with skills and qualifications for the role are remunerated in the marketplace;
- 2.3.5. the difficulty and cost associated with recruiting to the position;
- 2.3.6. any other matter considered relevant to determining whether or not an ARIn would be appropriate in the circumstances.
- 2.4. An ARIn may contain:
 - 2.4.1. enhanced pay rates;
 - 2.4.2. enhanced superannuation contribution rates;
 - 2.4.3. other terms and conditions of employment where the Chief executive considers there is a clear, unambiguous, and exceptional need.
- 2.5. The terms of the ARIn instrument must contain provisions setting out
 - 2.5.1. the expiry date of the ARIn;
 - 2.5.2. the level of the employee's base rate of pay;
 - 2.5.3. the pay component, any other terms and conditions of employment that are to apply under the ARIn, and the total dollar value of the ARIn;
 - 2.5.4. the requirement that the terms and conditions of the employee will revert to the applicable rates of pay and terms and conditions of employment under this Agreement in the event the ARIn ceases to operate or is terminated; and
 - 2.5.5. the terms of this Framework are included by reference.

3. No Overall Reduction in Terms and Conditions

- 3.1. An ARIn must not be agreed where it would result, when assessed as a whole, in a reduction in the overall terms and conditions of employment provided for the employee under this Agreement.
- 3.2. An ARIn cannot provide terms and conditions that are less favourable than the National Employment Standards or the rates of pay set out in this Agreement for the same work at the same classification level.
- 3.3. Where it is proposed that an ARIn will replace or reduce a condition of employment contained in this Agreement, the chief executive will consult with the relevant union with coverage of the position through the Office of Industrial Relations and Workplace Strategy ('OIRWS') about the proposed change prior to the provision of a written submission to the head of service for consideration.
- 3.4. In consulting with the OIRWS and union in accordance with paragraph 3.3, the chief executive will:
 - 3.4.1. provide the OIRWS and union with relevant information about the position and the proposed change;
 - 3.4.2. give the union a reasonable opportunity to consider this information and, if the union wishes, provide written views to the chief executive within fourteen days; and
 - 3.4.3. consider any views offered by the union before deciding to enter into the ARIn.
- 3.5. Information that the chief executive provides to the union under this section will not include information that might directly or indirectly disclose the identity of the particular employee unless the employee consents to its release.

4. ARIn Requirements During a Recruitment Process

Advertising with an ARIn

- 4.1. Where a proposed ARIn is not within the scope of a Group ARIn, a recruitment selection process may incorporate an ARIn by advertising the position at a higher package value, comprising the relevant Agreement rate of pay plus an identified ARIn amount.

- 4.2. In these circumstances pre-approval of the ARIn through a Comprehensive Submission is required prior to advertising. When the ARIn is implemented (after the employee commences), a second Comprehensive Submission to the head of service is not required.

Offering an ARIn as part of a job offer

- 4.3. Where a proposed ARIn is not within the scope of a Group ARIn, a recruitment selection process at the offer stage may incorporate an ARIn as part of the offer of employment.
- 4.4. In such circumstances the recruitment material and advertisement must state the position rate of pay set out in this Agreement, and state that an ARIn may be available to the successful applicant.
- 4.4.1. This approach is not recommended as a better field of applicants may be attracted when a position is advertised with a higher package identified up front.
- 4.5. In these circumstances pre-approval of the ARIn through a Comprehensive Submission is not required prior to advertising, but if an ARIn is ultimately proposed to be offered to the successful applicant, approval is required through a Comprehensive Submission prior to the offer being made. Time for the review process to occur must be anticipated in the recruitment process.

Advertising Group ARIns

- 4.6. When a position to be advertised is covered by a current Group ARIn, there is no need for a further Comprehensive Submission (as it has already been completed as part of the Group ARIn approval process). As such, while the position remains covered by the scope of a Group ARIn, it will automatically apply and should be included in the advertisement.

ARIn Requirements

- 4.7. Where an ARIn is used as part of a recruitment process:
- 4.7.1. the total package (excluding superannuation) should be disclosed and disaggregated to show:
- 4.7.1.1. the relevant Agreement rate; and
- 4.7.1.2. the content of the ARIn, which is reviewable under the terms of this Agreement.
- 4.8. The nature of the information disclosed at the point of advertising will depend on the type of ARIn used, but applicants should be made aware the ARIn:
- 4.8.1. is reviewable in accordance with the ARIn Framework;
- 4.8.2. may be terminated, or have its value adjusted (either up or down); and
- 4.8.3. must continue to meet the eligibility criteria, including consideration of relevant market rates and/or changes to the operational requirements of CIT.

