Dear

Freedom of Information Request

I refer to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (the FOI Act) received on 1 December 2016 in which you sought access to documents related to

- traffic numbers, volumes, flow and vehicle speeds for streets, intersections and street mid blocks in Yarralumla for 2006 and for the period January 2011 to July 2016.

Your request has been partially transferred to the Justice and Community Safety (JACS) directorate as they also conduct speed surveys. You will therefore receive a separate response from JACS in relation to this request.

Decision

I am an officer authorised under section 22 of the FOI Act to make a decision in relation to your request.

Roads ACT has located five documents that fall within the scope of your request. I have decided to release these documents to you in full as summarised in the schedule at Attachment A. You will note that the documents I am providing include traffic data for other suburbs and the figures for Yarralumla are highlighted for ease of reference.

Roads ACT has confirmed that there were no reports located nor any data available for 2011 or 2013 and no intersection counts.

Online release

Information released to a person under the Freedom of Information Act is subject to the ACT Government's Online FOI Publication Policy. This policy promotes the public release of information held by government via the open government website. In this case, I have decided to publish the documents.

Fees and charges

Freedom of information requests attract fees and charges for time spent searching and retrieving documents, decision-making time and photocopying. In relation to your request, no fee is payable as the time spent processing your request and the number of documents released were within the fee-free threshold.

If you are dissatisfied with my decision, you have the right to seek an internal review.
If you wish to seek an internal review you should write to:

The Director-General
