Dear _____

Further to my correspondence of 30 April 2013, I now wish to confirm that the 28 day right of appeal timeframe under the ACT Freedom of Information Act 1989 (FOI Act) has been exhausted in relation to the following request from you:

All correspondence between ACTEW Corporation and the Chief Minister's office produced or held by the Chief Minister's office from the period of March 10, 2013 to April 8, 2013 inclusive, relating to salaries and entitlements of executive staff in the ACTEW Corporation.

I have not received any notification that any of the third parties involved in the documents which fall within the scope of your request has formally exercised their rights under the Act to appeal my decisions as outlined in previous correspondence dated 30 April, 2013.

Consequently, as the authorised decision maker, I am now releasing the following documents outlined in the attached schedule in response to your Freedom of Information request made on 3 April 2013 and subsequently refined in scope on 8 April 2013.

Copies of the released or partially released documents are attached to this correspondence.

Please note that the appeal timeframe on my decisions in relation to documents 21 and 22 remain in place and I will notify you of the outcome of any appeal by a third party after 24 June 2013.

If you have any questions or require any clarification on these matters, please do not hesitate to contact me on 02 62050167.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Gillespie