5. Deeming

- 5.1. An ARIn that is applied to a position, and to the employee occupying the position to which the ARIn applies, which is covered by this Agreement on the day before the Agreement commenced operation will continue in accordance with the provisions of this Framework.

6. Types of ARIns

- 6.1. The chief executive may approve an ARIn as follows.

Project ARIns

- 6.2. A Project ARIn requires:
- 6.2.1. the additional remuneration meets the criteria in paragraph 2.1 of this Framework;
- 6.2.2. a term no longer than 36 months; and
- 6.2.3. the employee's work to which the ARIn is attached is associated with the employee's role in a specified project with a finite term.
- 6.3. A Project ARIn cannot be renewed and will cease to operate on the date specified in the ARIn for cessation of the position's involvement in the project, or the date of completion of the project, whichever date is the earlier.

- 6.4. A Comprehensive Submission is required to establish a Project ARIn, but no further reviews are required.
- 6.5. Where required, a subsequent new Project ARIn may be offered once only. Where this occurs, a Comprehensive Submission is required.

Fixed Term ARIns

- 6.6. A Fixed Term ARIn requires:
 - 6.6.1. that the additional remuneration meets the criteria in paragraph 2.3 of this Framework;
 - 6.6.2. a term no longer than 12 months.
- 6.7. A Comprehensive Submission is required to establish a Fixed Term ARIn, but no further reviews are required.
- 6.8. A Fixed Term ARIn cannot be varied or renewed and will automatically cease on its specified expiry date.

Renewable ARIns

- 6.9. A Renewable ARIn requires:
 - 6.9.1. the additional remuneration to meet the criteria in paragraph 2.3 of this Framework;
 - 6.9.2. a term no longer than 36 months.
- 6.10. A Renewable Term ARIn will cease to operate on the date specified in the ARIn.
- 6.11. A Renewable ARIn will cease to operate where the ARIn is reviewed in accordance with section 7 of this Framework and the chief executive determines following the review that the ARIn should no longer apply. The date of effect of the ARIn cessation is the date that is at least ninety days after the date notice is provided to the employee of cessation of the ARIn, or on an earlier date if agreed by the employee.
- 6.12. A Comprehensive Submission is required to establish a Renewable ARIn.
- 6.13. A Renewable ARIn requires a Renewal Submission no more than 18 months from commencement or from the last Renewal or Comprehensive Submission.
 - 6.13.1. The purpose of the Renewal Submission is to determine whether the chief executive continues to consider that it is appropriate to provide an employee occupying the position to which the ARIn applies with the terms and conditions of employment provided by the ARIn.

Group ARIns

- 6.14. Where it is proposed that identical ARIns are to apply to a group of positions performing identical functions at the same classification level within CIT, this may be done as a single 'block' approval giving rise to a Group ARIn.
- 6.15. A Group ARIn requires:
 - 6.15.1. the additional remuneration to meet the criteria in paragraph 2.3 of this Framework; and
 - 6.15.2. a term no longer than three years; and
 - 6.15.3. a group of positions and employees performing identical functions at the same classification level, approved in a block in accordance with paragraph 6.14 for a period of up to three years.
- 6.16. A Comprehensive Submission is required to:
 - 6.16.1. establish a Group ARIn;
 - 6.16.2. at the midpoint of this Agreement term; and
 - 6.16.3. prior to the nominal expiry date of this Agreement.
- 6.17. Following a review and consultation with the head of service, the chief executive will determine whether:
 - 6.17.1. the ARIn should be renewed (in the same or different terms);
 - 6.17.2. ceased in accordance with paragraph 6.21 or
 - 6.17.3. in the case of a review conducted in accordance with paragraph 6.16.3, the additional pay component of the ARIn should be incorporated into base rates of pay in any subsequent Agreement.

- 6.18. To establish a Group ARIn only one Comprehensive Submission needs to be made in accordance with section 7 of this Framework in relation to the group of positions as identified in the submission to the head of service.
- 6.19. If following a review under section 7 the chief executive determines that the ARIn should be renewed (on the same or different terms) the revised ARIn will apply to all employees in the specified positions or class of positions.
- 6.20. Employees may be offered a Group ARIn during the term the Group ARIn is in effect. Each employee in a position covered by the Group ARIn will be provided with an individual ARIn providing the same benefits and expiration date.
- 6.21. A Group ARIn will cease to operate where the ARIn is reviewed in accordance with section 7 of this Framework and the chief executive determines following the review that the ARIn should no longer apply. The date of effect of the ARIn cessation is the date that is at least ninety days after the date notice is provided to the employee of cessation of the ARIn, or on an earlier date if agreed by the employee.

7. Review

Comprehensive Submission

- 7.1. In reviewing an ARIn, the chief executive must have regard to the matters to be considered at paragraph 2.3. The chief executive must also take into consideration relevant market data.
- 7.2. To commence, cease or change any ARIn, a Comprehensive Submission to the head of service is required. Specifically, a Comprehensive Submission is required to be submitted where:
 - 7.2.1. a preliminary view is formed by the chief executive that the position ceases to be critical to the operation of CIT;
 - 7.2.2. a preliminary view is formed by the chief executive that the employee ceases to hold the required specialist qualifications or specialist attributes;
 - 7.2.3. a new ARIn (Project ARIn, Fixed Term ARIn, Renewable ARIn or Group ARIn) is being proposed for an existing employee or group of employees;
 - 7.2.4. in relation to a Renewable ARIn, three years have elapsed since the last Comprehensive Submission;
 - 7.2.5. in relation to a Group ARIn, to establish a Group ARIn and no more than three years from either commencement or from the last Comprehensive Submission and prior to the date of expiry of this Agreement;
 - 7.2.6. a position is to be advertised with a rate of pay which includes the proposed ARIn amount; or
 - 7.2.7. a variation is being proposed to an existing Renewable ARIn or Group ARIn.
- 7.3. A Comprehensive Submission must:
 - 7.3.1. address the matters to be considered at paragraph 2.3 of this Framework; and
 - 7.3.2. address whether the substantive position is correctly classified; and
 - 7.3.3. address whether the position's job description and/or organisation structure of CIT can be adjusted to mitigate the need for an ARIn; and
 - 7.3.4. where the chief executive considers that there is a compelling reason for CIT to pay enhanced rates of pay in excess of 50% of the base rate of pay for the position's classification, the chief executive will provide the OIRWS details of that compelling reason, including appropriate evidence and supporting remuneration data.
- 7.4. When a recruitment selection process is proposed to include a pre-approved ARIn, the Comprehensive Submission must:
 - 7.4.1. address the circumstances of the recruitment selection process (i.e., why an ARIn is necessary to be included in the advertised rate);
 - 7.4.2. demonstrate the position (or a similar position) has recently been advertised without an ARIn and did not attract a suitable field or provide evidence that advertising at the Agreement rate will not attract a suitable field; and

- 7.4.3. set out the reasons in support of the ARIn itself (i.e., why the position meets the ARIn eligibility criteria).

Renewal Submission

- 7.5. Where, following head of service consideration of a Comprehensive Submission and a Renewable ARIn is approved by the chief executive, it must be reassessed no more than 18 months later through a Renewal Submission.
- 7.6. A Renewal Submission is required to be completed where:
- 7.6.1. it is proposed that a Renewable ARIn should be renewed on the same terms;
 - 7.6.2. an employee who is party to a Fixed Term, Renewable or Project ARIn temporarily vacates the position to which the ARIn relates, and it is being proposed that the ARIn be provided to the employee who is acting in the vacated position; or
 - 7.6.3. an employee who is party to a Fixed Term, Renewable or Project ARIn temporarily vacates the position to which the ARIn relates for a period of ninety days or more, and it is being proposed that the ARIn apply to the employee upon the employee's return to the position.

Overdue Submissions

- 7.7. A Comprehensive or Renewal Submission due under this Agreement must be completed before the due date.
- 7.8. Where a Comprehensive or Renewal Submission is not completed before the due date, CIT will within one week of the due date passing:
- 7.8.1. notify the employee(s) covered by the ARIn of the delay;
 - 7.8.2. provide reasons for the delay to the head of service; and
 - 7.8.3. develop and implement a plan to ensure the review is completed within three months.
- 7.9. If the review is not completed within the three-month period, the head of service will arrange for the review to be completed expeditiously.
- 7.10. The ARIn will continue until the review is completed in accordance with either subparagraph 7.8.3 or paragraph 7.9.

8. Consultation Requirements

- 8.1. Nothing in this section is intended to reduce overall terms and conditions.
- 8.2. The employee may invite a union or other employee representative to assist or represent their interests during consultation.

Establishment

- 8.3. The chief executive must consult on the proposed terms of an ARIn with the employee to whom the ARIn is to apply, prior to the ARIn being approved; except where the ARIn is to be included as part of a recruitment process and there is no retrospective employee recruited at that stage.

Renewal or Cessation

- 8.4. If the position to which the ARIn applies is occupied when undertaking a review of the ARIn, the chief executive will consult with the employee occupying the position to which the ARIn applies.
- 8.5. Where the employee occupying the position for which the ARIn is being reviewed is on long-term leave or is not responsive, reasonable attempts must be made to consult with the employee, or the employee's representative. If such reasonable attempts to consult with the employee are unsuccessful, then the chief executive may proceed with the review without the input of the employee.
- 8.6. Upon completion of the review the chief executive will notify the affected employee(s) in writing, and where relevant their representative(s), of the preliminary outcomes and reasons for the decision. The chief executive will provide the employee(s) and their representative(s) 14 days in which to provide a written response for consideration by the chief executive before making a final decision.

No Overall Reduction in Terms and Conditions

- 8.7. Where the terms of paragraph 3.3 are met, the chief executive must consult with the relevant union in accordance with paragraph 3.3.

9. Approval Requirements

- 9.1. The chief executive may only approve an ARIn when the following has occurred:
- 9.1.1.  - 9.1.2. The consultation requirements in section 8 of this Framework have been met.
 - 9.1.3. The review requirements in section 7 of this Framework have been met.
- 9.2. Before approving an ARIn the chief executive must consider the views of the head of service.

10. Operation

- 10.1. The rates of pay component of an ARIn will count as pay for all purposes including superannuation and for the purposes of calculating the rate of pay for annual leave, long service leave, paid personal leave, paid maternity leave, redundancy payments and other paid leave granted under this Agreement. If leave is on reduced pay or without pay, the pay component of the ARIn must be reduced proportionately.
- 10.2. Normal incremental advancement (where available) and pay and superannuation increases contained in Section C of this Agreement will continue to apply in relation to the substantive classification of the employee in receipt of an ARIn. Pay increase percentages will not apply to the pay component of an ARIn unless specified in the ARIn.
- 10.3. Any payments made pursuant to paragraph 10.2 of this Framework are paid in addition to the ARIn i.e. this means the ARIn payment does not absorb increases paid pursuant to paragraph 10.2.
- 10.4. The rates of pay component of an ARIn is payable by fortnightly instalment or lump sum.
- 10.5. The additional pay component provided under an ARIn may be used for the purposes of salary sacrifice arrangements in accordance with the Salary Sacrifice Arrangement provisions of this Agreement. Where an employee salary sacrifices any part of the terms of an ARIn and, in accordance with this Framework, the ARIn ceases to apply, the employee must notify the salary sacrifice arrangement provider that the terms of the ARIn can no longer be packaged.
- 10.5.1. The pay component of an ARIn cannot be directly linked to performance pay.
- 10.6. An ARIn will be paid proportionately on a pro-rata basis where the employee is part time. Where the scheduled part time hours worked by an employee to which the ARIn applies are amended the ARIn reduces (or increases) proportionately.
- 10.7. ARIn's are generally not paid retrospectively, but with the approval of the head of service may be for up to 3 months.
- 10.8. The ARIn will commence from whichever is the latter (unless an earlier date has been agreed by the head of service in accordance with paragraph 10.7):
- 10.8.1. the date specified in the ARIn; or
 - 10.8.2. the date of final approval by the chief executive after the requirements of section 6 are met.
- 10.9. An ARIn will cease to apply to an employee on the date that employee vacates the position to which the ARIn applies, including when the employee becomes unattached or is temporarily transferred to another position.
- 10.9.1. A Renewal Submission is required to be completed where an ARIn is to apply to another employee who occupies the vacated position, unless the position and the other employee are covered by the same Group ARIn. A renewal submission will be required in these circumstances.
 - 10.9.2. The ARIn will automatically apply to the employee upon their return to the vacated position. A renewal submission will not be required in these circumstances.

- 10.10. An ARIn will cease to apply to an employee in relation to a sanction arising from a misconduct or underperformance matter, on the date the sanction is to apply where the delegate determines that the sanction to be applied to the employee is termination of the application of the ARIn.
- 10.11. An ARIn will cease to apply to an employee on the date an employee loses the qualification, or registration which allows them to perform the duties of the position to which the ARIn relates.
